The storm shows no signs of abating tonight and high water is anxiously awaited.

Reports come that several houses have been ruined at Holly Beach. The Phillip J. Walsh, seaside home for Catholic orphans is also damaged. No trains reached here today and are not likely to for several days, as all the roads are washed out.

STORM AT CAPE MAY. Cape May, Oct, 12.—The tide over Cape May meadows last night five feet deep, accompanied by a heavy beating sea. At South Cape May the sea carried away the beach bulwarks and large sections of the avenue roadbed and bearening several entrages on its and jeopardized several cottages on its border. The road for several hundred feet was undermined by the surf. Cape May proper has escaped with a few hundred dollars damage. The storm is the worst for five years. Telegraph communication is seriously interrupted other cape shore resorts. Tonight's high tide and heavy sea washed the remnant of Beach avenue at South Cape May into the sea. The waves broke against the houses, cutting out the underpinning and sweeping away the fences and trolley tracks. St. Peter's chapel at Cape May Point has lost part of its support and may drop on the strand before morning.

East Cape May beach was swept by the sea and the trolley road bed washed out.

Pleasantville, N. J., Oct. 12.—All trains bound east are stalled here or have returned to Philadelphia. All communication with Atlantic City is cut off, and gangs of men are trying to repair the lead breaks in the roadbeds of the Reading and West Jersey railroads. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the of the Reading and West Jersey rail-roads. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the water rose to the highest point since the great storm of 1859 and the high wind forced the waves against the roads until the beds gave way, and in an hour or two, deep cuts a hundred feet long were washed out, through which rivers of water poured under the tracks in mighty torrents. The breaks are the most serious that have occurred on the meadows for years and it may be a day or two before railroad communi-cation is established with Atlantic City. The wind is still fresh from the north-est and this evening fears are enter-tained that the next high water will greatly increase the damage already

"WONDERLAND" COLLAPSED. Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 12.-The storm and high dide this morning further injured the iron pier and took another section of the structure away, toether with the big music pavillion. A part of the old board walk, in Chelsea, has been washed down and the yachtsmen's wharf, at the Inlet, 200 feet in length, has been completely destroyed. The south track of the Reading rail-

ON MASSACHUSETTS COAST. Gloucester, Mass., Oct., 12.— The northeast storm which com-menced yesterday morning, gradmenced yesterday morning, grad-ually increased during the day, and last night the wind reached hurricane force. For many years no such sea has been seen along the coast which is an indication that the storm is very se-vere off coast vere off coast.

No further disasters are reported. The hurricane signals are still dis-played and the intensity of the storm has not yet abated.

Boston, Oct. 12.—That the present gale will prove disastrous to shipping is ex-pected to be shown by the reports of the next few days. More or less damage has already been sustained. Particularly among the pleasure craft in this vicin-ty, it has been very heavy. ity it has been very heavy.

She is the property of the Prospect Gunning-club. Great damage has been done to the beach in this vicinity.

EXCITING EXPERIENCE.

Passenger Train Stalled in the Sea Nearly All Day.

Atlantic City, Oct. 12.—Passengers on the Newfield local train over the West Jersey railroad, bound for this city, had an exciting experience today. The train Jersey railroad, bound for this city, had an exciting experience today. The train was trying to cross the meadows over tracks submerged in three or four feet of water by the storm and was halted near the tower, where the fatal wreck occurred last July, because the fires in the engine were extinguished by the water. Here the train was stalled in the midst of a sea from 10 a. m., until 5 this afternoon. But two trains entered the city from Philadelphia today, and one of these carried a number of passengers from Pittsburg, who, when the train started to cross the sheet of water with no land in sight, became much alarmed and anxiously inquired of the conductor if it would not be safer to return rather than venture the trip, which appeared so dangerous to them. The conductor quieted their fears with the statement that the journey had been made with safety before under similar conditions. Upon landing here the passengers gave a sigh of relief and remarked that it was the first time they ever "enjoyed" the experience of riding in a railroad car and above a turbulent sea at the same time. in a railroad car and above a turbulent General Superintendent I. A. Sweigert, of the Reading system, is out on the bay in the sloop yacht Alert, Captain Gale commanding, on a fishing cruise in company with a party of friends, Mr. Bogart, Dr. Eugene Reed and William G. Bartlett. While it is generally supposed they are snug in harbor in one of the many coves that abound in the bay there, there is some little anxiety to know their exact situation.

POLITICAL STORIES.

TO CONQUER A GREAT EVIL.

TO CONQUER A GREAT EVIL.

"One of the funniest campaign experiences I ever had," said Colonel Charles Page Bryan, "was while I was making a speech down in the center of the state.
This is not a story on me, by the way, but on another man. The orator, who shall be nameless, was one of three others besides myself at the meeting, and delivered a long speech in the course of which he said:

"Remember, if you conquer yourself, you conquer the greatest evil in the world."

"He made the assertion in all serious-

"Yes, she replied.
"I suppose it keeps him pretty busy,' I ventured.
"Yes,' was the very short reply.
"This rather froze me, and somewhat discouraged my attempts to be pleasant, but I came to the front again with what I thought was a humorous remark:
"I suppose he kisses all the babies in the district."
This was unfortunate. She flared up angrily. Yes,' she replied

"'Don't believe a word of it. He hasn't had time to kiss his own bables for two

"'Pears to me it's putty nigh on ter de huntin' season,' was his reply.

"'What's that got to do with it, uncle,' I asked him

ADJOURNED SINE DEO

ADJOURNED SINE DEO.

"Peter Breen is a well-known character in Colorado," said I. N. Stevens, chairman of the silver party. His career has been full of startling contrasts, and his condition has varied from that of common day laborer to that of treasurer of the state of Colorado; from that of $2 a day wages to that of $75,000 a year income; from that of a succeful business man and politician to that of a bankrupt and a prisoner in the county jail, charged with having, as a banker, received deposits after he knew his bank was insolvent.

"Breen appeared in Leadville as a day laborer shortly after the great silver discoveries, and for several years plodded along with a pick and shovel, satisfied to earn his daily bread by the sweat of his brow, then, through some turn of fortune's wheel, he became the owner of a prospect hole. He developed this hole in the rocky hillside into a mine, and with the possision of plenty of money Peter Breen, the uneducated Irish laborer, developed into State Treasurer Pete Breen, the financier, capitalist and politician. But before this transformation Breen had shown his good sense by marrying a bright Leadville school mistress, who was given the credit of editing her husband's speeches and correspondence, and for teaching him many time phrases, which Peter greatly enjoyed. There was a tendency among the Colorado politicians to guy Peter's claims to consideration, and at first but scant courtesy was paid to his efforts to obtain a hearing in the county and state conventions.

"It is related that during the session of a certain Lake county convention Peter Breen had made more than twenty effort to speak, and had always been ignored by the chairman, At last the time came for adjournment, and with a voice of thunder Peter Breen shouted:

"Misther Chairman! Misther Chairman!"

"The chairman, who was Tather sorry for Breen recognized him. This was man!"

"The chairman, who was rather sorry for Breen, recognized him. This was Peter's great opportunity, and, with appailing dignity, he said:
""Misther Chairman and geldlemen av the convintion, I move you, sors, that this convintion do now adjourn sine two.""—Times-Herld.

'Scaldy Bill" Knocked Out in the Seventeenth Round---The Palmer-Murphy Fight.

The south track of the Reading railread over the meadows is washed away, for a hundred or more feet, and there is also a washout on the Camden and Atlantic railroad, trains being held at Pleasantville.

Werner's "Wonderland" building colhapsed this afternoon and the exhibits and building are a total loss. Richards' bath houses, in Ventno, have been destroyed and the steamboat pier on the Brigantine Beach, 300 feet in length, is gone, sections of it having been carried out to sea.

Walcott was the first to appear in the main bout. He was seconded by Howie Hodgdins, Tommy Connolly and Tim Collins. "Scaldy Bill" was looked after by Charley White, Sam Bolen and Jim Johnson. They were scheduled to go twenty rounds at 148 pounds. Scaldy was nearly a head taller than his antagonist. Walcott punched his man hard and forced the fighting from the start. It was a terrific "go." Joe rushed at his man and landed hard left swings on the boy bringing the right round on the head. Scaldy never winced and sent in a couple of wild awings on Joe's body. Scaldy took his punishment well until he became groggy and dazed in the seventeenth and after Walcott had sent him down three times the referee stopped the brutal ex-Walcotte was the first to appear in after Walcott had sent him down three times the referee stopped the brutal exhibition and gave Walcott the decision. London, Oct. 12.—The fight between Peter Palmer, of London and Johnnie Murphy, of Boston, for the bantam weight championship of the world, took place tonight at the National Sporting club and was won by Palmer. Both men were in excellent condition and each weighed in at 114 1-2 pounds. Palmer was a great favorite in the bet-ting at odds of 9 to 4. The Englishman forced the fighting from the outset of the battle. He was much the quicker in his deliveries, and hustled Murphy around the ring in lively style. In the first two rounds Murphy falled to land a single blow. Nevertheless he stood up bravely and took punishment pluckily as Palmer rained blows upon him with his right and left. The pluck of the Yankee boy was heartly applauded, At the end of the twentieth round Palmer was declared the winner on points Murphy was not knocked out.

Murphy was not knocked out.

Philadelphia, Oct. 12.—Charley McKeever again demonstrated that he is easily the best lightweight in this section with the gloves. He met Charley Johnson in a six round contest at the Caledonian club and won in a walk. Johnson was lucky to stay in the rounds. He was game and willing, but is not in McKeever's class as a boxer. The judges agreed on McKeever as the

MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review. New York, Oct. 12.—Dealings at the sassorted. Stock Exchange today were light, the sales of stocks amounting to 143,187 to choice. sales of stocks amounting to 143,187 shares. The stock market was unsettled and irregular throughout, closing weak in tone. At the opening the tendency was downward on sales for both accounts. The prominent issues scored losses of 14,614 per cent., Sugar leading with sales as low as 1051. The general market was adversely influenced by the advance in discounts abroad. This, it was argued, will check the movement of gold this way unless the movement of gold this way unler local bankers offer additional induce ments. The comparative easiness of money led to liquidations in certain money led to inquidations in certain quarters, especially as some commis-sion houses are not inclined to encour-age new ventures pending the national election. After the decline referred to, Tobacco advanced from 68½ to 70½, and Tobacco advanced from 68½ to 70½, and this strengthened the general market for a time. In the late afternoon trading the selling was renewed in the industrials. Leather and Rubber preferred stocks were heavy, falling to 55½ and 65 respectively. Sugar, the Grangers, Manhattan and General Electric all lacked support in the final trading. Speculation closed weak in tone. Net changes show losses of ½@1½ per cent., except for Rubber preferred, which dropped 3 per cent. Northwest and Tobacco gained ½@1 per cent.

ZERFASS SENT TO COUNTY JAIL.

His Wife Is About to Begin Proceed ings to Secure a Divorce. Not long ago James F. Zerfass, of Adams avenue, was prospering in the plumbing business and had the respect and confidence of all who knew him. Today he is in the county jail, resting under a serious charge, his home is broken up, his wife is nearly heartbroken, and there is nothing left of his household effects to satisfy a landlord's warrant.

Zerfass was arrested at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at Olyphant in a house kept by Mrs. George W. Gow, near the Delaware and Hudson station. He was in a room with Mrs. Gow, who is a widow of only a week, when the arrest was made by County Detective Leyshon, Constable Timothy Jones, of the West Side; Constable Jesse Morris, of Olyphant, and Detective Thomas E. Reynolds. The warrant was sworn out before 'Squire M. W. Cummings. Zerfass could not give ball and was comwarrant.
