Waters Meet, Mich., Oct. 14.—Candidate Bryan's special train traveled from Duluth through Minnesota and Wisconsin all night, and after laying for three hours this morning on a sid-ing near Saxon, resumed at 8 o'clock. The train consisted of four cars, one for baggage and another for the train crew, the third for the use of the party of well known Michigan people accom-panying Mr. Bryan, and the last the special coach obtained for the candidate's use by the national committee The train will remain intact till Detroit is reached Sunday. The sun shone as bright and the weather was as clear as yesterday. When the train reached Ironwood, a lively little town in the Michigan mining belt at 10.45, the candidate opened up his four days of Michigan campaiging.

of Michigan campaiging.

People from the surrounding country had driven in to join the Ironwood folks to welcome the head of the Chicago ticket and the congregation in the square where Mr. Bryan spoke to at least 2,500. A fifteen-minute speech was made by the candidate, and then the train moved to Research the train moved to Bessemer, where it arrived at 9.15. A crowd of about the same proportions as that Ironwood were gathered at the platform at which Mr. Bryan spoke. He made one of his short talks about free colnage, taking no new line of arguments. At 9.40 the train pulled out for Waters Meet.

A POINTER FOR THE SPEAKER. Iron Mountain, Mich., Oct. 14.—"The national bank system is what we're interested in here," shouted a man in the crowd of a couple of hundred people, who had gathered on the platform at Waters Meet to hear Mr. Bryan. Waters Meet is a little railroad junc-tion in the midst of a wide expanse of burned and otherwise denuded forest, and during the five minutes spent there, Mr. Bryan endeavored to answer the man whose interest lay in the na-tional bank. "The difference between our plan and the national bank plan is this," he said, "we have greenbacks out now and these greenbacks draw no out now and these greenbacks draw no interest, and the government pays none. When you retire these greenbacks with an issue of bonds and then let the banks issue money on the bonds, the banks will then draw from the people of the country the interest which the people now have. It is good for the banks but hard on the people."

The familiar sight of sixteen little girls, in which was one in yellow, greeted the Democratte nominee at Iron Riy.

ed the Democratic nominee at Iron Riv-er, and the pretty miss, who represents the gold standard bore a banner inscribed, "16 to 1 and Prosperity." About 300 people were at Iron River, and McKinley badges were pinned on a goodly portion of them. The Republican contingent kept very quiet, however, and Mr. Bryan made no reference to their presence. A little farther down the road, how-ever, he did have something to say about the supporters of his opponent. The train took a little side track from Michigan into Wisconsin, and it was at Florence, in the latter state, that the comments of the candidate were when somebody called for three cheers called forth. He had not finished his little talk about the silver question for McKinley. They were given with considerable vigor, and then a laugh went up from the crowd. "I have no objection," said Mr. Bryan, "to a man cheering for McKinley, but I only wish that a man who thinks that this country is not big enough to attend to its own business would put it in his hat so people would know who he was. We have no right to complain if a man thinks more of foreign nations than he does of America, but he ought not to be ashamed to say so."

AT HANNA'S MINES.

Escanaba, Mich., Oct. 14.—The half hour spent by Mr. Bryan at Iron Mountain had an additional interest to both candidate and audience from that Marcus A. Hanna has mining interests in the vicinity, and is a large shipper of ore from that place. A large number of miners in their working clothes with candles projecting from their charac-teristic head gear, lined the railroad track as the train drew into the sta-tion. Around the stand erected for Mr. Bryan's accommodation a few feet from where the train came to a standstill, 1,500 people had assembled, and Mr. Bryan was cheered as he ascended the stand with Mrs. Bryan, D. G. Campau, Justin R. Whiting and Timothy Tars-

Mr. Hanna's association with the little city brought no direct reference from Mr. Bryan, but in the course of his

You say it is a good thing for the laboring man to be paid in dollars which buy a great deal. Remember that the laboring man is interested more in getting a chance to work than he is interested in the pay that he gets when he does work. The gold standard increases the number of idle men and the idle man is a menace to every man who has employment, and the laboring who has employment, and the laboring man understands that, because the labor-business man nowadays needs them. He must have them if he would bear the strain of business competition and be successful. A man with shaky nerves stands a mighty poor show in the business world of to-day, where he must hit the bull's-eye of fierce competition many times in a day. Steady nerves are dependent upon pure blood, and to have pure blood one must have a perfect digestion.

rich and pure in nutriment. The nerves re-ceive their proper nourishment from the blood and soon become strong and steady. Business men recognize the value of the "Golden Medical Discovery" and thou-sands have testified to its virtues. Drug-gists sell it.

"Having suffered for several years with indi-gestion," writes: Samual Walker, Esq., of Park-esburg, Chester Co., Pa., "I concluded to try your valuable 'Golden Medical Discovery,' Af-ter taking five bottles I was entirely cured. I also suffered from bladder trouble, which was also cured by the 'Discovery,' I feel like a new man."

ing men of this country are making the opening of our mints and the restoration of is to 1, and I would rather trust those laboring men to know what is good for them than to trust the men who have spent their lives trying to destroy labor organizations. My friends, the bible tells us that a tree is known by its fruits. These men who stand at the head of the gold crusade are not new men in this country. They have lived here. They are trees which have been bearing fruit, lo, these many years, and if you judge these men by the fruit they have borne you can tell what fruit they will bear.

SOME NEW FEATURES.

At 2.30 the Bryan special reached Norway, another mining town. In a short way, another mining town. In a short speech from the rear platform of the train, Mr. Bryan made reference to those who have tried to destroy labor organizations similar to that made at Iron Mountain. The people of Powers, 400 of them, heard the candidate deliver a brief speech which contained some new features. He said:

a brief speech which contained some new features. He said:

I notice that the other day one of the Democrats who has left the Democratic party said that we are not giving the liberty to the individual that we ought to, that when we say a man cannot contract for a particular kind of money we are taking away his personal liberty. My friends, you have usury laws. Those usury laws therefore with personal liberty, but what kind of liberty is it that they interfere with? It is the liberty that the man who loans money has to oppress those who borrow money, and the fact that we have to have usury laws shows that there is that in human nature which must be restrained. Our contention that the laws ought to prohibit making of contracts in a particular kind of money, our contention that the law ought to prevent a man demonetizing by contract, that the government makes money by law, is based ut on exactly the same principle. (Cheers.) The dollar that is good enough for the other one-hundredth good. The dollar that is good enough for the other one-hundredth good. The dollar that is good enough for the other one-hundredth good. The dollar that is good enough for the other one-hundredth good for the broker, and the money lender when they loan money. My friends, show me a man who believes that the man who loans money ought to be allowed to demonetize by contract that which the law has declared to be money and I will show you a man who thinks that the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors is more sacred than the right of the creditors r

Mr. Bryan also said: You take a coal trust for instance that wants to live as it is living now so that it can raise the price of coal whenever it wants to and you will find that the coal trust does so invariably without raising the workingman's wages.

M'KINLEY WORKINGMEN.

True Result of the Illinois Steel Works' Poll of Employes--- No Vote Taken by Armour Men.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 14.-The report sent out from this city and printed in East-ern papers purporting to give the result f a ballot taken among the employes of the Illinois Steel company as being about 2,000 votes for Bryan and 200 for McKinley is false. The dispatch is an-other of the roorbacks that have been so numerous in the past few weeks from the silver managers. Similar groundless statements come to Chicago from various places, and all with the same idea—that workinmen are in a majority for Bryan.

majority for Bryan.

In the case of the Illinois Steel company, the statement distorted and reversed the truth, and was inaccurate in every detail. The dispatch, as printed in Eastern papers, said that the employes in the works of the Illinois papers, said that the employee in the state. employes in the works of the lilinois papers, said that the employes in the works of the Illinois Steel company were required to cast their ballots in three separate boxes and that all the ballots were placed by the men in the McKinley receptacle, but that when they were counted there were only 300 McKinley ballots and over 2,000 Bryan McKinley ballots and over 2,000 Bryan slips. It was further said that the poll was taken a few days ago.

THE TRUTH OF THE POLL. The only poll taken among the em- and firemen jumped. given by two of the employes who acted as judges. One of these, Mr. Knight, employed in the pattern shop, is an advocate of free silver, and will vote for Bryan. The other is E. E. Jewel, secretary of the Sound Money club of the workingmen. Auditor Abbott, of the company, who, with two head clerks assisted in counting the ballots. corroborates their statements and

The result of the ballot, as given by them, was: Total, 3,291; for McKinley, 2.765; for Palmer, 160; for Bryan, 366. Preparatory to the poll, each man in every department of the plant was eyery department of the plant was given three white ballots, all of the same size, representing each one vote for McKinley, Palmer or Bryan. These were distributed by a workingman, who made the rounds with the paymaster, and the men were informed master, and the men were informed to his screams without to render any assistance. that the ballot was secret, and were urged to vote correctly, as the com-pany wanted to ascertain the true sentiment of its employes as a whole, not timent of its employes as a whole, not individually.

There was only one box. Into this the men dropped their ballots, which were all folded. As the box was locked, it was impossible for anyone to know how a man had voted. When all the ballots had been deposited, the count was made. It was watched and assisted in throughout by the Republi-can and the Silver Democrat, and they acquiesced in the correctness of the figures given.

The vote represents 74 per cent. of the pay roll of the company. It gives McKinley 84 per cent., Palmer 5 per cent. and Bryan 11 per cent.

NO VOTE BY ARMOUR MEN. More glaringly false was the report More glaringly taise was the report concerning an alleged poll of the employes of the packing house of Armour & Co. The statement, of course, gave Bryan a large majority, but the silver people would have been just as safe in placing the figures higher, for no packing the amployes higher, for no packing the amployes higher, for no packing the amployes higher, taken the property of the amployes higher taken. poll of the employes has been taken this year, and the firm of Armour & Co, has made no attempt to find out the political belief of its workingmen, either individually or as a whole.

The Virginians were overmatched and never had a chance to score but their forwards put up a good game and the whole eleven tackled well. Twice Virginia held the heavy Pennsylvanians for four downs in the Pennsylvanians for four downs in the southerners' seven yard line.

The field was muddy and slippery from the heavy rains, and big scoring was out of the question. Pennsylvania's general play is improving, but the improvement is slow, and they are not playing the game that was expected of them early in the season. Despite the wet ball there was less fumbling among the Pennsylvanians today and the interference was better than it the interference was better than it has been, but the work of the men is still far from championship form. Both the Dicksons were hurt in practice yes terday and a general shifting of the team to different positions was today in consequence. The line up follows:

The affair was placed in the hands of Wilkes-Barre police, who learned t Fisher, Mrs. Fehlinger, Theresa Fisher and the two children had left or the Pennsylvania railroad yesterday for this city. They are said to have stripped Fehlinger's home of everything that could be carried away. Cash to the amount of nearly $100, the savings of the unusupecting husband for some time, it is also said to have been taken by the clopers. The police say that the value of the goods stolen is over Constable Evans arrived in Philadel-phia this morning with a warrant for the arrest of all parties concerned, and the local police this afternoon located the fugitives at the rear of 138 Mascher street, where they were taken into custody. They had all Fehlinger's household goods with them. The prisoners were taken to the central police station and arraigned before Magistrate South at the hearing this afternoon. The three prisoners were held in default of $800 ball each, and late in the Barre in custody of an officer.

HEAD-ON COLLISION.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 14.—Two passenger trains on the Florida Central and Swansea this morning. It was a head-on collision, and both engines were totally wrecked. The combination mail and baggage car turned over and pinned down in the debris Baggage Master Lines and Mail Clerk Thomas. The car caught fire, and the two being unable to extricate themselves, were burned to death. The engineer hurt, though many were bruised and all badly shaken. W. E. Ullmer, flagman, is missing. Lines' death was a horrible one. He was not killed outright but was caught under the trunks and other His cries for help attracted attention and an effort was made to rescue him. The cars burst into flames almost immediately after the wrick occurred and before help could reach him he was surrounded by flames. A barred win-dow prevented the rescuers from reaching Lines, and while they were trying to pry open the bars, he fell back in the flames.
