

SOUVENIR ALBUMS OF SCRANTON

Photographic views of notable objects and parts of the city.

Also pocket maps. All the desirable new books. And the standard old books. In the various bindings made.

At NORTON'S, Book and Stationery Store, 322 Lackawanna Ave.

HARD TO GET

Good Oats on this crop. We have as good as anybody.

BUT

OLD CLEAN OATS Higher in price but really cheaper.

THE WESTON MILL CO.

SCRANTON, OLYPHANT, CARBONDALE.

BWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

THE GENUINE POPULAR PUNCH CIGARS Have the initials G. B. & CO. imprinted in each cigar.

GARNEY, BROWN & CO., MANUFACTURERS, COURT HOUSE SQ.

DR. CHARLES D. SHUMWAY, 308 N. Washington Ave., SCRANTON, PA.

Practice Limited to Conservative Surgery of the Lower Bowel, Including Hemorrhoids, Fissure, Fistula and Ulceration.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

"Phon," a local publication devoted to the interest of society, made its initial bow to the public Saturday. In appearance it is modeled after the "Chap-Book" and other publications of that class which have succeeded in winning popular favor during the last few years.

At the last meeting of the board of governors of the Country Club they decided to offer as prizes, two cups, to be known as the "Country Club" and to be held at the Club house, and to be the property respectively of the lady and gentleman member making the highest score in 18 holes, annually (rules of medal play to govern). The cup will be awarded the first time on Jan. 1, 1897, for the highest score made between Oct. 15 and that date.

Miss Frances Smith entertained a party of friends from Scranton Saturday and part of Sunday at her beautiful summer home, "Meadowdale," at Mount Pocono. The guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Strine, Miss Margaret Torrey, Miss Josie Lee, Miss Julia Pettigrew, Cromwell Price, R. Ernest Comings, John W. Coleman and Edward Hall.

A luncheon was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. C. R. Parke in honor of her guest, Mrs. Goodall, of Philadelphia. It was attended by Mrs. Toles, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. J. A. Price, Mrs. Weston Blair, Mrs. J. B. Dimmick, Mrs. W. G. Parke, Mrs. J. S. Dickson, Mrs. H. C. Shafer, Mrs. C. E. Weston, Mrs. J. F. Hoyle, Miss Harward, of Hartford, Conn.; Miss Sanderson, Miss Platt.

Rev. Edward J. Houghton and his bride, formerly Miss Virginia Haber, of Pottsville, returned from their wedding tour Saturday and are now installed in the rectory of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Dunmore. Rev. and Mrs. Rogers Israel at St. Luke's rectory this afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Newman, of Green Ridge, for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Newman, to Edward Barnard, of this city. The ceremony will be performed in the Green Ridge Presbyterian church on Wednesday at 11.45 p. m.

Miss Ida Frances Sherman and Almon E. Cowley, of Waverly, will be married next Saturday at 12.30 p. m. Cards for the wedding have been issued by Mrs. M. A. Sherman, mother of the bride-elect.

Miss Frances Falkenberg will be married Wednesday evening to Eugene Deles Hays, of Philadelphia, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Falkenberg, 420 Adams avenue.

Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Chaffee will give a reception in the parlors of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, Green Ridge, tomorrow evening.

An announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Lizzie Wetherill and G. Hallock, both of Dunmore.

The North End Young People's assembly gave a social in Brown's hall on East Market street Saturday night.

PERSONAL MENTION: Meyer Davidson, the shoe dealer, is in New York city. Mrs. James Anglim, of Bradford, is the guest of Miss Mary Casanova, of Millville. The Misses Pettigrew, of Madison avenue, are entertaining Miss Elizabeth Lee, of Chester. The Misses O'Malley, of Wyoming avenue, are entertaining Miss Agnes McCann, of Philadelphia. Mrs. James Goodlock and Miss Helen Jones, of Washington, are in the city. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Farnham, of Pine street, are Mrs. and Mrs. A. D. Steile, Miss Margaret R. Steile, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Megarzel, Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Davis, T. E. Davis, T. C. Seaver, B. M. Winton, W. W. Davis, J. P. Foster, H. N. Patrick, and Joseph Wilcox, were registered at the Westminster, in New York last week. The 10-12 (Washington) Examiner contains the announcement of the nomination for judge of the superior court by the Republicans of Lewis, Pacific and Washington counties, of H. W. B. Hewen. Mr. Hewen is a native of Susquehanna county, Pa. He was admitted to the bar here, and formed a law partnership with J. L. Lott, esq. Later he conducted the law office of Messrs. Lott and Hewen, and on selling his interest in that office came to Scranton, where he practiced law for about a year. In 1884 he removed to the Pacific coast, where, according to the Examiner, he has since been an excellent reputation as an attorney, and now receives this high honor at the hands of his fellow citizens.

ELEVENTH ANNIVERSARY

St. Peter's Society of Bellevue Celebrated That Event at Its Hall in Bellevue Last Night.

The eleventh anniversary of St. Peter's Total Abstinence and Benevolent Society, of Bellevue, was celebrated last night at the hall of the society, on an excellent address by Rev. F. P. McNally, of the West Side. His address to the members was to aim at intellectual advancement. He exhorted them to forego from attacking the saloonkeeper. Father Mathew did not do it, and his followers should not devote their time to such a purpose. The speaker argued that there is nothing to be gained by a radical method of dealing with intemperance. He commended the society to spend their evenings in as very useful pursuit of knowledge, and the way to get members is to interest the boys and bring them into the society.

After Father McNally spoke Peter P. McCoy, of Hyde Park, first vice president of the Diocesan union, delivered an address, and Thomas A. Donohue, president of St. Aloysius Young Men's society of the South Side, was called upon for remarks.

Senator J. C. Vaughan, the first president of the society, gave an interesting outline of its history. It was organized as the outcome of a dispute in the old Father Mathew society of Scranton. In the year 1885 the question of hiring a band to play in the parade on Oct. 10 came up, and because the Bellevue contingent was stronger than the South Side contingent and the Bellevue corner band was hired, as against the Lackawanna corner band of the Twelfth ward, there was ill-feeling and St. John's society, headed by the Rev. J. C. Vaughan, was the third, and M. J. O'Toole, the fifth; John McLane, the sixth; and Mr. Collins, now occupying the chair, as the seventh. Some of these served more than one term.

Eight members have joined the innumerable caravan, two of them meeting death in the Mud Run accident.

MINE ACCIDENTS.

While springing a car in the Dickson shaft Saturday John W. White, of Wayne avenue, had his leg badly injured. White was employed as a runner and after springing the car it jumped the track and fell upon him.

John Kelloway, of 422 Oak street, had his nose broken in the Cayuga mine Saturday. While at work his light went out and in wandering about in the dark he walked against a car with the serious result of breaking his nose.

At noon Saturday Thomas McGuire, of Scranton, was wrestling with "Phon" in a rooming house. McGuire was thrown and sustained a broken shoulder blade.

Fred Lloyd, a driver boy, was severely injured in the Legett's Creek mine Saturday by being caught between cars. At his home, on Rockwell street, where doctors examined his injuries, it was found that he had sustained a broken knee cap and that he had a number of severe bruises.

The Erie mine in Mayfield Friday John Greel and Steve Polowski had fired a shot when Frank Walker, a driver, walked up to the chamber. The car was not near enough to the "face," so they started to shove it, when the fall occurred. Polowski was crushed beneath the breaking his neck. The other two men were badly injured.

THREE SYMPHONY CONCERTS

Will Be Given at the Frothingham Dec. 3, Feb. 15 and April 18.

There will be another series of symphony concerts this season, the Scranton Symphony orchestra having arranged for a series of three to be given in the Frothingham Dec. 3, Feb. 15, and April 18. Theodore Hemberger will be the musical director of the concerts and it is his intention, as far as possible, to utilize local musicians in the symphony orchestra.

LADIES' BOX CALF SHOES. Our ladies' shoes for fall and winter wear are something new. They are made of a new lightweight material called "Box Calf," and we have them in lace and button, with good heavy soles, so they can be worn without rubbers if necessary. Box calf will not wet through and is besides, good and serviceable. These shoes are made with the new toe, which is very comfortable as well as stylish. We have these shoes in lace, extra high, for skating purposes. We also carry a full line of them for misses and children, made up with the same style or toe. They are the best shoes for school that can be had. We have them in all sizes.

SCHANK & SPENCER

410 SPRUCE STREET.

ANNIVERSARY OF ST. LUKE'S PARISH

Two Day's Observance is Now in Progress at the Church.

WHAT THE GUILDS ARE DOING

Rev. Rogers Israel Reviews the Work That is Being Done by the Various Parish Societies, Which, Following the Example of Christianity's Founder, Minister unto Both Soul and Body--Programme for Today.

Yesterday—St. Luke's Day—was observed as a month of devotion at the parish. Special services were held, morning and evening, and today there will be further exercises, principal among them a reception at the rectory in the morning and a congregational meeting in the evening.

There was holy communion at 7.30 o'clock, and the evening service, with special music under the direction of J. Willis Conant, at the latter service. In the evening another programme of special music was rendered, and a sermon on the subject of the day was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Rogers Israel. At 8.15 a. m. there was a special session of the Sunday school at which there was a liberal offering for general missionary work. The attendance at each of the services was very large, and the communicants were also numerous.

At the 10.30 o'clock service Rev. Mr. Israel gave an exposition of the work that is being done by the parish societies, taking various texts, "As men whatever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." Matthew 23:23. He pointed out the importance of the two-fold ministrations of the church societies with a demonstration of the fact that the parish is a complete part of the church, and as Christ ministered to both body and soul, the parish should partake of those deeds.

He reviewed the history of the parish, showing that St. Luke's parish, whose patron was known as the "beloved physician," showed a nicely graduated, thoroughly systematized and very complete plan.

CHILDREN'S CARD FOR

The children are cared for in the time they are at school, and are trained in the kindergarten conducted by the Women's Guild. There are fifty of them now in the classes. Girls at 8 years of age are given a course of training in neatness, sewing, darning, cooking and house-keeping, which course lasts from six to eight years.

Over 200 girls are present in the kindergarten. After this the girls' Friendly society exercises a watchful care and influence over them, and when they are married the Women's Guild again takes an interest in them.

For the boys there is the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which aims to bring under the influence of the gospel, and after that is the Men's Guild, the purpose of which is to keep alive personal spirituality among its members and do its share in the charitable work of the parish.

Then there is the Guild of St. Hilda, the members of which, among other things, visit and sing at the hospitals, sew for the destitute, prepare boxes for schools, clothe and care for little girls and furnish flowers for the altar. Some of the practical work of the Guild is to visit the sick, ministering to the poor and providing a shelter for strangers and unfortunates.

BROTHERHOOD'S WORK

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew conducts a class for the young men of the Bible. The Men's Guild provides a physician for the poor, maintains a burial fund, contributes to the general missionary work of the church, and employment, gives a free excursion to the poor each year, and during the warm weather maintains a summer home in the country for the poor and sick, women and children. The Women's Guild, in addition to many acts of charity, such as visiting and aiding the sick and poor, provides the students for the kindergarten and industrial school.

The one great thing lacking, Mr. Israel said, was a parish house in which to hold the various meetings, center and where a training school for boys could be established.

Today the observance will begin at 8 o'clock, when Rev. Mr. Israel will hold a reception in the rectory. In the evening there will be a congregational meeting in the church. There will be a monthly journal, and numbers by J. Willis Conant, report from the various guilds, and an address by Everett Warren, esq.

REV. MR. HOLTER'S FAREWELL

Preached His Last Sermon Before Christ Congregation Last Night. Rev. Frederick Holter, pastor of Christ Evangelical church, Cedar avenue, preached his farewell sermon last night, and on next Sunday evening he will be installed pastor of St. Paul's in this city. He will leave the city at 10 o'clock Thursday with his family to assume his new charge.

St. Paul's congregation has a membership of 600, and the church property is worth $22,000. Rev. Mr. Holter has achieved a prominent place in the affections of not only the congregation but of the entire city. He has been a member of the people of the South Side. He became pastor of Christ church on March 22, 1891, coming here from Sheldon, North Dakota, where he has resided eight years.

In the five years and seven months of his pastorate Christ congregation has grown from 90 to 200 members. He found it in a condition bordering on dissolution, but by energetic work harmonized the conflicting elements, and he has the satisfaction of knowing as he leaves that it is in a flourishing state.

He was an aggressive opponent of beer parties and dances, and was instrumental in the extent of this nature so very unpopular that it was not long until there was a much modified method of conducting them. He published a monthly journal, and to church work organized a parochial school that has an attendance of sixty-seven pupils, and of which Professor E. A. Brizez is teacher. The Ladies' Aid society has increased from 9 to 28 members, and the Young People's society from 14 to 60 members, and the Sunday school from 24 to 118 members. He baptized two children yesterday, one before and the other after Sunday school.

VERY ACTIVE PASTOR.

He started a German-Polish Lutheran congregation at Providence last fall, and it has a membership of 150, and owns two lots. He has adopted a constitution and belongs to the synod. At Carbondale five weeks ago he started a mission among the Lutherans there. In his own congregation he baptized 222 infants, preached 65 times, officiated at 78 funeral services, confirmed 56, solemnized 29 marriages and 150 new families were added to the church by transfer or re-profession of faith.

Besides the current expenses and the regular offerings, $4,000 was paid for special congregational expenses in the shape of church improvements. It was only the sense that he is going to a larger church that made his people feel that he ought to be let go.

His farewell sermon was preached in the evening to a large congregation, and was based upon the text, "And now brethren I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them, which are sanctified." Acts, xx, 32. He spoke in part as follows:

"There is one of us of change. Everything around us changes. Tonight I preach for the last time to you as pastor of this congregation. To my departure from you and the associations forming in your hearts is for me an unpleasant experience. I have baptized many of your children, confirmed many of your sons and daughters and buried many of your dead; and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to me, and I have no knowledge of such an unexpected change. We separate under the most favorable circumstances and our feelings are many, many, many, and now, after this service, I can no longer speak of you as my congregation. But the separation, as well known to you, is not final. Your hearts are bound to