MUST BUILD SHIPS AT HOME.

Subsidized German Vessels Must be Built in German Shipyards.

London, Oct. 18.—Berlin officialdom is showing its teeth toward England just now. Emperor William has caused a notification to be made to certain leading German steamship lines that in leading German steamship lines that in future all steamships owned by companies in receipt of state subsidies must be constructed in German shipyards.

The notification, which appears to have been communicated verbally through a ministerial channel, is said to have been called forth by the number of vessels which are in course of construction by British firms for German companies.

We do that class WHEAT AND SILVER.

Pamphlet Upon the Subject Issued by the Agricultural Department. Washington, Oct. 18.-The agricultural department will tomorrow issue a pamphlet on the subject of wheat prices, by Professor John Hyde, of the statistical department. There is no at-tempt at concealment of the fact that the subject matter of the circular has considered along with the money ques-tion and made part and parcel of it.

The statistics cover a period of 28 years ending June 30, 1895, during which years ending June 3, 1859, the lime the United States exported more than two billion bushels of wheat and 219,082,112 barrels of flour, equivalent in the aggregate to more than three billion bushels of grain. For these exports were received more than three billion of dollars "in gold or its equiv-alent," the average eport price of wheat for the period being 1.04 per gushel in gold. The circular says the expression "in gold" is used because from the be-ginning of the period under the consideration down to the end of 1878 the prices of all commodities were expressed in currency that was continually fluctuating in value. The circular says:
"Before, the prices of American products at any time from 1862 to 1878 can be compared with the prices of similar articles in other countries or at other times, they have to be reduced to their value in money of commerce." After discussing the question of supply and demand, and making reference to the new wheat growing countries that have opened up, causing a reduction in the price of wheat, the circular concludes: "In the face of such facts as the foregoing it would surely be ridiculous to discuss seriously the contention that it is the fall in the price of silver that has caused the fall in the price of wheat. From 1873 to 1882 silver fell more than eighteen cents an ounce, or fourteen per cent. and wheat advanced about 2½ cents per bushel, or 2 per cent. During the last ninety days silver has fallen four cents an ounce, and wheat, owing to delayed harvests in other coutries has advanced from 64 to 78 cents per bushel."

RAN A CIVILIAN THROUGH.

Cowardly Attack of an Officer Upon an Unarmed Man.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—The official pro-gramme of the Reichstag, the opening of the session of which body will take place on Nov. 9, includes bills deal-ing with emigration, an amendment to the workingmen's insurance system, and a measure providing for reform of the system of military jurisdiction. The necessity for the latter measure is shown in an incident which occurred in a cafe in Carlsruhe last Tuesday

A civilian named Slebemann upon en-tering the cafe jostled against a chair upon which a lieutenant named Bruse-witz was sitting. The latter rose from his chair and roughly pushed Siebemann away, at the same time demand-ing that he apologize. Siebemann re-plied: "Leave me alone," whereupon Brusewitz drew his sword and threw himself upon Siebemann.

Several persons who were present in-terfered, and Siebemann for the time escaped. Brusewitz scarched the cafe for him and finally found Siebemann in a passage, when he locked the door, barring all egress or ingress, and ran him through with his sword.

Brusewitz pleads justification, main-taining that the etiquette of the military service required him to punish a civilian interfering with him, and it remains to be seen whether the military authorities will uphold him in his cowardly act of making an armed as-sault upon a defenceless man.

ACCIDENT TO THE PARIS.

The Steamer Arrives at Southampton in a Disabled Condition.

Southampton, Oct. 18.—The American line steamer Paris, Captain Watkins, from New York Oct. 7, before reported as proceeding with her starboard engine disabled, arrived here at 9.15 o'clock this morning.

Captain Watkins said that the actident conversed at 8.60 colocies actident.

dent occurred at 8.40 o'clock on the morning of Oct. 8. The starboard shaft broke in the tube at a point about fifty feet from the propeller. The vessel was at once stopped and re-mained stationary for an hour. After a close internal and external examina-tion had been made it was decided not to turn back for New York, but to proceed for Southampton under the port engine. During the trip no attempt was made to patch up the break owing to its position, and the Paris completed her passage under her port screw. She reached 112 knots per hour, and would have made much better time had she not been compelled to drag her starboard screw, which materially retarded her progress. Nevertheless, she covered the course without a hitch. On Friday the passengers met in the saloon and presented a testimonial to the captain and chief engineer. During the passage the weather was rough, but no anxiety was felt, except on Wednesday last, when a heavy gale prevailed. Happily the weather was fine on the day the mishap occurred.

THE CROWD STONED A CAR.

Lives of Railroad Passengers En-For Infants and Children. dangered by a Mob.

West Chester, Pa., Oct. 18.-Edward Brown, the negro who attacked Mrs. Thomas Johnson in a suburb of Coates-ville night before last, was landed in jail at this place at 1.30 o'clock this morning. Constable Umstead, who had him in charge, had an exciting experi-ence. When the officer took the culprit from the lockup in Coatesville to the railroad station a mob of six hundred men surrounded him and it was with the greatest difficulty that he succeeded in placing the scared negro safely on board the cars. Shouts of "hang him" rent the air and several movements were made by the mob as if to wrest the prisoner from the officer's clutches, but it was after the officer and his prisoner were seeded in the car. oner were seated in the car that the most excitement occurred. Stones were hurled through the car windows thick and fast, and for a time it looked as if some lives would be sacrificed, while passengers in the car became terror stricken and rushed in all directions to escape the flying missiles.

One man, a passenger from the west, was struck on the head by a stone and the whole side of his face was laid open, while a lot of others received slight cuts and bruises about the head and body. The county authorities and the Penn-sylvania railroad detectives are work-ing diligently on the case and there are likely to be wholesale arrests shortly.

SCOTLAND YARD UNDER A CLOUD

Its Officials Criticised for Mismanagement of the "Dynamite Cases." London, Oct. 18.—The home secretary, Sir Mathew White-Ridley, has ex-pressed in decided terms his views as to the mismanagement in the case of the so-called dynamite conspirators. That there has been gross bungling somewhere is evident; and it is not improbable that the resignation of one or arobable that the leading officials at Scot-land Yard will be announced before the last is heard of the "brilliant captures" the matter will certainly be brought efore parliament.

A EUROPEAN CONCERT.

Sensational Reports About Russia

Discredited. Berlin, Oct. 18.—The story published in today's issue of the Vienna Neue Freie Presse alleging that the Russian war office has ordered all of the regiments in the districts of Kieff, Odessa, and Charkoff to be at once put upon a full war footing, and that all officers on leave of absence and the retired list have been recalled to service is utter-ly discredited here. Nothing is known in official circles here showing that Russia is mobilizing troops, and the assertion of the Neue Freie Presse that the movement on the part of Russia "is a step toward the complete mobi-lization of the Russian forces and por-tends that Russia will receive a Euro-pean mandate to occupy Constantitends that Russia will receive a European mandate to occupy Constantinople" is regarded as too absurd to be worthy of notice.

The Pesther Lloyd and the Vienna Politische Correspondenz concur in saying that a concert of the powers has been arranged upon the probable basis of the maintenance of the territorial status quo of Turkey, but upon European control of the Turkish administration. This statement concurs with tration. This statement concurs with the advices recently cabled in these dispatches, which were obtained from official sources.

DIVORCE IN "HOGAN'S ALLEY."

Soubrette Undertakes to Serve Papers on Actor Leonard. New York, Oct. 18 .- John F. Leonard, a member of the variety team of Gil-more & Leonard, now playing in a farce comedy called "Hogan's Alley," was served yesterday with papers in a suit for absolute divorce brought by his wife, Rose G. Leonard. Mrs. Leonard names a member of the "Hogan's Alley" company, Gladys Haden, whose real name is Lottle Wilmington, as the co-respondent, and alleges that the pair have lived together at 204 West Fifty-third street as man and wife.

Mrs. Leonard's lawyers have been trying to serve the summons on Leotrying to serve the summons on Leo-nard for a week. Josie Evans, a sou-brette and friend of Mrs. Gilmore, volbrette and friend of Mrs. Gilmore, vol-unteered to serve the papers, and yes-terday afternoon she hired a box at the People's theater where Leonard is per-forming, and occupied it with Mrs. Leonard. Her plan was to step out on the stage and serve Leonard before the audience in the interests of innocent publicity and as a spur to the jaded imaginations of the press agents, but Leonard spotted the pair in the box, and, divining their intention, sent his nanager around to invite them behind

SWAPPING YARNS.

One Is Told of a Remarkable Experience of War Time and Whisky.

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean.
It is curious how things fall out in this world, especialy on suburban trains. One evening last week a party of students from one of the universiof students from one of the universities began swapping yarns. First one would take his turn at telling a story, and then the next would entertain the crowd for a few minutes. The talking was necessarily loud, in order to be heard, above the rumble of the cars. The passengers could hear guits well The passengers could hear quite well, and not a few became interested and laid aside their papers to listen.

"Now, I'm going to make mine a war story, 'boys," began the third student in a high-pitched voice.
"You know in war times whisky was scarce, and the soldiers resorted to all sorts of strategems to get a dram. One day one of the boys said to a friend in another regiment. 'Say I'll give you day one of the boys said to a friend in another regiment: 'Say, I'll give you $1 if you'll get me a half pint of whisky.' 'Done!' replied the friend. 'Give you that whisky before night.' But before night one of the regiments had orders to move, and the thirsty man was left without the whisky and without the dollar. Now, the curious part of it is that at a reunion thirty years after the man who was to have had

after the man who was to have had the whisky was telling the story to a comrade. 'Of course,' he said, laughing. Twe never seen the fellow who promised me the whisky from that day to this.' "Just then a man with one sleeve empty stepped up and said: 'Weren't you in such and such a regiment and don't you remember giving another don't you remember giving another soldier $1 for half a pint of whisky? 'Yes.' 'And the regiment moved off and you never got the whisky? 'Yes.' 'Well, I'm that soldier, and I got that pint of whisky, and I've been carrying it ever since,' and he pulled the flask from his pocket." The student vanished amid the plaudits of his companions
