AN OPEN LETTER

To the Workingmen of Scranton and Lackawanna County.

W. J. Bryan in his speeches throughout the country claims that the present campaign is a thinking campaign. And he is right.

Now if the above is true it follows that every man that thinks, and has his own, as well as the welfare of his country at heart, comes to some conclusion; that is, he will be convinced in his own mind which is the best way to cast his ballot on Nov. 3. The following is the conviction of a wage earner, and he has no doubt it is that of a great many

To get an idea of how certain measures that have been advocated by the Democratic party (the so-claimed party for the poor man) have panned out in actual practice, let us go back four years and find what was promised and then see what we got.

At the last presidential campaign the great cry was FREE TRADE. In this county and state the Democratic argument was especially aimed at the woolen and tin industries. If a thinking man had any misgiving about the wisdom of the proposed change in our tariff laws, the cry was, "Look at the army of workingmen carrying dinner pails and on every one of them is a duty of not less than 5 cents; or look at the price you have to pay for a suit of clothing." By these and other arguments to suit the particular locality the Democratic party did gain control of the government four years ago.

For harmony's sake I will admit that every man that carried his dinner pail had to pay 5 cents more than now. I will also admit that he had to pay from $2 to $3 more for a good woolen suit.

The Democratic party gained control of the government; the Wilson bill was railroaded through; and the country gained the goal promised by the so-called party of the poor man. Everything went. How did it go?

The dinner-pail brigade grew less day by day; our furnace fires went out; our factory wheels became silent one after the other. There was very little use for dinner pails, and no money to buy that suit of clothing even at the reduced price. That was the fulfilment of Democratic promises made four years ago. The voters of this great republic had been humbugged, and two years ago showed in no uncertain manner that they had found out their mistake by electing a Republican congress by a majority of 150, or reversing their verdict of four years by 300 representatives. Even Wilson, the father of the Free Trade bill, and Bryan, one of its framers, were relegated to oblivion.

Now, coming to the present campaign, have the Democrats dared to raise that issue again? No, they have fooled the people once; they might succeed in fooling a l'mited number again, but they could not fool the country with their free trade talk again and they well know it. What, then, is the issue raised by the same reactionary party?

The free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. I will not try to explain the above issue, for our daily press has made it their business to instruct the voters on the question. They know more about it than I do. But admitting that I am ignorant as to the workings of the money question, I have, nevertheless, thought over the matter and have asked myself some questions. The first one is, it is claimed by so-called sound money men that the intrinsic value of a silver dollar is 53 cents. This is not denied by free silver men, but it is claimed by them that by act of congress the value of a silver dollar can and ought to be lifted up to the level of 100 cents. I cannot see how any act of this or any other land can make 50 cents worth 100 cents, and Bryan and all the free silver shouters have not, to my knowledge, been able to explain it. Supposing I had $100 m gold and there was an act of congress making 100 silver dollars of the 16 to 1 kind equal in value to my $100 in gold. Could I, being aware of the fact that silver was worth only 53 cents, can be compelled by this government to exchange my 100 gold dollars for 100 silver dollars? Would I not have the perfect right to ask my neighbor 175 or 180 silver dollars for my 100 gold dollars if he wanted them, or could congress debar me from going, say, to Canada with my gold and getting the intrinsic value there for it in silver?

There is still a more important question to be answered and this especially by workingmen. Suppose all the mountains in Colorado Nevada, Utah, the Dakotas, etc., were of solid silver and all of them should be coined into silver dollars. Now suppose that the factories, the mills, and all the industries of the land were idle through free trade, and in consequence of this forced idleness our mines become stagnant, also. How many of those silver dollars we stole them?

The real question is not, as our Popocratic friends claim, the scacity of money, but the lack of confidence. There is money enough but it is like the deer of the forest, by the cracking of a twig it seeks safety. That seems to me to be the true cause of the present depression. I ask you candidly, will the disturbing of our present money system regain the confidence that has departed? Will 50 cents in cash and 50 cents in promise open our mills or factories? The Democratic party is simply trying to fool us again.

Then there is the cry about classes. It is alleged that the rich are getting richer and the poor, poorer. It would be idle for me to try to dissuade some men from this notion. But I will give two illustrations from two different countries. My grandfather built himself a home in Germany. He borrowed $400 on the same, giving a mortgage. This property is today in the hands of his grand-children, and the $400 mortgage is still on that home. I resided thirteen months in Yucatan (in Mexico), a silver country, where they have free coinage. My observations during that time regarding the conditions of the workingmen are about as follows: Skilled labor, or mechanics, do receive a fairly good remuneration for their work, but how about unskilled labor? How do they fare? The highest wages I have seen paid a day laborer was 18% cents; and how do the majority of them live? A hut in the woods that you would not call a decent dog house is their abode. The children run naked until about 12 years old. Each family raises a little maize and keeps a couple of hogs.

Is there any one in this valley or in this wide land that could not by being industrious pay off a mortgage of $400 in forty years, or is there anybody existing here as they have to in our neighboring land?

This is a glorious land, and its resources, its riches, have been developed by this grand and noble lot of enterprising men called the Republican party, and it is my duty and the duty of every libertyloving citizen of this great country to see that we are not again made fools of and deluded into voting for a party that has nothing to show but failure wherever entrusted with the reins of government.

It behooves us as workingmen, if we have our own interests at heart and care for the welfare of the country, to vote for McKinley and Hobart. But McKinley and Hobart need a congress to sustain them; therefore in our own interest we should stand by our candidate for congress, William Connell. He will guard the interests of this progressive valley like no other man can. For the good government of our local affairs it behooves us to stand by the men nominated by the Republican party. They have been tried and are not found wanting. Fellow-workingmen. read the foregoing, think over it and I am sure you will go to the polls on Tuesday, Nov. 3, and do your duty to yourself and to your country.

A FELLOW WORKMAN.

Little Son of a Congressional Candidate Locked Up with His Horn. Pontiac, Mich., Oct. 21.—While at-tending a political meeting addressed by his father at Rochester last Saturday the little 13-year-old son of Con-gressional Candidate S. W. YELLOW BADGES BOTHER BRYAN

They Cause Him to Repeat Some of the Old Chestnuts. QUESTIONS ASKED AT RICHMOND

The Orator Insignates That the "Sound Money" Battle Cry Is Deceptive -- Evidently Becoming Weary of the Missionary Work in the Interest of Silver Barons.

Rushville, Ind., Oct. 21.-Mr. Bryan reached Richmond at 10 o'clock this morning and began his Indiana cam-paign there. He spoke at 1 o'clock this morning to a very large and enthus-iastic crowd at Tiffin, Ohio, and at 2.30 a. m. was awakened by a brass band and a lot of enthusiasts at Tipton. Mr. Bryan's special train lay until 7.30 o'clock in the railroad yards at Ur-bana. The first stop after leaving there was at Bradford Junction, Ohio, reached at 8 o'clock, but Mr. Bryan was so much fatigued after his hard day and harder night of campaigning that he was not awakened to meet the couple of hundred people there. They were entertained instead by John W. Tomlinson, of Alabama, who is ac-companied Mr. Bryan. At Greenville, where the Oble compaign was anded where the Ohio campaign was ended, Mr. Bryan spoke for fifteen minutes to Six thousand or seven thousand com-posed the spectators at the first meeting in Richmond, which took place in Glen Miller park. The air was keen and only those in the audience whose political sympathies allowed them to enthuse were able to keep warm.

YELLOW BADGES FLOURISHED. About 4,000 people were at the second Richmond meeting which was address-ed by Mr. Bryan from the balcony of the Hotel Wescott. So numerous were the yellow McKinley badges in that audience that the candidate had some-thing to say about them. "Any per-son," he said, "who has an opinion son," he said, "who has an opinion ought to have a reason to base it on. I want to speak to those who, by wearing yellow badges, indicate their support of Republican ideas, to consider two or three things. If the Republican party believes that the gold standard is a good thing ask values less why party believes that the gold standard is a good thing, ask yourselves why the Republican party always talks about sound money instead of a gold standard. Why do they use ambiguous phrases to conceal their meaning? I assert that if the Republican party thought the gold standard was good, they would not attempt to deceive the people by using 'sound money' but they would say 'gold' and let the world know that they meant gold. (Cheers).

Mr. Bryan had something to say about the people who wore the orange, in practically the same language used by him at other places where counterby him at other places where counter-demonstrations were attempted. At Cambridge City, Mr. Bryan made a speech to about 2,000 people.

MURDEROUS ROBBERS.

They Shoot Down William Bitke in Cold Blood and Brutally Attack His Wife.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 21.—A special to the press from Fremont, Ohio, says: Masked robbers entered the home of William Bitke, west of Freemont, last night at 7.30 and murdered Bitke, brutally attacked Mrs. Bitke and ransacked the house. Bitke was a German farmer and oil producer and generally kept considerably money in the house. At called at the residence and with re-volvers drawn, demanded money. Without giving Bitke time to comply with their demands, the robbers opened fire on him and shot him through the breast, killing him instantly. Mrs. Bitke attempted to defend her husband and was shot in the right arm, and when she tried to escape was beaten on of the murderous robbers, and is now in a precarious condition.

The house was ransacked from top to bottom, but the robbers secured only an old silver watch, failing to find a large sum of money. Mrs. Bitke is unable to give an accurate description of the robbers. Bitke yesterday received several hundred dollars from the sale of oil, and the robbers evidently knew of this and were after it. A posse is searching for them.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured in 3 Days.

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had inflamatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost be-yond recognition; had been in bed for six weeks and had eight physicians but received no benefit until she tried the Mystic Cure for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days I. walk about in three days, I am sure it saved her life." Sold by Carl Lorenz, druggist, Scranton, 418 Lackawanna
