MAJOR OAKFORD GRAND MARSHAL
The Bicycle Division Will Be in Charge of D. B. Atherton—Officers of the Clubs Are Requested to Notify the Grand Marshal as Soon as Possible of the Number of Men They Will Have in Line.

Alonzo Terwilliger, of Wyoming avenue, was charged, yesterday, before Alderman Wright, with the crime of bigamy. His accuser, Clara E. Cook, of the West Side, who until recently lived with him as his wife, alleges that he married her while he was yet united to another woman. Their marriage, she states, occurred on June 30, 1891, at Lake township, and at that time he was the husband of another woman from whom, she proposes to show, he was divorced in 1892, fully a year after the marriage with her took place. She also alleges that Terwilliger has another alliance which will add to the gravity of the crime.

Terwilliger gave bail for a hearing Monday afternoon next, at 4:30 o'clock. His attorney is Frank C. O'Neil, Cornelius Comery is representing the prosecutrix, Mrs. Terwilliger or Cook as she desires to call herself in the information filed in the case is also taking steps to secure a divorce.

SIMON HINERFELD BRINGS SUIT.

He Wants to Recover $25,000 Damages from Dr. John L. Wentz.
Dr. John L. Wentz was yesterday sued by Simon Hinerfeld, the Peric grocery, for damages in the sum of $25,000. The papers were filed by Attorney Charles H. Soper, who represents the plaintiff.

Hinerfeld alleges that his 13-year-old son, Jacob, died as the result of negligence on the part of Dr. Wentz. The boy took sick in the latter part of June, and was operated upon on July 2 for appendicitis. He was very weak after the operation.

Hinerfeld alleges that Dr. Wentz left the city on the Fourth of July, and the boy removed to Dr. Thompson's private hospital on Wyoming avenue, and left him without his care for upwards of twenty-four hours.

While the doctor was absent a change took place in the boy's condition, and blood poisoning developed, and he died July 6. On account of the doctor's absence from the city at the time blood poisoning set in, Mr. Hinerfeld wants damages.

ISHAM'S ORIENTAL AMERICA.

Colored Troupe Furnishes a Delightful Evening of Song and Mirth.

A crowded house at the Academy last night enjoyed a novel and delightful musical treat in John W. Isham's "Oriental America," a pot-pourri of songs, duets, quartets, choruses and operatic selections rendered by a company composed entirely of colored people.

Eight of them, Belle Davis, Mattie Wilkes, Mme. Floto, Mame Calloway, Margaret Scott and Messrs. Woodward, Jackson, Elkins and Johnson are soloists of no mean order. The chorus singing was superior to that of the average opera company.

An artistic number which won a triple encore was Miss Belle Davis' rendition of the negro melody, "She is an intelligent delineator of negro character, sings in excellent voice and possesses the happy faculty of knowing the meaning of what she sings. Her riding, the leading choruses and operatic, is a great fun provoker, and is easily the leader of grotesque dancers.

The staging, particularly the electrical effects, and the costumes are elaborate in the extreme. The performance will be repeated this evening.

CABMEN'S ANNUAL BALL.

The '96 Event Held in Turner Hall Last Night.
From the time that "caller-off" A. J. Langan gave the command "gents, take your places in the first waltz," the Cabmen's ball at Turner hall last evening was a success from the cabman's point of view. The cabmen have a right to be proud of the amount of a ball one every year. Last night for 1896.

The festivities began in a calm deliberate way about 9 o'clock and increased in excitement, greater and greater, until at 2 a. m. the ball was rapidly rounding into form. At midnight, indeed, the floor was very sparsely occupied. Refreshments were poured out in the front parlor and upstairs there were places allotted for a cater-table. Many prominent young men attended the ball which was conducted without disorder, though smoking during dances was allowed.

Professor Johnson played the music and John Carroll was master of ceremonies, assisted by Owen Sweeney. The reception committee was: Jerry Cotter, Michael Barrett, and Isaac Bunting. Michael Dunn and Joseph Barrett were floor managers.

VERY LIBERAL RESPONSE.

Nearly $12,000 Collected for St. Joseph's Foundling Home.

The response to Bishop O'Hara's appeal in behalf of St. Joseph's Foundling Home building fund has been most liberal. All the churches in the diocese have been successful in raising the amount realized is in the neighborhood of $12,000.

Some of the out-of-town churches which made large contributions were: St. Rose, Calais, $1,024.50; St. John's Pittston, $750.45; St. Mary's, Wilkes-Barre, $739.50; St. Nicholas, Wilkes-Barre, $564; St. Dominick's, Parkersburg, $338.50; St. Ignace, Williamsport, $237; St. Leo's, Ashley, $250; St. Patrick's Olyphant, $221.

Kosloski's 6-year old son was run over by one of the Keystone company's beer wagons on October 2, and his left arm was broken. In addition to the painful and serious internal injuries, it is alleged that the accident occurred at a street intersection and was due to the negligence of Kosloski, a member along at an excessive rate of speed.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 21.—Cyrus Leland, Jr., member of the Republican national committee for Kansas, a member of the national executive committee, stopped in Kansas City on his way to Chicago. When asked about the situation in Kansas, he said:

"Kansas is well organized, and I know from our poll of the state very nearly what the vote will be. McKinley will carry Kansas by a good majority and the Populists know it. The First, Second and Fourth districts will give McKinley 12,000 majority, and I would like to know where the opposition expects to get the votes to offset that."

LARGE INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE

Over Twelve Hundred Pupils Enrolled in the Public Schools.

OPINION OF SUPT. GEORGE HOWELL
Increase Unusual, but Not of Such Dimensions as It Will Be When Fall Bill Is in Full Force—There Are Four Hundred and Seventy-three Pupils in High School—Girls More Numerous Than Boys.

According to the reports now being tabulated by Secretary E. D. Fellows, the board of control, there are 2,455 more pupils attending the public schools this year than there were at the close of last term, and over 1,000 more than were enrolled during the first school month of 1895. Judging from these figures and personal observations at the schools Superintendent George Howell estimates that the average attendance this year will be about 1,000 more than the average attendance last year.

The enrollment during September was 1,285. This number 573 were boys and 672 girls. In June, the last month of the previous school year, the schools closed with an attendance of 4,313 boys and 5,437 girls, a total of 10,250.

The report contains the first official compilation of the attendance at the high school. It is appended with divisions showing the enrollment by classes and the proportion of males and females.

PUPILS IN EACH SCHOOL.
The following table shows how the pupils are distributed in the thirty-nine other schools:

Class	Males	Females	Total
Post-Graduate	17	46	63
Senior	17	46	63
Junior	80	163	243
Total	175	288	473
