KANSAS PATRIOTS VISIT M'KINLEY

Enthusiasm of the Delegation That Came a Thousand Miles.

STIRRING SPEECHES OF THE DAY

A Comparison of the Prosperity of 1892 and the Difficulties of the Present--It is Not the Lack of Money but the Lack of Opportunity to Make Money That Causes Depression.

Canton, O., Oct. 23--Before sunrise this morning a party of visitors from the Hoosier state came to Canton to pay their respects to the Republican candidate for president.

Four years ago it was said to the people of this country, who were under the impression that the country was prospering, that we were suffering, and that free trade would cure all the ills, real or supposed, they had.

THE KANSAS DELEGATION. "Kansas! Kansas!"

"She's for McKinley." The shout which greeted Major McKinley when he stepped out on his porch at noon to address two hundred Santa Fe railroad men from Emporia and Topeka, Kansas.
