CLEAN SWEEP FOR THE REPUBLICANS

McKinley and Hobart Sure to Win by Large Majorities.

FIGURES FROM LATEST ESTIMATES

Chairman Hanna's Recont Calculations Place 302 Electoral Votes in the Republican Column; 84 in the Doubtful List, and Concedes 61 to Bryan --- Both House and Senate Will Be Republican.

New York, Oct. 25.—The latest dis-patches received from the West-ern states which have been considered doubtful make it certain that a large majority of the electoral vote will be cast for the Republican candidates. Chairman Hanna's most re-cent and careful estimate puts 302 votes in the sure Republican column

The states which he concedes to Bryin are: Arkansas

Other observers are even more san-guine than Mr. Hanna, and considers several of his doubtful states safely Republican. The same overwheiming vote which promises to carry McKinley triumphantly to the White house will certainly elect a house of representa-tives with a Republican majority as large or larger than the present house. and the following analysis of the senate situation makes it evident that the Re-publicans will have a working majority there, and that McKinley will have the support of both branches of congress in carrying out the promises of the St. Louis platform.

THE PRESENT SENATE. The present senate consists of 89 members, 44 of whom are classed as Remembers, 44 of whom are classed as Republicans, 39 as Democrats and 6 as Populists. But of the 44 Republicans, some held close relations with the silver men, and several of them were so extreme that they were willing to hold up the government rather than surrender their own views. Senators Teller, Dublet Mitchell Souts Patters and Dubois, Mitchell, Squire, Pettigrew and Cannon have not always with safety been counted on as strict party men. Senators Clark, Carter, Wilson and Wolcott, after having fought for free coin-age, are now heartily supporting Mc-Kinley.

Of these eighty-nine men, thirty go out of office on March 4. Fourteen of them are Democrats, three Populists, eight strict Republicans, and four—Tel-eight strict Republicans, and four—Teiler. Dubols, Mitchell and Squire—are silver men, who have been classed as Republicans, while Mr. Pritchard, of North Carolina, was elected as a Republican through fusion with Populists.

Among the holdovers in the senate are thirty-one Republicans, excluding Mr. Dupont, of Delaware. Cannon, of Utah; Clark, of Wyoming; Mantle, of Montana, and Pettigrew, of South Dakota, together with three Populists and twenty-two Democrats, also kept their seats. With the exception of Pettigrew it is perhaps unjust to count these silver men outside the Republican ranks. It is done only for the purpose of can-It is done only for the purpose of can-vassing all possibilities and leaving out of the estimate of the Republican strength every man whose loyalty to silver sentiment in his state might make him an obstructionist of Republi-

SEATS SURELY REPUBLICAN. These thirty-one rock-ribbed Repub-licans will be reinforced by a sufficient licans will be reinforced by a sufficient number from the senators newly elected to give those who are at once gold men and Republicans a positive majority over sliver and gold Democrats. Populists and sliver Republicans combined. Connecticut will send back Mr. Platt, and New Hampshire Mr. Gallinger. Vermont has re-elected Mr. Morrill and Iowa Mr. Allison. Mr. Foraker (Reo.) succeeds Mr. Brice (Dem.) from Ohio, and Mr. Wellington (Rep.) Mr. Gibson (Dem.), of Maryland. Mr. Perkins, of California, a sound money Republican, is certain to be returned. Then Senators Palmer, of Illinois; Hill, of New York, and Vilas, of Wisconsin, are as certain to be replaced by Republicans as if the election had already taken place. Pennsylvania will elect taken place. Pennsylvania will elect a Republican successor to Mr. Cameron and Washington will doubtless send a Republican to succeed Mr. Squire. Mr. Voorhees, of Indiana, will give way to a Republican.

So, here are thirteen Republicans to be added to the thirty-one firm hold-overs. They will give the party 44 votes, without counting any possibly doubtful state.

DEMOCRATIC STATES. Democratic senators will undoubtedly come from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana and South Carolina to reinforce the twenty-two Carolina to reinforce the twenty-two Democratic hold-overs. Colorado Idaho and Nevada, with Senators Teller. Dubois and Jones, or their successors, may be conceded to the Popocrats. Then there are North Carolina, Oregon, Utah, Kansas, Kentucky, Missouri, Delaware, South Dakota and North Dakota, in which the Republicans need to win only two senators to give them an absolute majority of the senate, independent of any silver combination, even could it include men who have formerly been extreme silwho have formerly been extreme silverities but who are now supporting McKinley. One senator from these states will give the Republicans control with the casting vote of the vice president.

Failure of fusion between Democrats and Poulists on the state ticket in Mis-souri promises a Republican successor to Mr. Vest, even if Bryan should carto Mr. Vest, even if Bryan should carry the state, which now seems problematical. The Republicans now feel certain of carrying Kansas for McKinley, and if so will replace the Popplist, Peffer, with a good Republican. There is every reason to hope that Kyle, the Populist from South Dakota, will be retired and his place taken by a sound money Republican, and Mr. Hansbrought or some other Republican will come from North Dakota. The Kentucky le-ir-lature, which failed last ear it is successor to Senator in klurn, holds over, but there are enough vacancies to be filled next week to make a Republican majority on joint ballot possible, and with the electoral vote surely for McKinley it is more than likely that the Republicans will than likely that the Republicans will gain the necessary votes. Either a Republican or Sound Money Democrat will certainly be elected in Kentucky. The unfortunate faction fight in Delaware alone kept Delaware from having Republican representation last winter, and that alone clouds the prospect for the next senate. Utah and North Carolina are at present doubtful. Thus from nine states usually thought of as naving Democratic or Populist leanings at least four may be relied upon to send Republicans to Washington.

VOTES TO SPARE. States which will surely send Republicans to the senate are: Indiana. Illinois. Wisconsin. Vermont. New Hampshire. Connecticut. New York. Pennsylvania. Maryland. Iewa. California. Washington. Total, 12.

States in which the Republicans ex pect to control the legislatures are: Missouri. Oregon. Kentucky. Delaware. North Carolina. Total, 9. Kansas. North Dakota. South Dakota. Utah.

Being able to count upon at least thirty-one hold-overs, and fairly on thirty-three with the reasonable silver Republicans, with thirteen new senators surely Republican, almost certain success in four other states, and five more offering promise of Republican members, the party is in no danger of being in the minority. being in the minority

Thus it is evident that every probability points to Republican control of every branch of the government. The Republicans can hardly fail to have 46 senators out of the 90 which comprise the upper house, even without the Washington for a prise the upper house, even without the wyoming Total south the put these nine states in the doubtful list:

BRYAN ATTENDS CHURCH.

Crowds Gather to View the Boy Orator at Jacksonville --- Yellow Ribbons Plentiful.

Jacksonville, Ilis., Oct. 25.—All church going Jacksonville turned out this morning to see Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bryan and during most of the day the residence of Dr. Hiram K. Jones. where they are stoping, was surrounded by curious people. It was in this old educational town, that Mr. Bryan apent six years of his life as a student. The candidate and his wife naturally anticipated a pleasant day in such familiar envoraments and they spent familiar envornments and they spent a delightful Sunday, meeting old friends, and talking with them over their college days.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Bryan did not reach Jacksonville until near 2 o'clock this morning many people had waited up to see them and to cheer the candidate. But little rest had been allowed the nominee in that fast ride. He was awakened twice, the first time to make a midnight speech to a big audience at Bluffs, and again at Mount Sterling, where neither the lateness of the hour nor the fact that it was Sunday could nor the fact that it was Sunday could stay the enthusiasm of the Bryanites. The Jacksonville people who awaited the arrival of their former townsman were disappointed, for Mr. Bryan re-mained in his berth and did not leave the train until nearly 9 o'clock this morning. With Mrs. Bryan he went to the house of Dr. Jones and later in the afternoon attended divine services at the State Street Presbyterian church. The church was crowded to the doors.

M'KINLEY'S QUIET DAY. A number of small boys and some others who were not so small, all wearing strios of yellow ribbon, followed Mr. and Mrs. Bryan from their carriage into the building and gave a suppressed hurrah for McKinley. Four houses of worship, including that at houses of worship, including that at-tended by Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, occupy the four corners of the states, and the congregations of all these were dismissed within a few minutes of each other, so that with the five hun-dred or more people who had been waiting offiside for the two most interesting persons in Jacksonville to appear, State Street Presbyterian church was surrounded by quite a church was surrounded by quite a large assemblage as the candidate and his wife hurriedly made their may to a waiting carriage and were driven back to the residence of their host.

Probable Suicide.

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 25.—There is absolutely no doubt that the Yonkers police incline to the belief that Hamilton J. Andrus committed suicide. ## GERMANY'S VIEW OF THE SITUATION

Progress of the Presidential Campaign Is Watched with Keen Interest.

OPINION OF VOSSISCHE ZEITUNG It Predicts That the Economic Move

ment in the United States Cannot Be Affected by the Results of Election -- Thinks That the Bryan Party Is Simply After the Spoils.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The progress of the presidential election campaign in the United States is watched here with the keenest interest, though more from a financial point of view than with any idea of contrasting the social positions occupied by the candidates. It is dif-ficult, however, to get as yet even from the leading newspapers which devote columns of space to the subject, an intelligent appreciation of the situa-Voluminous letters are received here by mail conveying to Germans the developments of the struggle in which so many millions of their countrymen are interested, but few of the news-papers here follow an intelligent line of argument in discussing the ques-tions which the campaign compre-tions which the campaign comprehends.

The Vossiche Zeitung publishes an article from among the others in which it embodies the general German notion of the situation. In the course of an editorial the paper says it is a rare thing in the political history of the United States that the Democrats of the oid school stand solidly together, shoulder to shoulder, with their old Republican opponents to fight against the so-called candidate of the national Democratic party, Mr. Bryan, and it is still called candidate of the national Demo-cratic party, Mr. Bryan, and it is still more surprising to old observers of political campaigns to see the Demo-crats of the eastern states standing up for McKinley, despite the fact that he is the apostle of the doctrine of a high protective tariff which they have con-sistently combatted for years.

THEY WANT SPOILS.

The Vossiche, quoting from the New York Handelszeltung in regard to the platform upon which Mr. Bryan is making his campaign, proceeds to argue that neither the principles of the currency nor that of the tariff especially inspires Mr. Bryan and his followers, who, the paper says, simply strives to carry themselves along the old lines of belief that the spoils belong to the victors. The article concludes by saying that reither the victors. by saying that neither the victory of McKinley, nor the success of Bryan can ultimately affect the economic movement in the United States, which depends upon causes far beyong the struggle which is now taking place struggle which is now taking place between the great political parties or America.

The paper also ridicules the rumors which have been current in the columns of the English newspapers, furnished by their blassed American correspondents, and which have been reproduced here, that the situation in the United States is such at the present time that a very narrow issue could time that a very narrow issue could involve civil war, and says that the Germans comprising a considerable part of the American populace would at all events accept the result of the election without the slightest dream of revolt against the voice of the ma-jority as expressed by the suffrages of

AN APPEAL FROM NAVAL OFFICERS

Want the Same Privileges of Retiretirement as the Army Enjoy.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Admiral Mc-Nair and all the officers on the Asiatic Station have united in a petition requesting Secretary Herbert to urge upon congress the enactment of such amendments to existing laws as will extent the privilege of thirty-year re-tirement now enjoyed by the Army and Marine corps to the officers and men of the navy. The design is to abolish an apparently unwarranted discrimination against the navy, and naticularly against the navy, and particularly against its enlisted men who do not now have the advantages of army privates.

Similar petitions are expected from other squadrons, and little doubt is expressed that Secretary Herbert will seize the opportunity of making a strong recommendation in his annual report on the subject.

ARMENIANS ARRESTED.

Charged with Having Been Implicated in Work of Revolutionists. Constantinople, Oct. 25.-The members of two Armenian families have been arrested here on the charge of having been implicated in the attempt of Armenian revolutions to secure the payment of tribute by an Armenian lawyer named Colorian. The latter made a rendezvous with the men who made the demand upon him and then informed the police of the facts. Two relicement went to the rendezvous policemen went to the rendezvous, where the revolutionists set upon and stabbed both of them.

The arrest of the Armenians on var ious charges continue. It is rumored that a large seizure of bombs was made in Pera yesterday.
