ANOTHER GREAT DAY AT CANTON

Major McKialey Makes Addresses to Twenty-five Delegations.

ENTHUSIASM KNEW NO BOUNDS

Twenty-two States Represented in the Throngs About the Republican Leader's Home .- The Impressive Speeches Made to Pennsylvanians.

Major McKinley closed another weel of brilliant campaigning Saturday with a dozen speeches. He addressed twenty-five delegations and spoke in twenty-five delegations and spoke in the aggregate to more than 14,000 peo-ple. He shook hands with citizens of twenty-two states, and made speeches to delegations from New York, Penn-sylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Mis-souri, Iowa and Kansas. The features of the day were Major McKinley's speeches to railroad men from Kansas and Missouri, in which he replied to the allegations that corporations are the allegations that corporations are coercing their employes to vote the Republican ticket.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 25.—The enthus-iasm of Major McKiniey's visitors yes-terday has been boundless. They have filled the streets of the city since an early hour yesterday morning with cheers and the sound of bands and marching feet. Thousands of tin horns were blown and hundreds of the canes which explicit blank entridges by which explode blank cartridges by striking the end upon the pavement were employed to increase the din. The were employed to increase the din. The enthusiasts from remote parts succumbed to the relic-hunting mania. And every picket was taken from the wooden fences at Major McKinley's house. Crowds hung about the house from 7 o'clock in the morning until 10 c'clock at night, peering in at the windows and patiently awaiting an opportunity to see Major McKinley or to grasp his hand. The people have been enthusiastic over Major McKinley every day during the campaign; today they were wild over him.

today they were wild over him. Major McKinley was calm, cool and smiling throughout all this turmoil and tumult. He shook hands with thousands of people, and was sorry he could not personally greet all who came to see him. His speeches today were in the main short, and all were crisp, epigrammatic and convincing. He made answer to the Popocratic assertion that workingmen are below covered in his swer to the Poperate assertion that workingmen are being coerced in his speech to some railroad men from Kansas. "The only coercion that is going on," he exclaimed, "is the coercion of reason, of conscience and experience. It is a mighty force that leads and never drives." Hundreds of stalwart railway drives." Hundreds of stalwart railway men who had come of their own free will more than a thousand miles to see Major McKinley cheered him for fully five minutes when he said this.

Major McKinley did not forget the women in his remarks today. His address to the stenographers was both earnest and eloquent. A significant feature of the day was the large number of Sound Money Democrats who came to Canton. Leaving out of the count to Canton. Leaving out of the count those who came from Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio, it is estimated that 20 per cent of the other visitors were men who will vote the Republican tick-et for the first time this year.

SPEECH TO PENNSYLVANIANS. Pennsylvania sent the first delega-tion. It was composed of representa-tives of Berks, Chester, Schuylkill and Montgomery counties. Reading and Lebanon were the principal towns rep-resented. Ex-Mayor J. R. Kenney, of Reading, spoke for the Reading and Berks county visitors, while the pil-grims from the other counties were in-troduced by J. Victor Smith, of Leban-on.

In responding Major McKinley said: "The heart of the American people is always right. You can safely submit any great public question with confid-ence to the American people. Mr. Linoln once said that there was no safer tribunal on earth than the American people, and 'if the Almighty Ruler of the universe was on our side, or on your side, that side would surely prevail. The aspiration of the American people is for advancement, for advancement in the march of progress toward the reali-zation of the highest destiny for this, the freest government on earth. What our people want is an opportunity for work, an opportunity for honest labor, an opportunity to develop the great resources which God has given us, an op-portunity to work out a high and glori-ous destiny, not only for ourselves, but for all mankind; for the highest destiny we achieve for ourselves the better and the more we benefit all the races of

Now it occurs to me that before the people of this country can be expected to have confidence in that wing of the Democratic party that is now in control of its organization, before we can be ex-pected to instruct it with further power or with control of the government, and accept its promise that with free silver will come better times to all of us -before we do that it seems to me the Democratic party ought to make good the loss it has entalled upon us in the last three years and a half. (Applause). They can hardly expect us to have con-fidence in their present prescription. (laughter), when the prescription which they gave us in 1892, and which they inthey gave us in 1892, and which they insisted was the cure for all our troubles, was so complete a failure. They now say the present prescription, far different from the old one, will cure all our difficulties, and it does seem to me that they are asking a great deal of confidence from the American people. (Laughter and applause).

We cannot very well forget the former deception, for the people were deceived. Their policy not only injured the people of this country in their occupations, not only injured the great manufacturing and mining and farming industries of the country, but it almost wrecked the public treasury.

most wrecked the public treasury. (Cheers). Now, I do not need to make any argument to the men of Pennsylvania. They know all about this question and I think they are all ready to yote. (Cries of 'you're right! we are!" and 'And we'll vote the right way!') Are you ready to yote? (Shouts of 'Yes, we wish it was tomorrow!') we wish it was tomorrow!') Then my fellow-citizens it is needless for me to say another word, as another delega-tion is waiting, but I will be glad to meet and welcome you all to my home. (Three cheers for McKinley)."

TWO DELEGATIONS IN ONE. The third delegation was from Steub-en and Chemung counties, New York. It numbered about eight hundred vot-It numbered about eight hundred voters, mostly farmers and glass-workers.
With the New York visitors was a small delegation from McKean county, Penn. W. W. Clark, of Wayland, addressed Major McKinley on behalf of the New York delegation, and exCongressman W. W. Brown spoke for the Pennsylvania people.

Congressman W. W. Brown spoke for the Pennsylvania people.
Major McKinley was greeted with three times three cheers when he step-ped forward to speak. He said:
"I am very glad to find Pennsylvania and New York united this year, and that these states are vying with each other in the Republican majority they will give one week from next Tuceday. other in the Republican majority they will give one week from next Tuesday. I could not take sides with either state in that matter, but I wish both success. (Laughter.) Steuben county represents not only your state in its diversified interests, agricultural, commercial and manufacturing, but affords a good example of the advantages which you, in common with so many other communities, enjoyed under the protective tariff policy, and which our people abandoned by their votes in 1892. Under its beneficient influence your county and the city of Hornellsville steadily advanced and became an important ty and the city of Hornellsville stead-ily advanced and became an important manufacturing centre, with, I believe, manufactures of shoes, leather, gloves, silk goods, wire fencing, electric sup-plies and mowing machines, but per-haps not especially distinguished from other cities of southern New York, such as Binghamton, Olean and Jamestown, that come to my mind as illustrating the special advantages which the policy of home industry and development brought us.

"How has it been, my fellow-citizens, since 1893? Have you enjoyed the same degree of prosperity since then? (Cries of 'No!' 'No!') Well, I take it you know the reason why, and any argument, therefore, seems unnecessary. You know that in 1892 we wer in the midst of the greatest degree of prosperity the world had ever seen, and then by the voice of the people the policy was changed under which we had lived for more than thirty years, and there came changed under which we had lived for more than thirty years, and there came a change to the business of the country, very much to its injury. Everybody knows that. Everybody nows that the great heart of this country yearns for a return of that prosperity. I do not know that we shall be able to bring it all back again, but we can overturn the policy that deprived us of it and take back the policy that gave it to us. (Cheers.)

it to us. (Cheers.)
"You have demonstrated in your county of Steuben what was believed to be impossible, namely that you could make as good cut glass as any that is make as good cut glass as any that is made anywhere, and your sement is distinguished above all others. You want those industries promoted. This is true of the industries of other states. What is good for New York is good for Ohio; what is good for one section of the country is good for another. What will make the citiens of the North prosperous will make the citizens of the South*prosperous. It is this country's business, and our chief concern, to see to it that our great family is protected from the competition of the outside world. What we want is to do our own work, pay our own wages*to our own work, pay our own wages to our own work, pay our own wages to our own workingmen, and we have discovered that just to the extent that we have our work done in Eurpoe, to that ex-tent we deprive the American working-man of the wages which are his by right. THE POLICY THAT PROTECTS. "We must return to that policy which protects our workingmen, and I make no apology to any man anywhere for having through all my public life stood for the protection of the American workingman and American industries. (Loud cheers.) I want a tariff high enough to protect our industries against foreign industries which compete with ours. A tariff that will bring cheer and happiness to every American home, and happiness to every American home, high enough for this great government to pay as it goes. Why, what have we after three years and a half experience under the policy inaugurated four years ago? (Loud cries of 'Nothing!') I hear voices say 'Nothing.' Well, we have our yotes left, and we have still the skill and labor of the American people. We have the same men and manufacturers, and we propose to set them to work (loud cheers), and when we have set them to work we do not propose that they shall be cheated by a short dollar. When we work all day for our employer and night comes we want to be paid in dollars that won't change in value before morning. We want to go home feeling that we can hold that money as long as we want to hold that money as long as we want to. without any fear of its depreciating in value."

A delegation of 400 men employed in the steel and tin mills of Cambridge, Ohio, marched into the yard. J. H. Morgan introduced the steel-workers, and Ambrose Beard the tinmill em-ployes. Major McKinley addressed them briefly, discussing the tariff and the money question.

COLORED VOTERS WELCOMED. The next delegation was composed of colored voters from Pittsburg. A. T. Hall introduced William M. Randolph, who is a candidate for presidential elector on the Republican ticket in the Twenty-second Pennsylvania district. Mr. Randolph addressed Machanical Randolph R district. Mr. Randolph addressed Ma-jor McKinley, and assured him that he had the confidence and support of the colored people. In response Ma-jor McKinley said:

I am glad to greet you as my fellow-citizens, It is our pride and glory that in free America we know neither race, color, class, caste nor distinction; the native born and naturalized black and native born and naturalized, black and white, all have equal rights in our laws. They are equal in responsibility, opportunity and possibilities. You have always been true to your country, and that is a great distinction to any race. You have always followed the dear old flag wherever it led and at whatever cost to yourselves. I am glad to know that you are enrolled in the ranks of the Republican party, and that we can count upon you as willing

PARADES ABANDONED.

Both Republicans and Democrats o Chicago Decide to Keep Quiet.

Chicago, Oct. 25.-The two big politi cal parades arranged for next Saturday night have both been abandoned. The Republicans had secured a permit to parade on the south side, and the Democrats were granted a similar fa-vor on the west side. Both wanted to march over the same route and the Democrats applied to the courts for an injunction to prevent the police from interfering with their parade on the south side. This was refused. Then the Republicans decided to call off their parade to prevent elashes between the two bodies. It is said they even offered to turn over their permit to the Democrats, but the latter declined to accept such favor from their opponents and declared their parade Last night's demonstrations, are therefore, the last of their kind in the present campaign.

PORTUGUESE DEFEATED.

Routed by a Force of Two Thousand Natives at Mozambique.

New York, Oct. 24.—Lower prices from London, a break in wheat and fears of a poor bank statement all contributed to a rather weak opening at the Stock Exchange. The decline which followed was unimportany, say \(\frac{1}{2} \) to \(\frac{1}{2} \) per cent, and before the exporation of the first hour of trading the entire list developed great strength. In fact a majority of the leading issues sold at the best figures of the week. The change for the better was due to the fact that the bank statement was very favorable.
