POLITICIAN'S OF PAST AND PRESENT

Rev. Dr. Dixon Describes Those of Today and of Caesar's Time.

RIGHTS OF PULPIT IN POLITICS

If the Minister of the Gospel Has No Right to Speak on This Greatest of Moral Issues, You Shut the Door of the Pulpit Against Many Other Present Day Evils—Chasm Between Iniquity and Integrity.

Rev. Joseph K. Dixon, D. D., pastor of Penn. Avenue Baptist church, preached his sermon last night with forceful and fearless arraignment of the political policy of repudiation and dishonesty now before the people of this nation. It was as follows:
"God has driven us to a pass where and made a chasm between iniquity and integrity. No government can long placate the pressure of dishonesty and repudiation without sure and terrible downfall. All old and effete civilizations whose wrecks are strewn along the shores of history are lessons in this regard. Lie by the ruins of Parthenon and Pallas tonight, I and you may read this lesson in mouldering stones, barbarous practices, the ten commandments with the prohibition left out.
Men there are whose heads are so cool because so empty who will even now fringe the pulpit for bringing politicians into religion. The reason is plain, they carry so little religion in their pockets.
"In the time of Caesar and Cleopatra to be a politician was to be a good citizen. Now it is to be the veriest rascal that walks the street. The sacrifice of this campaign has sent the cold chills down my spinal column. The cross, that blessed and beautiful symbol of our faith, that rugged couch on which the Son of God breathed out his life with a crown of thorns around his transverse pieces of wood and a picture of a candidate for the presidency fastened to its forefront stamps the title 'American Marshall' on the "American Marshall."

THOU SHALT NOT STEAL.

"I read in the decalogue 'Thou shalt not steal.' If you debar the pulpit the right to speak on this, the greatest moral issue since the long lines of blue faced the long lines of the gray on the battle plains of the South, you shut the door of the pulpit against speech concerning drunkenness, blasphemy, perjury, or any of the ills that vex the world.
"Twice before sections of this great land have attempted repudiation, once when Washington's soldiers, bleeding on the soil of Valley Forge and the great chieftain asked for money and the states afterwards attempted to disown the obligation, but congress came to the rescue.
"Once again when in the sorest crisis of the nation, martyred and sainted Lincoln called for help to keep the soldiers in the field. The help came from village, hamlet and farm, but after the soldier had been baptized with blood and the blackman was freed and the Union preserved, an attempt was made to pay the obligation with 75-cent dollars, but loyal and royal hearts branded the infamous attempt and preserved our honor and the nations of the world, and now a third time, the sacrifice is attempted to pay our honest obligations with a 55-cent dollar.

A SHAME ON SHAME.

"America, 'queen of the earth and child of the skies,' with her fertile acres overflowing granaries, teeming mines, populous and prosperous cities, her giant industries, her vast territory, her glorious record, to repudiate a shame on shame.
"In this pulp it let the strength of my conviction with all the power of my Christian patriotism thunder against this sacrifice of the hour and write in letters of fire so that he who reads away may reach to this church, to this community, to the world, 'Thou shalt not steal.'"

DR. DIXON'S INSTALLATION.

The installation of Rev. Joseph K.
Dixon, D. D., as pastor of Penn. Ave.
Baptist church, will take place next Thursday evening and it will be attended by elaborate services.
Many of the pastors of the city will be present to welcome Dr. Dixon as a co-laborer in the vineyard.
Rev. R. S. MacArthur, D. D., L. L. D., pastor of Calvary Baptist church, New York city, who is perhaps the best known Baptist clergyman in the United States, will deliver the principal address, and he will undoubtedly touch upon the political question.

REUNION OF CONFIRMED.

Interesting Special Services Conducted at Trinity Lutheran Church.
At Trinity Lutheran church the services were unusually interesting yesterday. A reunion of the confirmed members of the congregation was held.
The pastor, Rev. E. L. Miller, three years ago instituted these reunions, and he finds that they are of inestimable value in creating interest in his predecessor, Rev.
Mr. Zwelzig, confirmed thirty-three persons of his time, and Rev. Mr.
Miller confirmed seventy-three.
The services were especially for the confirmed. In the morning the pastor spoke on Christian warfare, and the weapons that the Christian must use to maintain his standard against the enemy of our salvation. In the evening he spoke to the people to look for and appreciate in their own development of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, and he asked them to help overcome whatever defects there may be in their own church, instead of going out to find faults in other churches, thing they like better. As a means toward accomplishing this he urged them to pray for the pastor, to be regular in their attendance upon the services, to speak well of their church and to use every influence they may have for enlarging the Kingdom of Christ.
H. L. Hungerford, a young lay member of St. John's Lutheran church, of Wilkes-Barre, read a paper on "Lutheran Young People" and their Church." It was an excellent paper and was, in part, as follows:
"To us, as Lutherans, has descended a magnificent heritage. To be members of the great church of the reformation; that church of the living truth; of free thought and free speech; that church of the open Bible, is a legacy of which the greatest and noblest may feel proud. But this great gift entails upon us corresponding responsibilities. The parable of the talents teaches us that it is demanded of us that we make returns according to our capabilities bestowed by God.
"But you ask, what can I do? What is my talent? And how can I use it? If you have no special talent you can assist in dispelling indifference, coldness or negligence from your church. You can help in stirring up a spirit of enthusiasm and a spirit of loyalty towards your church, your pastor and your society. Perhaps God has bestowed upon you some special talent; you may be a musician—devoted to talent to the cause of Christ.
Whatever qualifications you may have, use them. If you don't do a way, make one, for there is none so poor but can do Him reverence in one way or another. It is gratifying to note the change which has of late years, been taking place in the Lutheran church, affording the laity so many more opportunities of doing church work. For many years this power lay dormant, the entire work devolving practically upon the pastor. Now the church is beginning to realize that there is a place for the active work of all her people, especially the young, with their enthusiasm, energy and zeal in the service of God.

This evening the social part of the reunion will take place at Young Men's Christian association hall on Washington avenue, at 8 o'clock, and literary programme will be carried out, and refreshments will afterward be served.

RELIGIOUS NEWS NOTES.

Rev. H. J. Judd, a former pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, occupied that pulpit last night.
On account of repairs that are being made at Grace Reformed Episcopal church no services were held there yesterday.
Rev. E. F. Brown, of Jersey, delivered the sermons in the Jackson Street Baptist church yesterday morning and evening.
An interesting meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Railroad Department Young Men's Christian association.
The theme of Rev. F. P. Doty's sermon in the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church was "What a Thoughtful Man Did."
"Politics Without Heart" was the topic of Rev. J. G. Miller's sermon last night in the Elm Park church. He advised that the capacity of the church.
The Methodist ministers of Scranton and its vicinity will meet next Monday, Oct. 26, at 10 a. m. in Elm Park church.
Mr. Ashbury, an Arminian, will speak on "The Church in Armenia." Rev. John T. Vine, who will conduct revival services at the Green Ridge Baptist church all of this week, preached the sermons, morning and evening, in that church yesterday.
"The Character and Dignity of Christians" and "Love to Christ" were the topics of the morning and evening discourses of Rev. John A. No. at the Washington Street Presbyterian church yesterday.
Rev. William Edgar, in the Providence Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning delivered a sermon on "What to Read and Why." In the evening his topic was "Conversion on the Cross," which was the fifth of a series of sermons on notable New Testament conversions.
Rev. Dr. Pendleton, of Schenectady, N. Y., conducted the services at St. Luke's Church yesterday. The evening topic was Rogers Israel, who is attending a church conference in Cincinnati. O. Dr. Pendleton was formerly rector of St. Luke's church and has many warm friends in this city.
At the state convention of the Young Men's Christian association in Harrington, Saturday, Mrs. L. M. Gales, of this city, was elected president, and Miss Jane E. Adams, of the state secretaries. Mrs. William Connell was named a member of the state executive committee.
Rev. H. W. Buck, presiding elder of the Lewistown district, conducted quarterly communion services in the Trinity United Evangelical church in Little England last night. He also preached the sermon. In the morning he conducted communion services and preached in the Green Ridge United Evangelical church.

The following address to wheelmen has been issued by E. A. Gilmore, marshal of the bicycle division, Oct. 24, 1896.

To the Wheelmen of Scranton and Northwestern Pennsylvania:

The largest Republican parade that has taken place in Scranton in years will occur on Tuesday evening, all McKinley and Hobart clubs in Northwestern Pennsylvania have been invited to take part.
The parade will start at 8 o'clock, and it is expected 1,000 at least will be in line.
So special invitation has been issued to any bicycle club, but it is hoped that every club in the valley will be in line.
Word sent to the marshals at all the Lackawanna avenue will secure a place in line for the different clubs. Unattached wheelmen are included in the invitation.
Those having lanterns and sticks of their own are urged to use them, as the number at the distance of the lanterns is very limited. The lanterns will be distributed from Chase & Farra's bicycle store on Linden street, at 7 p. m. Tuesday evening. The bicycle division will form on Franklin avenue, right resting on Franklin avenue, facing west, and will be in position by 7:45. Let every wheelman who favors the election of McKinley and Hobart consider this personal invitation and come and bring a friend to help make this the largest bicycle parade in the history of the city.
Don't forget your stick and lantern.
E. A. Gilmore, Marshal.

SENTENCES IMPOSED ON OFFENDERS

Judge Edwards Dealt Out Justice to Convicted Defendants.

CADDEN LET OFF WITH SIX MONTHS

Told to Mend His Ways and Ta'te a Lesson from Experience—David Williams, the Thieving Youngster, Sent to the House of Reformatory.
Theatrical Man Waite Sentenced to Six Months in Jail.

Those convicted in criminal court last week were called before Judge Edwards Saturday morning for sentence. Michael Cadden, of the West side, who confessed to having burglarized Howley Brothers' hardware store, was let off with a light sentence, a fine of $15 and six months in the county jail. His attorney, Hon. John P. Kelley, made a plea for leniency on the ground that the defendant is only 19 years old, he is the only son of highly respectable parents, that it is his first time in court, and the crime was committed by him while under the influence of liquor. Judge Edwards said he would take this into consideration and give him a chance to reform, and he served notice on him to keep away from the courts in future.

David Williams was sentenced to the Industrial Reformatory at Huntingdon. He is about 12 years old, and was on the first week's list of criminals charged with stealing $5 from Morisani's peanut stand on the West Side. He pleaded guilty and sentence was suspended so that he might mend his ways. He now has his apprehension by getting caught a few days later attempting to tap the till of Freak's grocery store on Adams avenue. The suspension of sentence was lifted and he was sent to the house of refuge to stay there until he reforms.

THEATRICAL MAN SENTENCED.

Ex-Manager William Waite, of the Bubb Comedy company, who was convicted of stealing $10 from the safe of the Arlington hotel, and was in jail four months awaiting trial, was sentenced to remain six months more behind the bars, and pay a fine of $15.
John Farr of Old Forge, was sentenced to spend six months in jail and pay a fine of $25 for beating his delicate little stepdaughter.

William P. Davis, who was found guilty of the charge preferred against him by Sarah Jane Lidgett, of Eynon street, was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 to the Scranton poor district, $15 to the prosecutor, William O'Hara, of Dunmore, was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 to the poor district for the obedience of which he was found guilty.
Martin Loftus was fined $15 for striking Mrs. Bridget Kelley with a shovel.
Judge Edwards told Loftus he ought to mend his ways, for the house he is in and find peace by placing distance between himself and the Kelleys.

Special Officer Charles H. Warner,
of Dunmore, was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 for inflicting a severe beating upon Michael McDonnell. Daniel Johnson was fined $10 for carrying concealed weapons. David Lee, of Rockville, was the prosecutor in the case.

SCHMITT WAS ACQUITTED.

August Schmitt, of the Nineteenth ward, was acquitted of assault and battery upon his wife's uncle, Philip Soar. The costs were divided in the proportion of one-third on the defendant and two-thirds on the prosecutor.
Stephen Makiy, of the West Side, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 for assaulting Drayman William H. Sundry. A number of similar cases were disposed of.

LOOKING THE CASE UP.

Man Arrested on Suspicion of Being a Luzerne Murderer Still in Jail.

County Detective Eckhart, of Luzerne county, came up Saturday in answer to a telegram from County Detective Leyshon, with reference to the murder of John Sobloskie, who was arrested Friday night in Priebeburg by Mr. Leyshon on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of John Sobloskie at Swoyer's Patch, between Avoca and Smithville a year ago.

Mr. Eckhart went to the county jail and saw Sobloskie, but he could not identify him, nor could he state whether or not the man was wanted. There have been so many crimes of murder committed in recent years in old Luzerne that it is impossible to keep track of them all. Mr. Eckhart will make an investigation today and will

FOOT BALL AT PROVIDENCE.

Scranton Business College Defeats the Crescents.
About four hundred people saw a most exciting game of foot ball Saturday afternoon at the Driving park grounds between the eleven from the Scranton Business college and the Crescents, of Providence. The teams were about evenly matched, and with the exception of a few long runs, every inch of territory was hotly contested. The Crescents kicked off, Brooks taking the ball for a twenty-yard run before being downed. After a series of hot rushes and scrambles the ball was taken over the Crescents' goal line for a touchdown. Harris kicked goal. During the next few minutes play Bryden and Smith each took the ball for a twenty-yard run. Smith was forced over the Crescents' line for the second time just before time was called. Harris succeeded in kicking goal making the score 12 to 0 in favor of the College boys. Harris was injured just as time was called and retired from the game necessitating a number of changes in the Scranton Business college line-up.
As the second half began it found two or three heavier men in the Crescents' line which accounts for the groans in the second half. McCloskey's tackling and Thompson's work at centre were the features of the Crescents' playing while Bryden, Harris, Smith and Brooks did the best work for the college. The line up of the teams follow:

S. B. C. Crescents.
Walter, left tackle. Woolley, left half.
Levi, right guard. Thompson, right tackle.
D. Smith, right half. Kerkirk, right end.
Schroeder, center. Jones, center.
Roberts, right half back. Williams, left half back.
Williams, left half back. Keller, left half back.
Touchdowns, Smith 2; goals from touchdowns, Harris 2. Score, Scranton Business College, 12; Crescents, 0. Referee, Mr. Smith. Umpire, Dr. Stein; line-man, Mr. Jones. The Scranton Business College team challenged the High School team and the team from the School of the Lackawanna to a game of foot ball on any date that is convenient to them. Tropp, captain.
