MEETING OF PROHIBITIONISTS.

Address by W. W. Lathrope, Esq., o

Scranton, on Monday Night. A meeting of the Prohibition party was largely attended on Monday even-ing in the new Methodist chapel on Belmont street.

The meeting was opened by T. C. Robinson, who, as presiding officer introduced the speaker W. W. Lathrope, of Scranton. The speaker denounced both the Republican and Democratic parties as representatives of monoply, anarchy, corruption and every form of evil. Mention was made of the noble work of William T. Wardell, of New York, who though a man of wealth, preaches prohibition in the slums, and of the election will continue to advocate after election will continue to advocate his principles in mission chapels. Mr. Lathrope spoke of the high character of their candidate, Joshua Lovering, of Baltimore, an ionest man, consistent in life and fitted for the highest office in the land. He spoke warmlest office in the land. He spoke warmly of Professor Hockenberry as a candidate for congress and urged his support. The speaker was heartily applauded and his address received with earnest interest. There are now about sixty members belonging to the Prohibition League and the numbers are interesting. The League will attend the
