BRYAN'S BIG FIGHT IN COOK COUNTY

Harrangues to Residents of Various Nationalities in Chicago.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM DENOUNCED

The Boy Orater Declares Document a Fraud and Says That Men Who Framed It Intended to Deceive the People.-He is Presented with a Silver Horse Shoe.

Chicago, Oct. 28.-The second day of Chicago, Oct. 28.—The second day of William J. Bryan's fight for Cook county began at 19 o'clock this morning by an address to a crowd of people who have no vote. Women composed his 'audience and they cheered him with a will in their own way. This first meeting took place in the Polish district and was exclusively for the female residents of the neighborhood. Polish, Danish Swedes, Germans and women dents of the neighborhood. Pennish. Danish, Swedes, Germans and women of other nations composed the gathering in St. Stanislaus hall at Bradley and Noble streets. Mr. Bryan made them a short speech about the relation of the female part of the household to the preserve curestion and then went the money question and then went away to address a noon-day meeting at Battery D armory, on the lake front. Before the time set for the appearance of the nominee the building was pack-ed with expectant, perspiring humanity, while a great crowd outside clam-ored for admittance. The meeting was intended for business men and a ticket was necessary to obtain entrance. General C. P. Howard, formerly a Republican, a veteran of the late war and a brother of General O. O. Howard, U. S. A., who is one of the generals en-gaged in stumping the country for the Republican national ticket, presided at the meeting. General Howard made a little speech before presenting the can-didate. "Mr. Bryan asks one question."

he said; "are these all business men?"
"Yes," came in chorus from the audience, intermingled with shouts "and workingmen." Mr. Bryan jumped on a chair and tried to quell the noise by shaking his hands. Quiet was finally restored and he began a speech that lasted an hour. Among other things, Mr. Bryan said:

SAYS IT IS A FRAUD.

the law. (Applause and wild cheering; cries of "Altgeid would make a good at-torney general.")

WOMEN AGAIN.

Mr. Bryan's third address was delivered before an audience composed mostly of women. It was a well dressed mostly of women. It was n well dressed gathering. Nearly all the ladies who attended came in gowns suitable for afternoon calls. They crowded into the building as soon as the doors were opened, filled the limited number of chairs on the floor and took possession of all available standing room and every chair in the gallery. Several thousand who were unable to gain entrance stood on the outside to see the candidate when he arrived. It was incandidate when he arrived. It was in tensely close inside the armory and a dozen women succumbed. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan reached the armory at 3 o'clock. As they came on the stage where a quartette of young women had just finished singing a patriotic song, the audience rose en masse and cheered with vigor, the deep tones of the male portion drowning the shrill cries from the ladies. Mrs. Duncanson, president of he Women's club, introduced Mr. Bryan who made a very brief speech shullar to those delivered. brief speech similar to those delivered on his tour before other gatherings of Leaving Mrs. Bryan behind, the candidate proceeded to the Transit House in the Stock Yards district. The stand from which he spoke was erected on the south side of the Transit House, of it, a great throng, estimated at 25,-000, were assembled, waiting for Mr. Bryan to appear and when he did come

That is the story the morning newspapers tell of the modern business man. Too much money-getting. Too little care for health. Too much rush, and strain, and health. Too much rusn, and strain, and wear and tear. Too little time to eat, to sleep, to digest the food, to rest tired body and tortured brain. Not enough time to think once in a while of health and strength think once in a while of health and strength and happiness and a long and useful life. A widow and orphans left to mourn. A big estate that under the dissecting knife of the executor falls all to pieces. 'Tis the story of thousands of business men in life reputed wealthy and successful. It is a story that is unnecessary—need not be.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery if resorted to occasionally will keep a man or resorted to occasionally will keep a man or woman in good health. It goes to the roots resorted to occasionally will keep a man or woman in good health. It goes to the roots of things. It tunes up the strings of life and makes them vibrate to the music of good health. It makes the appetite keen, the digestion good, the blood pure, and the nerves strong. Then ill-health is an impossibility, and work is a pleasure. Thouands say so.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' has been a great physician to our family," writes Mr. Ira S. Foust, of Naylor, Ripley Co., Mo. "My wife's father had Bright's Discase. His water was almost pure blood. We got a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and it did him so much good that he tried another and then a third, and the fourth entirely cured him."

Nothing in the world so many times pays for itself to its owner as a good medical book. The very best one is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. storm of applause arose. Tim Carran storm of applause arose. Tim Carra-bine, a local commission merchant, in-troduced Mr. Bryan, handing his a silver horseshoe as he did so, and the multitude howled again. The audi-ence was composed principally of stock yards meh, who manifested wild approval of some of the remarks made by the candidate. Mr. Bryan said in part:

We are going through a contest which every generation must have, because, when people rest upon their oars, when they become indifferent to political abuses, these abuses get possession of government and run it until the people get tired and then the people rise in their strength and reform abuses and purify government and start it on again as it ought to be. (Cheers).

and start it on again as it ought to be. (Cheers).

Now, my friends, I want you to remember that you have a right to participate in government. The ballot is given to you, not as somebody else wants you to use it, but as you want to use it yourselves. The Australian ballot is here, and it is here for your protection and I want you who are employes to feel that you have the same right to cast your vote that your employer has to cast his vote and you have as much right to try to make him vote as you want him to, as he has to try to make you vote as he wants you to. They tell me that some of the big men are against us I tell them that a big man does not vote any oftener than a little man. (Cheers. When they tell me that the money of the country is against us I tell them that while money talks, thank heaven, it does not vote in this country.

BEST OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Tonight's big demonstration the Frothingham theater will be a fitting climax to the local campaign for Protection and sound money. The speakers will include Governor Hastings, at all times a favorite orator; General Latta, eloquent and witty: General Reeder, scholarly and effective; Colonel Harry Hall, apt in anecdote and illustration; and Mayor Warwick, of Philadelphia, who is one of the best speakers in the state. This meeting will be for Democrats as well as Republicans. Let every citizen

GENTRY'S GREAT EFFORT

Mr. Bryan said:

I believe that that polley is best for the country which begins with those who toll and gives them first the inspiration to work and then protects them in the enjoyment of a rightful share of the proceeds of their toli, and proceeds from them up to the other classes of society which rests upon them. (Cheers).

I say to you that the Republican platform adopted this year is a fraud. I say that it was intended as a fraud. (Cheers). I say that the men who wrote it wrote it to deceive the people and to secure an advantage by deception that they could not obtain openly. (Cheers). I want you to remomber that that phrase in the Republican platform pledging the Republican party to promote bimetalism was offered as a solace to the Republicans of the west, with no idea that the Republican party would ever use any effort to change the gold standard. (Great cheering).

I notice that some of our crities are very much excited because the Chicago platform says that we pledge ourselves to secure such legislation as will, in the future, prevent contracts for a particular kind of money. Why, they say that we are not letting people contract. We are not letting them make contracts that are against public polley. We do not intend that they shall demonetize by private contract what this nation makes money by indiversal laws. I want to say to you that we, who believe in enforcing the laws against all classes of society, are better friends of government than those who would make scapegoats of little criminal and then let big ones run at large and then let big ones run at large and the source when the process of society, are better friends of government than those who would make scapegoats of little criminal and then let big ones run at large and the government there. (Applause). The early serious to make his real test against the work of the law are the ones the process of the process of the contract of the work and dead, and the track had lost some of its elasticity. Pennsylvania Defeats Brown by a Score of 16 to 0 -- Elizabeth Scores Against Yale--The Brilliant Work of Gelbert Among the Features of the Peunsylvania -- Brown Game.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—Pennsylvania defeated Brown this afternoon 16 to 0. The active New Englanders opened up with a rush and for a time it looked as if they would carry the ball over for a touchdown by the rapidity and spirit of their play. They carried the pigskin inside Pennsylvania's twenty-five-yard line by a sharp running and fumbling behind the Quaker's line. Twice Pennsylvania had kicks blocked on their 20-yard line and once Morice made a fluke kick. Brown got as far as the Quaker's kick. Brown got as far as the Quaker's 15-yard line, but here stopped and the tide turned.

For the first ten minutes the Quakers played a spiritless, listless game and only opposed a half-hearted defence to Brown's rush. With the ball on their 15-yard line and the encouraging shouts of 1,500 of their fellow-students ring-ing in their ears, Pennsylvania braced up, and from that moment Brown was never in the game. Nine runs by Gel-bert, Morice and Minds around the ends and line-bucking by Wharton and Farrar carried the ball up to Brown's goal and Gelbert went through left tackle for a touchdown Woodruff tackle for a touchdown. Woodruff kicked the goal and no more scoring resulted in this half. In the second half Pennsylvania had

In the second half Pennsylvania had Brown on the defence the entire time. Morice, by a run of thirty yards around Brown's right end, scored a touchdown and Farrar plunged through the right side of the line for 15 yards. In one of the touchdowns only was a goal kicked. For Brown, Wheeler played a fine game at guard and Yulze, Gammons, Colby and Hall did good work in the back field, barring their weakness in catching punts. While Pennsylvania's play was far superior to their work play was far superior to their work against Lafayette, there was still a fatal tendency to fumble and a slowness in putting the ball in play.

Woodruff went back to his place at guard from full back and Morice went on at full back. Fortesque, one of the members of the scrub, played quarter and did the best work of the season for Pennsylvania in that position. The change in Pennsylvania's team strengthened it considerably. YALE-ELIZABETH GAME.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 28.—The Ellzabeth Athletic club scored against Yale in this afternoon's game between the two elevens, and claimed another touchdown.

The visitors kept the ball in Yale territory most of the time throughout the game, having it inside of Yale's ten yard line at the end of the first half. Rogers and Chamberlain scored touchdowns for Yale during the half, Rodg-ers making the first on a center play, and Chamberlain dropping on a blocked

In the second half the Elizabeth men got through the Yale line at will, four kicks of Hinkey's being blocked. The Yale backs were unable to gain and finally a blocked kick landed the ball at Yale's ten yard line. Smith dashed through the center and put the ball on the goal line. Elizabeth claimed a touchdown, but it was not allowed by the referee.

Another of Hinckey's kicks was blocked and the ball rolled behind the goal. Koehler fell on the ball, but the referee decided that the ball had rolled outside of the bounds before going back of the real. The victory decided. of the goal. The visitors declined to continue the game for a time after this decision, but at last started play again. Knapp made a touchdown and Stillman kicked a goal.

Neither side was able to make any large gains after this and the game closed with the score 12 to 6 in favor of
