Howard's remarks were prin- cipally recounting deeds of valor of the veterans in the war for the preserva- tion of the union, and proved to the satisfaction of his audience that no less important contest must and will be settled next Tuesday at the ballot box. Bishop McCabe led the audience in singing "John Brown" and was fol- lowed by Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart in an address of remarkable strength. With three cheers for the success of the Republican candidates the audi- ence was dismissed. Mr. Reynolds on the Stump.	President Cleveland would certainly call out the troops. What would fol- low? The imagination pauses to con- ceive, because it cannot attempt to foresee." THE ANDRUS INQUEST. Coroner Miles Proposes to Make Electrical Experiments. Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The inquest with regard to the killing of Hamin J. Andrus has been postponed until Thursday next. Coroner Miles intends having wires strung in the factory, as they were before he took them down. The contrivance for exploding the bomb will also be taken from police headquarters and placed in position. A detatontary will then be attached and a test made-to discover whether there was sufficient power in the battery to cause an explosion. AN OFFICER ARRESTED.
