"Gold bugs" were quite prominent on the streets of the town, and cheers for McKinley were heard. At first the audience was like the atmosphere, but it warmed up as Mr. Bryan proceeded, and became exceedingly enthusiastic. Mr. Bryan talked about the lineome tax feature of the Chicago platform, holding that only the Chicago platform, holding that only the people with large incomes were against its enactment. Yesterday evening's papers announced that there had been a flurry in Wall street and that money was loaning on call as high as a hundred per cent. What a harvest these people who have money and who can make a hundred per cent get out of this little embarrassment. I notice a banner in your meeting here which has something on it about the independence of 1770 and 1896. There is a similarity between those two campaigns. There were those then who insisted that these colonies ought to be free and independent, and there were those who insisted that we ought to stand under the political dominion of Great Britain. There were those then who were so tied to forcign interests who were the agents of origin houses, and those were advocating English interests on American soil just as totay the representatives of foreign houses are advocating foreign interests on American soil in this campaign. History teaches us that when the fight was over in '76 and independence had been declared the people of this country did not erect any monuments to commemorate the memories of those who are trying to fasten a foreign financial policy. I do not think any monuments will be erected to the memories of those who are trying to fasten a foreign financial policy upon the American people, (Cheers.

onstrations. Mr. Bryan said, in part:

If you think it is a good thing to have scarce money you had better read the dispatches from New York city where you will find that money was drawing 199 per cent. on call yesterday. They said money was scarce down there and yet they are the very people who tell you that we have all the money we need. When money is plentiful it emone where the people who have money can loan it in hard times for 100 per cent, they are not apt to join in any movement which means more money in the country and less possibility to trespass upon the rights of others.

CAPITAL IS READY.

McKinley's Election Will Bring Millions. Ohio and Missouri Investors Awaiting the Triumph of Sound Money.

New York, Oct. 20.—Dispatches con-tinue to arrive in this city showing that in the Middle and Western states there is a quantity of capital lying idle, which is ready for investment just as soon as the election of McKinley is as sured. This capital is at the present time locked up in vaults to the amount of millions of dollars, and only waits the defeat of Bryan to be put in circulation.
From St. Louis it is announced that merchants and bankers say that with-in the first six months after McKin-ley's election $25,000,000, now in safety ley's election $25,000,000, now in safety vaults, will be put in circulation in Missouri alone, while Bryan's success would mean the withdrawal of $10,000,000 in addition to the above amount from trade in that state.

There is also said to be lying idle in the state of Ohio $50,000,000 for investment in case McKinley is elected. Some of it is new capital and some capital that has been withdrawn from trade pending the issue.

In Iowa state banks a large amount of capital is also reported to be held to

ELECTION STAGNATION.

Business Prospects, However, Are Excellent According to Opinions of Dun & Company.

New York, Oct. 30 .- R. G. Dun & Co. will say to-morrow in their weekly review of trade: A market without anything but politics to rule it is not often seen. Business is almost abolished until af-ter the election, by the extraordinary three thousand, and to it Mr. Bryan pressure for money, by the indisposi-tion of anybody to sell who thinks a great change for the better is near, by the feeling that it is now of no use to contract or buy when so little time remains before a decision, and by the general absorption of business men in political activities. The indications show a gratifying confidence in pre-paring for better things: But an enormous volume of contracts and orders

> The feature of the week has been the pressure in New York money market, in spite of the heavy arrivals of gold. Quotations of call loans at 100 per cent. or more have no real meaning, except that with practically four holidays to come in succession, there is really no market. Commercial loans are almos a lost article, as banks sustain their

Mr. Bryan made a speech at Oshkosh that brought considerable warmth of feeling from his supporters. A fair amount of enthusiasm was shown. The crowd stretched more than a hundred feet back from the car and for a greater distance on both sides. Many people wore gold badges, but they did not attempt any counter demitted. they did not attempt any counter dem-onstrations. Mr. Bryan said, in part: value, showing that foreign orders are

Fin-ished products do not change in quoted prices, although quotations are less shaded than of late to secure business, and there is a strong belief that after a week there will be a marked change. New York, Oct. 31.—There was a decided change for the better in the financial situation and at no time did the rate for call loans advance to the figures enacted yesterday and in the afternoon the quotations dropped 6 per cent, per annum at which the final transactions were affected. The decline in money was the result of a conference heid last night by the presidents of the down town banks at which fourteen of the leading institutions were represented. It was determined there to assist Stock exchange borrowers, but not through the medium of clearing house certificates. A statement by President Simmons, of the clearing house, to the effect that there was nothing in the situation to excite alarm and the banks were abundantly able to meet any emergency that may arise had a strengthening influence. The comparative ease in money not only encouraged those of a bullish tendency, but led to considerable covering of short contracts put out yesterday.
