FUNERAL OF AN AGED MAN.

The funeral obseques over the remains of the late David Davis, of Cor-bett avenue, the well-known and aged resident of Bellevvue, were conducted yesterday afternoon from the family home. The funeral was largely attended by numerous friends of the family. The services were conducted by Rev. John T. Morris, pastor of the Bellevue Weish C. M. church. He paid a high tribute the manly qualities and Chris-tian traits which the deceased had shown through life. The flowers were especially fine. The remains were con-veyed to the Washburn street cemetery where interment was made. The pall-bearers were, John H. Williams, George Jones, David Samuel, Archie Armor, John Thomas and Richard James.

CASE OF FALSE PRETENSES. Carl Cusick, a resident of the West Side, was brought before Alderman Owen D. John last evening on a charge of false pretenses, preferred against him by Thomas G. Thomas, a grocery-man who resides on Garfield avenue. Some time ago Cusick went to the store of Mr. Thomas and ordered a bill of goods for which he could not pay for ot the time. Cosick syntamed he was at the time. Cusick explained he was working on good time and was able to settel at almost any time. The grocery-man was compelled to be content with this for the time being, but who afterward found out_that Cusick had not been at work for some time, he pressed the case. After a hearing the parties concerned decided to settle the
