

M'KINLEY'S LAST CAMPAIGN SPEECH

He Thanks God That He Has Spoken Only for Patriotism.

GREETING FORTY THOUSAND VISITORS

Canton Thronged with Delegations and the Whole City Given Up to Wild Enthusiasm—Cheers for "Old Glory"—Proposed by the Candidate and Given with a Will by a Vast Multitude.

Canton, Ohio, Nov. 1.—The campaign has closed in Canton, and the last of the great delegations to greet Major McKinley has come and gone. The last day was like all other Saturdays, except that it exceeded in enthusiasm anything that has preceded it. Forty thousand persons is a conservative estimate of the number who came here yesterday.

Canton was literally covered with flags. The houses were covered, bunting was stretched across the streets, and even the wagons and vehicles of the countrymen who drove in were decorated with the national colors.

The greater part of yesterday's visitors were Major McKinley's old constituents in his congressional career, Youngstown, Mass., and Warren, Niles and Poland sent hundreds. The women of Canton and Massillon and the surrounding country, numbering several thousand, marched to the McKinley home to pay their respects, and finally Joseph Benson Foraker arrived and made a speech from the McKinley steps, virtually closing the Canton campaign.

A delegation from Elwood, Ind., was the first to call. This was followed by a delegation from Canton, Ohio, and Cleveland, in uniform.

M'KINLEY HEARS PITTSBURG'S PARADE. As Major McKinley finished speaking in the despatch from New York was handed the following message: Men were marching in the Republican parade. Similar messages, telling of great parades, followed rapidly from a majority of the great cities of the country.

A telephone company had arranged its long distance wires so that the major's headquarters at the Pittsburg building, and for several hours the major's library was filled with the sound of the cheers and howling of horns in Pittsburg.

The first parade of the day was formed here soon after dinner. There were about twenty thousand persons in line. The greater number were from Youngstown and the surrounding country. Most of them marched by the reviewing stand in front of Major McKinley's house, cheering wildly. When they were dismissed around the stand in the major's yard, and when the whole delegation broke into one mighty cheer it was clear that the major's heart was full.

When Major McKinley mounted a chair the cheering lasted several minutes. He was greeted with a will. When he was dismissed he was given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Youngstown visitors marched away at last, and their place was taken by the women of Canton and Massillon. While these women were given with a will, some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

His closing remarks. "Thank God," he said, at the end, "that in all these months of the campaign I have spoken only for patriotism and for the unity and brotherhood of all our people."

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

Then the citizens of Niles, the major's birthplace, demanded another speech. The major thanked them, and proposed three cheers for the flag and all it stands for, which were given with a will. Some one raised his voice in the national hymn, "America," and the great chorus took it up. Major McKinley sang the national hymn.

THE CAMPAIGN OF NEW YORK CLOSED

Republicans Claim the State for Major William McKinley.

THE ESTIMATED MAJORITY IS 200,000

Special Features of the Battle, Senator Hill Silent, William Whitney an Avowed McKinley Man, and Roswell Flower Stumping for Palmer and Buckner—A Walkover for Frank S. Black.

New York, Nov. 1.—The campaign closed in this state last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

The Democrats have managed their campaign for Bryan and Sewall in a seemingly perfunctory way. With Senator Hill silent, William C. Whitney an avowed McKinley man, and ex-Governor Roswell P. Flower and other leading stumpers for Palmer and Buckner, it has been a spiritless campaign. Hard work has been done, however, among the labor men and the working classes, and the campaign, education will be kept up until Tuesday.

Mr. Bryan has twice visited the state and this city, which he termed the "heart of the enemy's country." Enormous crowds greeted him, but whether drawn by curiosity or belief in the principles which he urges, can only be conjectured.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

THE CAMPAIGN OF NEW YORK CLOSED

Republicans Claim the State for Major William McKinley.

THE ESTIMATED MAJORITY IS 200,000

Special Features of the Battle, Senator Hill Silent, William Whitney an Avowed McKinley Man, and Roswell Flower Stumping for Palmer and Buckner—A Walkover for Frank S. Black.

New York, Nov. 1.—The campaign closed in this state last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

The Democrats have managed their campaign for Bryan and Sewall in a seemingly perfunctory way. With Senator Hill silent, William C. Whitney an avowed McKinley man, and ex-Governor Roswell P. Flower and other leading stumpers for Palmer and Buckner, it has been a spiritless campaign. Hard work has been done, however, among the labor men and the working classes, and the campaign, education will be kept up until Tuesday.

Mr. Bryan has twice visited the state and this city, which he termed the "heart of the enemy's country." Enormous crowds greeted him, but whether drawn by curiosity or belief in the principles which he urges, can only be conjectured.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

ONE CENT A WORD.

THE CAMPAIGN OF NEW YORK CLOSED

Republicans Claim the State for Major William McKinley.

New York, Nov. 1.—The campaign closed in this state last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

The Democrats have managed their campaign for Bryan and Sewall in a seemingly perfunctory way. With Senator Hill silent, William C. Whitney an avowed McKinley man, and ex-Governor Roswell P. Flower and other leading stumpers for Palmer and Buckner, it has been a spiritless campaign. Hard work has been done, however, among the labor men and the working classes, and the campaign, education will be kept up until Tuesday.

Mr. Bryan has twice visited the state and this city, which he termed the "heart of the enemy's country." Enormous crowds greeted him, but whether drawn by curiosity or belief in the principles which he urges, can only be conjectured.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 75,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been a series of hurrahs for the flag, appeals to patriotism and support for the cause of the national and government affairs. The sound money financial display a week ago and the monster street parade yesterday, in which Democrats as well as Republicans favoring the gold standard took part, mark the campaign as one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted in the Empire state.

Throughout the state speakers have harangued crowds and tons of literature have been distributed by both sides. The national Democrats have conducted a warm campaign for Palmer and Buckner and are confident of making a show at the polls which will justify them in continuing their organization for future work. The Prohibition and Socialist labor parties have made their usual quiet canvasses; the latter for future work.

Chairman Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, says he is confident of carrying the state for Bryan and Sewall, and that he has a plurality in this city of 20,000. The betting, however, is the other way. Money is freely offered on seven terms that McKinley will receive 200,000 majority in the state and over 40,000 in this city.

A great many Democrats who will vote for McKinley are expected to cast their ballots for a Democratic gubernatorial nominee for governor, and his vote is expected by some to equal that cast for Porter, the regular Democratic nominee. The Democratic vote on the Democratic vote between Porter and Griffin makes it an easy race for Black, the Republican nominee. Great interest is in the result of the state election. The registration is considerably in excess of all former years, and the heavy vote on record will probably be polled.

NO FREE SILVER! NO FREE TRADE! IOWA CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

CONNOLLY & WALLACE The Cloak Department.

Is Showing Some Wonderful Values in Plush and Cloth Capes.

Three Numbers in Cloth Capes, 21, 25 and 31 inches long, with Thibet Trimming.

SPECIAL PRICES, $5.00, $7.50 AND $10

Double Cloth Cape, with Velvet Collar, made of All Wool Kersey, Regularly worth $8.00, AT $5.00--SPECIAL.

CONNOLLY & WALLACE, 209 Washington Avenue, Opp. Court House.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

SITUATION WANTED BY MIDDLE-aged lady, as housekeeper, or to care for a sick person. Address, E. M. Tribune office.

WANTED—AS AGENT IN EVERY section to canvass $4.00 to $5.00 a day made in 10 to 15 days. Side line $75 a month; salary or large commission made; experience unnecessary. J. H. WOOD, 220 N. 10th St., Boston, Mass.

WANTED—WELL-KNOWN MAN in every town to solicit stock subscriptions; a monopoly; big money; specific; capital required. J. H. WOOD, 220 N. 10th St., Boston, Mass.

DR. S. M. PREVOST, General Manager.

Architects.

EDWARD H. DAVIS, ARCHITECT, Rooms 21, 23 and 25, Commonwealth building, Scranton.

E. L. WALTER, ARCHITECT, OFFICE rear of 625 Washington avenue.

LEWIS HANCOCK, JR., ARCHITECT, No. 15 Wyoming avenue, Scranton.

BROWN & MORRIS, ARCHITECTS, Price building, 125 Washington avenue, Scranton.

Dentists.

DR. F. L. MCGRAW, 305 SPRUCE street.

DR. H. F. REYNOLDS, OPP. P. O.

DR. E. Y. HARRISON, 113 S. MAIN ave.

C. C. LAUBACH, SURGEON DENTIST, No. 125 Wyoming avenue, Scranton.

R. M. STRATTON, OFFICE COAL EXCHANGE.

WELCOME C. SNOVER, 41 LACKA ave. Hours, 9 to 1 and 2 to 5.