The boys, as usual, celebrated Hai-lowe'en on Saturday night. The front gate of Mr. Stevens' home on Albright avenue, was lifted from its hinges, car-ried across the street and suspended from the roof of the glass factory. A ridiculous act was perpetrated on San-derson avenue. Three or four young men carried a tall ladder from the rear of Finn's row, placed it against Clint Ross' flag shanty and, purloining an arm chair from the porch of Mra. Tweed's residence, nearby, placed it upon the chimney of the flag shanty. The chair was yesterday viewed by hundreds of people and caused much laughter.

DR. GIFFIN'S REMARKS. Dr. Giffin did not have a political sub-ject for either of his two sermons, though the thought of each was sug-gested by the campaign. In the morn-ing he urged his listeners to weigh care-fully the question of whether there was any doubt about their election to a spir-itual life in the world to come. He cited the good that would follow the same interest in attaining eternal recited the good that would follow the same interest in attaining eternal re-ward as in studying the chances of political candidates.
