ON THE EVE OF THE BIG BATTLE

The General Outlook as Judged from Various Estimates. M'KINLEY HAS VOTES TO SPARE

Satisfactory Reports Received at Republican Headquarters in New York--Impense Majorities Will Be Boiled Up for McKinley and Hobart in Ohio--Prospects in Delaware and Other States.

New York, Nov. 2.—There were but few callers today at Republican national headquarters. The work of the campaign, however, is still being pushed and will be up to the last moment.

OHIO 100,000 FOR M'KINLEY. Columbus, O., Nov. 2.—Chairman Carver, of the national Democratic state committee, and Chairman McConville, of the Democratic state committee, will give no estimate of the result of the election in Ohio.

DELAWARE IS SAFE. Wilmington, Del., Nov. 2.—The political situation in Delaware remains unchanged since Saturday. Signs of growing interest, however, are visible on every side and the voters are awaiting the result anxiously.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 2.—The Republicans have raised the estimate of their majority from 12,000 to 20,000. Every indication points to a heavy vote all over the State, with a strong probability that the negro will be unable to handle the massive ballot.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 2.—Republican leaders claim that the State of McKinley, on the other hand, an impartial forecast indicates victory for Bryan and the free silver congressional candidates.

M'KINLEY'S LAST ADDRESS.

He Talks to His Neighbors, but Declines to Make Other Speeches. Canton, Nov. 2.—Two delegations called on Major McKinley today. The first was composed of 350 ladies from Akron, Ohio, and the other came from Massillon. Neither of these delegations were expected. The candidate feeling that the work of the campaign has been practically closed did not speak at any length, but simply thanked the visitors for the call.

COMFORT COLUMN FOR DEMOCRATS

Assounding Claims to Cheer the Hearts of Bryanites. CHAIRMAN JONES YELLS "FRAUD"

His Retainers Have Captured the Usual Value in Which the Stolen Election Is to Be Carried Away. Missouri and Minnesota Are Reserved to St. John, the Wall Street Mart, Is Cheerful.

OUTLOOK AT CHICAGO.

Mr. Hanna Has Nothing to Add to His Former Predictions--Extra Predictions at the Polls. Chicago, Nov. 2.—Mr. Hanna has nothing new to add to his predictions when he took the night train for his home in Indiana.

TABLE OF PRECINCTS. A Form Which Will Prove Useful in Computing Election Results. New York, Nov. 2.—In computing the results of the election in the different States from bulletins tomorrow night the following table of voting precincts by States will be useful:

PLEASANT ELECTION DAY.

Chief Moore Predicts a Clear Day for Pennsylvania. Washington, Nov. 2.—The following special bulletin was issued tonight: The weather conditions are maturing about as indicated in the special bulletin issued this morning.

EPISCOPAL VISITATIONS.

Bond of Methodist Bishops Prepares a List at Pittsburg. Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—The board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal today completed its work of reviewing reports of justly matters referred from the various conferences, and preparing the list of assignments for Episcopal visitations.

READY TO GAMBLE.

New York Stock Brokers Will Take Advantage of Election Results. New York, Nov. 2.—An enterprising firm of bullion dealers and members of the New York stock exchange today announced that they have engaged a temporary office at East Twenty-third street for election day.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The debt statement issued this afternoon shows a net increase in the public debt of $1,250,000 during October of $1,250,000. The total cash in the treasury, $88,626,211.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

President Cleveland, in Company with Olney, Carlisle and Morton, Will Receive Election Returns. Washington, Nov. 2.—As stated in these dispatches, the president will receive news on election night at the White House through the dispatches of the United Associated Presses and the Western Union telegraph.

TORN DOWN THE FLAG.

Six Young Men Create Trouble in Hyde Park This Morning. Six young men, evidently out on a lark, probably succeeded in setting themselves in a serious scrape this morning about 2:50 o'clock by tearing down and trampling on a large American flag which was hanging in front of P. F. Taylor's place on Jackson street.

SNOW IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

The Storm Will Probably Interfere with Election Results. Huron, S. D., Nov. 2.—A heavy snow fell here last night, and a foot of it is now on the ground. The storm North and West is reported severe. Telegraph poles and wires are down here and Pierre, no communication with that city having been had since Thursday evening. Trains are slightly delayed.

DEATH OF A DRUMMER.

J. M. Tiplinger Killed by John P. Irise's Train. Omaha, Neb., Nov. 2.—The special train conveying John P. Irise, of California, which was being in behalf of the gold Democrat, after W. J. Bryan had spoken, ran into a freight train near Lincoln this morning and J. M. Tiplinger, a Lincoln commercial traveler, who stood on the platform of the car, was killed.

She Played with Matches.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—Rev. Dr. George B. Stewart has not yet given a definite answer to the question whether or not he will accept the position of secretary of the Presbyterian board of national relief. It is believed here that he will accept the position.
