If arrangements can be completed in time the public will be given an opportunity to see the returns cast upon canvases on Main avenue. SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Twentieth Ward Has a Site for a School and It is Sadly in Need of a New Building.

School Controller John Gibbons, of the Twentieth ward, purchased two lots at the corner of Stone avenue and Brook street, when he was on the board nine years ago. His purpose at that time being that it was a wise plan to secure a desirable location for a school when there was plenty of land to be had and to hold it in reserve until the time came when the development of the South Side would make more school facilities necessary. How well his judgment was, is now apparent.

The Twentieth ward nine or ten years ago was far from what it is today, but Mr. Gibbons foresaw that the day would come when the lack of unoccupied land would turn out to be a difficult matter to acquire a desirable site without a large outlay of money. The next thing is to get a new school for the ward. Mr. Gibbons has the capacity of undertaking whatever he starts out to accomplish and he will, no doubt, accomplish this much for the ward before his term expires.

SOUTH MILL AGAIN BURNED.

It is, indeed, a gloomy sight to look toward the South works and see the fires burning. This is the case again. After a run of six weeks the mill was down Saturday night. There is no prospect of a resumption this winter unless the result of the election today is in favor of a protective tariff.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS OF NEWS.

The Scranton Athletic club will receive election returns by special wire this evening. It is for the benefit of members only.

A large vote is expected.

DIED SUDDENLY IN CATHEDRAL.

Mrs. Bridget Griffin Expired from Heart Disease.

Mrs. Bridget Griffin, of South Washington avenue, died suddenly yesterday.

day morning in St. Peter's cathedral. She was 60 years old and widow of the late Michael Griffin. Since her husband's death her home had been with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Loughney, at 420 South Washington avenue.

She arrived at the cathedral to attend the 8 o'clock mass and was seated only a few minutes when she fell forward on her face. Assistance reached her immediately and she was carried into the sacristy. Father O'Reilly responded quickly and gave her the last rites of the church, and Dr. P. H. Kearney arrived soon afterward. In a few minutes after the doctor came Mrs. Griffin died. The cause was evidently heart failure.

The body was removed to the late home by Undertaker Casel.

HOW TO VOTE.

To vote the Republican ticket today put a cross (X) in the circle at the top of the first column, and let it go at that.

GRAND JURY IN SESSION.

Over 225 Transcripts Have Already Been Sent In—Reports Made by the Constables of the County.

The November grand jury assembled yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the arbitration room of the court house, where it was charged by Judge Edwards. The jurors were merely instructed as to what their duties are in passing upon cases which come before them. After the charge of the court the jurors went to common council chamber of city hall, where they will be in session the rest of the week, except today.

This being election day and a legal holiday, there will be no court any kind. The court house officers will be closed and the grand jury will not be in session until 9:30 to-morrow morning.

James L. Zerler, who was until recently in the plumbing business on Adams avenue, was one of the grand jurors, but he is defendant in a serious case which comes up this term, and consequently was ineligible to serve.

There are about 225 transcripts so far sent in, and not many more are expected. The November session of the grand jury is always a light one.

Of the returns made by the various constables throughout the county only one has been sent in to say that liquor was sold in his district in violation of the law. That was Constable Joseph E. Walker, of the Eleventh ward. He reported August 18, 1898, of Cedar avenue, where the streets are paved with liquor.

Constable John C. Moran, of the Twelfth ward, was not able to give the names of any persons selling liquor without a license. The roads and bridges in his district are passable. George W. Easton, constable of La Plume, says the roads, bridges and index boards are all right in his district.

Constable J. A. Pennum, of the Seventeenth ward, says the streets are passable. P. J. Matthews, of Spring Brook, one of the jury commissioners, was appointed foreman of the jury.
