RALLY OF REPUBLICANS.

Meeting at the Opera House--Stirring Addresses Made.

An enthusiastic meeting of Republicans was held on Saturday evening at the Opera House. John W. Dimmock presided and made the opening address which was received with rapturous ap-

Mr. O'Malley then reviewed the issues of the day. He offered a very effective argument for a protective tariff illustrating the subject by refering to the Green Ridge glass works, which were not long age sold at sheriff's sale. He showed that the money, formerly paid to the workingmen, since the Wilsen bill went into effect, is sent abroad. paid to the workingmen, since the Wil-ren bill went into effect, is sent abroad. Le mentioned the Scranton lace mills, new closed, as an illustration of the subject. His address was received with protouged cheering. R. A. Zimmerman followed with an expect, cloquent address, showing that the signs of victory everywhere tallowed that Washington, Lincoln.

AUCTION SALE

MAGNIFICENT CRIENTAL RUGS AND ARTISTIC

Having determined to retire from the Oriental Rug business, (on account of poor health), I have decided to dispose of my entire collection of Antique and Modern Turkish and Persian Rugs, Carpets, Hall Rugs, Draperies, Teakwood Cabinets and Pedestals, Antique Bronzes, Fine Bric-a-Brac, Pottery, Cloisenne, Etc. The collection of Rugs and Carpets was selected with much care for a fine retail trade and you will find hundreds of very silky antique pieces to select from, many of them rare gems of the Oriental Weavers' art.

The collection of Bric-a-Brac and other Oriental Art Goods from Japan, China and India is so large that we cannot go into detail in describing it, but a personal visit during the exhibition days will more than repay you.

A descriptive catalogue of the Rugs can be had on application at our store. Exhibition, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov.

Auction Sale will commence Thursday, Nov. 5, at 2.30 m. and 7.30 p. m. and continue each day at the same hours until the entire stock is disposed of. Seats will be reserved for ladies. By order of
