The indications at midnight pointed to 80,000 plurality for McKinley and the election of a solidly Republican legislature to congress. An enormous vote was polled. Des Moines, Nov. 3.—The heavy vote in this city is very close. Scattering returns are chiefly from rural districts, where the Republicans expected to be weakest. Indicate that the State returns for McKinley will be 75,000 plurality. Palmer and Buckner will be reached, and 100,000 seems likely to be reached. Palmer and Buckner will poll a majority of 10,000. Bryan's gains are shown in the gas belt and Vanderburg county, which gave Harrison a majority of 13, gives McKinley over 2,000.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 3.—Presidential electors, governor, state ticket, legislature and 7 congressmen were voted for today. The candidates for governor were: F. N. Morrill, (Republican); John W. Republican gains have made great gains and later returns may give the state to McKinley.

KENTUCKY.

Frankfort, Nov. 3.—Interest in today's election centered in the electoral and congressional tickets, there being no state officers to be elected. The Boy Orator Swears in His Belief While the Band Played. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—As William J. They came upon three of the outlaws as they were leading a note up a ravine and a pitched battle ensued. It was getting dark, and though over a hundred shots were fired nobody was hurt, and the outlaws escaped in the darkness abandoning mules and one horse. There is no doubt about their being the Carney gang, led by "Dynamite Dick." A large posse will give chase.

FOUND A BAG OF STOLEN MONEY.

I am not equal to a speech tonight, but I feel obliged to say what I highly prize. I have just seen a bag of money, which I would like to see the truth. "We have met the enemy and they are ours!" That is what I feel, almost more than our flag. It has been a battle on which our national honor has appeared triumphant.

A CLEAN SWEEP

night Farr's victory was assured and at 1 o'clock Alex. T. Connell was deemed safely elected in the Second district.

CHAIRMAN JENNINGS' POSITION.

In the Democratic county headquarters Jennings would concede the election of but one Republican candidate, either national or county. He admitted the success of Farr and the defeat of LaBarre in the First legislative, held Koehler's defeat by Alex. Connell in the Second legislative district as doubtful, and claimed the election of Fadden and Judge in the Fourth and Third Legislative districts, respectively.

Mr. Jennings would not admit the defeat of either Bryan or Merrifield.

That the Tribune figures are correct is an assertion based strictly upon the reliable returns.

During the evening in the Democratic camp in Music Hall the abject air and dependency of the county leaders belied their chairman's opinion. There were gathered there Mr. Merrifield, Joseph Taylor, M. J. Kelly, D. J. Reedy, John J. Gaffney, W. J. Burke, Editor Richard Beamish, of the Sunday Free Press; Editor Lynett, of the Times; F. J. Fitzsimmons, M. F. Fadden, John J. Durkin and others. In all of those indicating the Republican landslide in nation and county were read. That accounts for much of the enthusiasm of the large audience that Music Hall contained.

Up in the Central Republican club rooms in the Price building were gathered the best known of the city's Republicans. The returns were read and then recorded on large sheets, which were against the wall and in full view of those present. The cheering never lagged, and as early as 10 o'clock there did not seem to be any doubt as to the result.

MR. CONNELL SERENADED.

A crowd of several hundred persons marched to Mr. Connell's residence on Clay avenue at 1 o'clock this morning and serenaded him with music. The serenading was witnessed in the rooms of the Central Republican club rooms had run to the wall when one proposed a street parade the rooms were emptied in a jiffy. Maitte, and the audience equally as well known. All of them did not join in the impromptu parade but many of them did and the numbers were swelled by the Young Men's Club, Republicans whose rooms are in the same building.

On the way to Mr. Connell's house the serenaders did not for a moment bridge their noise and enthusiasm, but cheered their way up the hill to Mr. Connell's home which was brilliantly lighted.

Mr. Connell made his appearance on the lawn and with head uncovered waited fully three minutes for the cheering to subside, the crowd meanwhile cheering for McKinley, Connell, the flag, sound money and everything Republican. Across the roadway blazed a bonfire made of straw, which had been gathered en route from the site of a new building.

The speech was finally made though the serenaders did not for a moment bridge their noise and enthusiasm, but cheered their way up the hill to Mr. Connell's home which was brilliantly lighted.
