ELECTION RETURNS

Later Reports Considerably Change the Electoral Situation.

SEVERAL STATES IN DOUBT

California Is Claimed for McKinley While Wyoming and Washington Are Conceded to Bryan—Chairman Jones Claims the Election of the Boy Orator and Yells Fraud. The Situation in Kentucky and Tennessee.

New York, Nov. 4.—Returns today and tonight by the United Associated Presses reduces the doubtful states to two—California and North Dakota. Washington, Wyoming and Kansas and Nebraska of the states which were in doubt last night, are transferred to the Bryan column, and Delaware, Oregon and South Dakota, Indiana and Kentucky are placed in the McKinley column. The vote in Kentucky is close but advice indicate that the state is Republican by a small majority. Delaware and Oregon are also close states, but are apparently carried by McKinley.

The later news from California and North Dakota is that in the precincts so far counted McKinley leads, but the margin of votes is so small that both states should be still classed as doubtful. The latest returns indicate that the electoral vote for the states will be cast as follows:

Table with 2 columns: State and Electoral Vote. Includes Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming, Total.

FROM THE FAR WEST. Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—Bryan has carried Washington by ten thousand. California, the gubernatorial candidate, concedes his defeat. John Rogers is the successful candidate, winning by about 5,000. Linds and Jones, free silver congressional candidates, have been elected by large majorities. While returns come in slowly, they indicate the free silver forces will control the next legislature on joint ballot and name a successor to United States Senator Watson C. Squire.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—Complete returns from 1,208 out of 1,627 precincts give McKinley 120,928; Bryan 112,829.

Yankton, S. D., Nov. 4.—This state is surely Republican and will elect congressional and full state ticket. Legislature in doubt. 311 precincts give McKinley 2,500 majority and this will probably be his majority in the state.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns from 25 counties in the state, with Dixey to hear from, give McKinley 22,132; Bryan 27,402. McKinley's majority over Bryan in city of Portland is 4,871. With back counties still to hear from Populists headquarters claim there are chances for Bryan to make gains yet.

FROM OTHER WESTERN STATES. Houston, Tex., Nov. 4.—Latest estimates place Bryan's plurality in Texas over 100,000 and Culberson's, Democratic nominee for governor, 80,000. All the Democratic congressmen are elected.

Topoka, Kas., Nov. 4.—Fusion headquarters now claim Bryan electors by 19,000 state ticket by 12,000; seven out of eight congressmen; five out of six judges of the appellate court, and a majority of 26 in the legislature on joint ballot.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 4.—Eight hundred of the 1,243 precincts in the state give McKinley a majority of 2,000. Johnson, candidate for congress on the Republican ticket runs ahead of the ticket by 500, but the entire state ticket will be elected.

Indiana, Nov. 4.—The best figures obtainable by counties, many of which are complete show that the Republicans have carried the state by 18,000.

COMPLEXION OF THE LEGISLATURE

The Outcome of Election in Northampton County a Great Surprise. Vote in Full in the Philadelphia Congressional Districts—Other Notes.

Easton, Pa., Nov. 4.—The outcome of the election in Northampton county, which four years ago gave Cleveland 3,400 majority, was a complete surprise. Local issues entered to a great extent in the election. Although the county is in several instances will take the official count to decide who is elected. The Republicans swept all the county offices, with the exception of one of the three assemblymen and treasurer, the Democratic candidate, Charles H. Grooman, for the latter office, being elected by less than 100 majority. W. R. Grubb, Republican, was elected prothonotary by nearly 1,000 majority. The Republicans carried the county offices, for which position there was a strong fight.

PHILADELPHIA DISTRICT.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Following is the vote in full in the Eighth congressional district: William S. Kirkpatrick, Rep., Northampton county, 10,367; Laird Williams, Dem., 4,741; Jones, Kirkpatrick, Rep., 1,593; Barber, Dem., 2,710; Pike, Kirkpatrick, Rep., 78; Barber, Dem., 1,074; Carlson, Kirkpatrick, Rep., 4,370; Barber, Dem., 3,474; Kirkpatrick's plurality, 338. Kulp's plurality in the Seventeenth congressional district over Walsh, Dem., is 1,219.

Later returns from the interior of the Eighth congressional district show that the reported election of Barber (Dem.) to be all right, if we carry either of three states of Minnesota, Michigan or Indiana we certainly win, and our reports are favorable for them all.

Complete returns from nearly all the counties in the state, including Philadelphia and Allegheny, and close estimates for the counties from which complete figures are not obtainable, show a plurality for McKinley of 296,391.

KEYSTONE DELEGATION.

List of the Members Who Will Represent Pennsylvania in the Fifty-fifth Congress.

- Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The delegations in the Fifty-fifth congress from Pennsylvania will stand 25 Republicans and 3 Democrats. The present delegation is composed of 25 Republicans and 2 Democrats. The Democrats gain the third district in which votes to get to elect Mr. Bryan. Either Michigan or Indiana will give us these votes. Reports from each of these states show that we have probably secured the election of Mr. Bryan. Either Michigan or Indiana will give us these votes. Reports from each of these states show that we have probably secured the election of Mr. Bryan. Either Michigan or Indiana will give us these votes.

M'KINLEY'S SUPPORTERS.

The Political Affiliations of the Next National Legislature.

Canton, Nov. 4.—Joseph P. Smith, who is one of Major McKinley's closest political friends and who has been a member of the McKinley household during the campaign, has been doing some figuring on the senate. He says that from the best information at hand, it appears that the senate of the United States after March 4th next will consist of 49 sound money Republicans and 41 silver Democrats and Republicans.

MARK HANNA'S CLAIMS.

Says the Final Count Will Give McKinley 277 Votes.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 4.—This afternoon Mark Hanna said: "The McKinley returns from Tennessee, Kentucky and North Carolina make those states doubtful. I am still sure of North Carolina and probably Michigan will return the vote to Texas in the McKinley column. The final count will give McKinley no less than 277 electoral votes."

West Virginia Safe.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 4.—McKinley's plurality in West Virginia will be about 15,000. Reports coming from all sections of the state say Republicans have made big gains in some instances over the vote of 1891, when the state went 12,000 Republican for congressmen and the legislature are carried by the Republicans.

Minnesota All Right.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 4.—Returns are sufficiently complete for Minnesota this evening to indicate clearly how the state has gone. McKinley has a plurality of perhaps a little more than 30,000, having carried St. Paul by 4,400 and Minneapolis by 6,500.

Latest from California.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—The Republican papers in this city give the majority for McKinley as ranging from 6,000 to 10,000. The San Francisco Examiner (Dem.) concedes the state to McKinley by 3,000.

Indiana Conceded to McKinley.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—At ten o'clock tonight the McKinley Democracy state committee, conceded the state to McKinley by 30,000.

CUBAN CRISIS MAY BE AT HAND

The Treatment of Competitor Prisoners Causes Serious Tension.

WERE DECLARED TO BE AMERICANS

A Protest Entered by General Lee. Says He May Return to Cuba on a War Ship—Diplomatic Correspondence Upon the Subject.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 4.—Cuban leaders here and in Key West declare that they have reliable information that the prisoners of the United States and Spain have reached a crisis, and that developments of great international importance in regard to Cuba may be expected within the next month.

Advice here from Havana are to the effect that the departure of Consul General Lee for Washington was caused by this crisis, and that his report to President Cleveland will be of a character that it will almost certainly result in action being taken by the United States.

It is understood that the cases of the competitor prisoners was the immediate cause of the departure of General Lee.

The Spanish authorities have been disposed to proceed in a high-handed way in regard to these prisoners and without regard to treaty rights.

After the court at Madrid set aside the sentence of death imposed on these prisoners by the first court martial it was understood that they would be given a civil trial.

Instead of this, however, Captain Latorre, the American correspondent Melton, and the other competitor prisoners were recently summoned before a military court at Havana and required to file written declarations as preliminaries to a new court martial. The prisoners, however, refused to make any statement save in the presence of General Lee.

PROTEST ENTERED BY GEN. LEE. General Lee had not been advised by Captain General Weyler that the prisoners would be retired, but as soon as the consul learned unofficially what was going on, he at once telegraphed to the military and not for civil consideration, he sent an energetic note to Captain General Weyler, protesting against the refusal to accept the prisoners with treaty stipulations and entering exceptions to the proceedings as inaugurated.

Captain General Weyler avoided making any direct response, pleading lack of authority to treat on diplomatic matters, and questioning General Lee's right to discuss matters which had been the custom to submit to Madrid for settlement by the American minister and the Spanish foreign office.

General Lee then sent Captain General Weyler a second note, more energetic than the first, in which he reiterated his previous objections, and in addition strongly hinted that the irregular proceeding, if not remedied, would prevent the United States from recognizing in any way the validity of the new trial.

Captain General Weyler did not answer this note, but shortly afterward the court martial proceedings which had been instituted in the Cuban fortress were suspended.

Captain General Weyler then requested General Lee to furnish proof that Melton and the other competitor prisoners were American citizens. Before replying General Lee cabled to Secretary Olney.

DECLARED TO BE AMERICANS. As soon as Secretary Olney answered General Lee's second note, Captain General Weyler stating that the prisoners, having been captured at sea on board of a vessel flying the American flag, he must consider them all under American protection, even in the absence of specific individual certificates, and no arms having been found in their possession, all were equally entitled to civil trial.

Again and again Captain General Weyler requested General Lee to furnish proof that the prisoners were American citizens, and as often the consul replied: "They were all captured under the American flag, and they are all under the protection of that flag."

Captain General Weyler then proposed to allow the correspondent, Melton, to go free, but to punish the others.

General Lee again replied that he could make no distinction, as the American flag was over them all.

In the meanwhile General Lee and Secretary Olney were in constant cable correspondence about the matter, and the consul general was finally ordered to Washington.

For diplomatic reasons Consul General Lee would probably deny it, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that he said to an intimate friend before leaving for the United States: "It would not surprise me if I should return to Havana on a war ship."

The Cuban leaders here are jubilant, as they say that the result will be either intervention by the United States or an ignominious back down on the part of Spain which would destroy what little prestige she has left.

Nebraska for Bryan. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—A monster Bryan parade is passing through the city headed by hands. Much enthusiasm prevails. Democratic claim Bryan's election.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—Official returns tonight show that the McKinley-Lancaster and Douglas, the heavy Republican strongholds, received up to 8 p. m., give Bryan 28,856; McKinley, 26,525; Holcomb, fusion for governor, 27,138; Malcol, Rep., 23,962.

Americans in Paris Celebrate. Paris, Nov. 4.—There is general jubilation in the American colony over the election of McKinley, and Bryanites virtually have no existence in the city. Bankers, exporters and insurance men are especially grateful. Hon. J. D. Curtis, United States minister, has just telegraphed an expression of opinion regarding the result of the election.

Business Revives. London, Nov. 4.—The election of McKinley has given a great impetus to trade in the wool and clothing districts of Bradford and Yorkshire. American dealers cabled large orders today and the prices of raw and manufactured materials are advancing.

The Herald's Weather Forecast. New York, Nov. 4.—In the Middle states today, cloudy, slightly colder weather will prevail with occasional rain which may become heavy. In the West, brisk southeasterly and easterly winds, becoming higher on the coast. On Friday, cloudy to partly cloudy weather will prevail with rain, lower temperature and fresh, brisk southeasterly force on the coast.
