On page 6 appears the only compilation of figures that has been made from the complete official election returns of Lackawanna county. It was made from the open returns filed in the office of the prothonotary, includes every district in the county and will he found to tally very closely with the offical count that will begin today. No newspaper other than The Triune, has presented these figures. The pluralities of McKinley, Connell, for congress, and all the Republian state and county ticket are much greater than was hoped for by the most sanguine of party leaders. The result is all the more gratifying to them as the total number of votes cast was about 4,000 more than the largest poll ever recorded in Lackawanna county. For McKinley and Bryan, respectively, 18,391 and 11,628 votes were cast, mak ing 6,663 plurality for McKinley. Connell received within 43 as many votes as the presidential candidate and the greatest plurality, 7,603, of any candidate. For him 18,348 votes are recorded, and for Merrifield 19,745. In 1894, the Scranton-Merrifield vote was 14,104 against 12,027, a plurality of 2,077 for the former. That was the largest poll in the county up to the present time. Mr. Coanell's plurality exceeds by 3,526 that of Mr. Scranton over Mr. Merrifield.

VOTE FOR COMMISSIONERS. The two Republican candidates for county commissioners, Giles and S. W. Roberts, receive pluralities a little Demuth defeats Burke for the minority commissionership (Democratic), by the very small margin of 137 votes. In the vote for auditors, Keifer and Ward received the smallest pluralities on the ticket, Keifer has 323 more votes than his colleague, Costello (Democrat) defeats O'Royle for the minority auditorship by small but safe purality of 341. While the vote for congressman-at large has not been added, enough fig-ures have been added to indicate that Grow receives nearly as many votes

Grow receives nearly as many votes as McKinley and leads Davenport by several hundred.

The yote for county officers has brought to the party leaders a great deal of satisfaction for something lesides the election of the candidates. It

MORTGAGE TO BE BURNED.

St. John's Society of Pine Brook Will

Celebrate the Occasion. Next Wednesday night St. John's so-clety, of Pine Brook, will have a cele-bration which the members of the society have been looking forward to for some time with great pleasure. It is the burning of a mortgage of $1.500 that has been standing against the society's property on Capouse avenue.

Tomorrow the debt will be wiped out and on Wednesday evening the formal act of destroying the mortgage will take place in the presence of the members of the society and invited friends. The principal address of the evening will be delivered by Rev. P. J. Me-Manus, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic church, of Green Ridge.

WAS A LUCKY ESCAPE.

Street Car and Bus Come Together on Lackawanna Avenue.

There was a collision between a street car and a Union Transfer bus, loaded with passengers, at the intersection of Lackawanna and Washington avenue at 5 o'clock p. m. yesterday, which, but for the fortunate circumstance that the car was first starting up, might have then attended with severe results.

The driver of the bus pulled in behind an outgoing Dunmore car with the intention of turning into Washington avenue. The outgoing car prevented him from seeing the incoming No. 6 branch car, which was just starting up after stopping above the crossing, and the motorman of the latter car for the same reason could not see the bus. The consequence was that the branch car ran plumb into the bus. Horses, harness and fender got pretty badly tangled up and the occupants of the bus received a severe shaking, but luckily there was no one injured or any damage done. After cursing one an-other roundly for a few minutes, the motorman and driver untangled things and started on their respective ways, each threatening to see the other later.

He believes that a job of such propertions and importance is too much for one officer of the city to take and will suggest that a committee of councils be appointed to advise him in the metter.
It is the responsibility rather than the work that Mr. Torrey is not anxious to assume.

The rugged, honest and manly character of O Brien is one peculiarly suited to the capabilities of Mr. Sully and he makes it a most interesting study. His method is very natural and in his characterization of O Brien lacks some of the evenness and subtility that a more finished actor might impart, it s thoroughly enjoyable. Mr. Sully was supported last night by a good company and the performwas received with much favor by the audience.

United States Senator M. S. Quay One of the First to Tender His Congratulations by Telegraph -- Message from Lewis E. Beitler, Governor Hastings' Private Secretary. Many Called to Extend Their Con-

William Connell's tremendous vote for congress was yesterday one of the most talked of features of the previous day's election. It was more than an evidence of the sprend of Republicanism in Lackawanna county, it was a testi-monial to the esteem in which Mr. Con-nell is held by his fellow citizens and was so interpreted by Democrats and Republicans.

During the day Mr. Conneil was sought out by men of all kinds of political belief and warmly congratulated on his notable victory.

Early Wednesday morning before the work of congriting the years com-work of counting the vote was com-pleted he was serenaded at the home of J. S. McAnulty, where he is stopping temporarily, while repairs are being made on his own residence, and a few hours later before the sun was up a delegation of his enthusiastic West Side supporters marched over to Clay avenue and Vine street, planted an American flag on the porch of the Me-

American flag on the porch of the Mc-Anulty residence and cheered lustily for Mr. Connell who had retired only a short time before.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Connell reached his office in the Third National Bank building and there found a large crowd waiting to express their pleasure at his election. Several letters and tele-grams of congratulations had also ar-rived before that hour. One of the first rived before that hour. One of the first telegrams received was from United States Senator M. S.
