

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Wal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

CARBONDALE.

[Readers will please note that advertisement orders for job work and items for publication left at the establishment of Shannon & Co., new dealers, North Main street, will receive prompt attention; office open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.]

ELECTION DAY NEWS.

Great Enthusiasm at the Republican Headquarters.

A great crowd assembled at Assembly hall and there was lively enthusiasm. J. P. Reynolds, representative-elect, was also present. A committee from the Lackawanna club sought out Mr. Reynolds, and in response to congratulations he made a short speech which was received with great applause. The hotels and club rooms were crowded.

At 1 o'clock the locomotive whistles in the railroad yard, and the guns at the Fort Leck and Fort Mifflin, added to the tumult. It was not until two o'clock that the weary multitude had left the streets.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

Business and Literary Meeting of the Epworth League Last Evening.

The monthly business meeting of the Epworth League of the Methodist church was held last evening. The subject was "An Evening in Cuba," and the following program was carried out: Quartette, Miss Brown, Mrs. Hobbs, Messrs. Hobbs and Dix. Essay, "Early History and Settlement," O. Feltz. Piano solo, Miss Alice Loftis. Essay, "Manners and Customs of People and Products," N. L. Smith. Piano solo, Miss Alice Loftis. Essay, "Her Struggle for Liberty," Recitation, "This Flag is Good Enough for Me," Master Ross Meyers.

WEDDING AT ST. ROSE.

Thomas Casey and Alice Loftis Are United in Marriage.

St. Rose church was well filled with guests yesterday afternoon who came to witness the marriage of Thomas Casey and Miss Alice Loftis. The bride was accompanied by Miss Maggie McLean and Edward Haley stood as the groom's best man. The young people are well known to a large circle of friends and are very popular among a large number of acquaintances. A host of friends extend congratulations. The newly married pair will begin housekeeping in their home on Gordon avenue.

Railroad Men Rejoice.

Great enthusiasm has been manifested by the railroad men and the engines and trains have received patriotic decorations. The Graviton passenger train left this morning for Honesdale handsomely decorated. E. Smith and J. Gallagher with engine 55, E. Williams and Stephen Holgate with engine 12, S. Langfelter and Lyman Rhel, of engine 51, have banners and flags to express their enthusiasm.

Struck By an Engine.

About 7 o'clock yesterday morning Michael Healy while passing through the Delaware and Hudson yard was struck by an engine. He was immediately removed to the hospital, where it appeared that his back was badly injured. There is hope of his recovery, though the accident may prove fatal. Mr. Healy is about 60 years of age and a well known resident of the city.

Death in the Mines.

Yesterday morning about 8 o'clock, there was a sudden fall of coal in the Wilson Creek mine, and John White was instantly killed. He left home a short time before 6 o'clock. When the accident occurred they found him deep asleep in his bed.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Yesterday the train of cars on the Graviton road, of which Edward Hubbard is conductor, was decorated on the outside with one hundred and eighty yards of bunting and new streamers and the exterior with pictures of McKinley and Hobart.

Mrs. P. J. Korins has returned to her home in Princeton after a visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. J. J. Loughney, who has been visiting Mrs. James McHale in this city, has returned to her home in Ayer.

Miss Mary McAndrew, of Archbald, is visiting Miss Mary McAndrew in this city.

A masquerade ball was held in Watt's hall Tuesday evening by Edward Peters' business class.

Classes in elocution and physical culture will be formed tomorrow afternoon at Wood's Business college.

The Mozart's orchestra gave a promenade concert in Burke's hall last evening.

Hon. Lamm, of this city, has leased a store room in North Main street and will open a clothing and gent's furnishing store there in a short time.

Mrs. C. D. Arnold, of Wilkes-Barre, who has been visiting friends in this city, has returned home.

Dr. J. A. Kelly received a telegram Tuesday morning announcing the serious illness of his mother in Pitten.

was cut, but the injuries are not serious.

Mrs. G. W. Dove, of Port Jervis, N. Y., is visiting her husband at Hotel Anthracite.

Stockholders of the Pendleton Manufacturing company will meet at Assembly hall tomorrow night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. A. Tingley have been visiting friends in Susquehanna county.

FOREST CITY.

Election day passed off very quietly in this borough. There was no excitement during the day in either of the wards. The result of the election is as follows: First ward, McKinley, 129 votes; Bryan, 90; Prohibitionists, 7; Free Silver, 7; McKinley Citizens, 4; Jeffersonians, 1. Second ward, McKinley, 177; Bryan, 88; Prohibitionists, 20; Nationalists, 2; Free Silver, 8; McKinley Citizens, 4; and Jeffersonians, 1. The above is the largest vote ever polled in the borough of Forest City. It is estimated that more than fifty citizens did not vote at all. The Hill-side coal office was the headquarters for receiving the returns. They were given over the telephone as they appeared on the Tribune bulletin board and were received by local politicians amid much excitement. When the result of the election in general had been made known cannons were fired and whistles were blown for a considerable time during the early part of the morning.

E. F. Maxey spent the past few days as the guest of his parents, Mr. Maxey is a student in a college of pharmacy in New York city. He was injured in the mines about eighteen months ago, died on Saturday at his home in the Warren track. The funeral was held on Monday. The remains were interred in St. Agnes' Catholic cemetery. Druggist Alfred Davis and Clothier Jack Alexander went to Scranton Tuesday night and witnessed the election scenes in that city.

Bert W. Blakeslee, a student of the University of Pennsylvania, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blakeslee. A rising Republican demonstration is now in order. Saturday night will probably be selected for the event.

PECKVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chapman and the Rev. S. C. Simkins and wife visited their sons at Kingston seminary last Tuesday.

Readey Bohner and family moved from Monks Mountain to the vacant house of Mrs. Lloyd, on Hickory street. Mr. and Mrs. William Kestell were callers at Scranton yesterday.

Joseph, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, who has been dangerously ill for the past week, is somewhat better.

Abraham Griner, a runner on the Delaware and Hudson gravity road, was dangerously hurt last Tuesday morning, about 6.30, by being knocked under a locomotive. He was taken to the hospital and is now in a critical condition. He was dragged a distance of sixty feet before the train could be brought to a standstill. His right hand is badly crushed, left hip and collar-bone broken and injured internally other ways.

Alonso Richards is erecting a new house on Hickory street. The Methodist Episcopal Ladies' Aid society held their annual election yesterday afternoon, and the following will compose the officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. William Johnson; first vice-president, Mrs. P. Shedd; second vice-president, Mrs. Edward Barber; third vice-president, Mrs. S. M. Rogers; fourth vice-president, Mrs. W. W. Peters; fifth vice-president, Mrs. Mason Pickering; sixth vice-president, Mrs. Henry Chapman; recording secretary, Mrs. G. A. Megargel; assistant, Mrs. Jennie Proar; financial secretary, Mrs. George Treverton; assistant, Mrs. Taylor; treasurer, Mrs. Frank L. Taylor.

NICHOLSON.

Election here Tuesday was attended with a good deal of interest. Republicans made large gains, both in the township and borough. The borough gave McKinley about two-thirds of all the votes cast, and the township turned over a new leaf and went Republican by a small majority. Wyoming county gave McKinley about 500 plurality.

Our people are all happy today. Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

TAYLOR.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

MONTROSE.

Mrs. Eliza Smith and Miss M. Elia Smith are visiting relatives at Elk Lake.

The Montrose Gun club meets every Friday afternoon for practice. The members are becoming very expert in breaking the blue birds.

John Elmer, who has been so long with E. P. Pope in the United States Express office, has accepted a position at Orange, N. J.

James D. Smith and family, who have been spending the summer here, returned to their winter home in New York yesterday.

Wirt Conklin is home from Philadelphia for a few days.

Mr. Morgan and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate.

Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street, is confined to her home with sickness.

Forget to attend the fair and festival of the Catholic Baptist church on November 25th to 28th. It will be one of the finest ever held in this town.

Mrs. James Powell, of North Main street, has been confined to her home for the past two months with illness, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. O. H. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bennett in Wetherly, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams is fifth her son, E. J. Williams, in Binghamton, N. Y., where she expects to remain until Thanksgiving.

George F. Sprague, jeweler, has closed his place of business here and removed his goods, and will be engaged for some time in building his summer boarding house at Lake Nicholson.

L. P. Thomas, of Scranton, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Morgans and children, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, of North Main street, yesterday.

Election in the borough passed very quietly Tuesday. On account of the fair weather and all the different works being late, an unusually large vote was polled.

The funeral services of Ethel, the 10-months child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gammon, will be held at the home of her parents at 3 o'clock