THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE ... FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6, 1896.

CARBONDALE.

Readers will please note that advertise-ments, orders for job work, and items for publication left at the establishment of Saannon & Co., newsdealers, North Main street, will receive prompt attention; of-sice open from § a. m. to 10 p. m.]

FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

Social Gathering of the Ladies Foreign Missionary Society.

The Ladies' Foreign Missionary so ciety of the Methodist church were ciety of the Methodist church were entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. T. R. Evans. An interesting order of exercises had been arranged. Selections were read by Mrs. H. B. Jadwin and Miss Pascoe. Then Miss Sadie Miller rendered a vocal solo. Af-ter this programme was finished, re-freshments were served by the hos-tion.

The occasion was much enjoyed as being more of a social and entertain-ing character than the meetings which have been heretofore held in the church.

PAVING WORK STOPPED.

Belmont Street Residents Now Look Upon a Sea of Mud.

The rain has deluged the important work of paving Belmont street. The dwellers upon that thoroughfare look out upon a sea of mud. A great deal of excavating and ploughing has been necessary and this makes the condi-tion form pleasant to those who from pleasant to those who pass that way.

There will only be a short delay until the weather is more favorable.

NICE HOME FOR THE PRISONERS.

Needed Improvements in the City

Station House.

The old jail apartments have been improved and put in order in accordance with perfect sanitary conditions. The floor has been concreted and two windows added on the north side of the building so that needed light will be

It is now possible to heat the cells, as two radiators have been placed in the men's compartment. This improve-ment was much needed.

Saturday Church Sale.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian The ladies of the First Pressylering church are anxious to raise money for needed church purposes, and for this purpose will have on sale in the Palace creamery every Saturday afternoon and evening various articles to assist housekeepers in furnishing their Sun-day dinners.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Miss Mary Alice Horan is seriously ill at her home on the South Side. Albert Crane and Russell Jones spent Wednesday evening in Scranton. Mrs. John Malze received news yes-terday morning announcing the ser-ious illness of her sister, Mrs. B. I. Russell, of Waterbury, Con. Miss Maude Wheeler, of Chestnut avenue, entertained her Sunday school class at her home Wednesday even-

Mrs. N. Peters, of Wayne street, who

Mrs. N. Peters, of Wayne street, who was recently operated upon for, cancer, is doing very well. Miss Julia Horan, of Hyde Park, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Horan, on Gordan &venue. Mr. and Mrs. James Earrett have re-turned from their wedding trip, and for the present will board at the home of T. E. McAvoy on Lincoln avenue. Mrs. William D. Jones, of Washing-ton street, is entertaining Mrs. Mary

Mrs. William D. Jones, of Washing-ton street, is entertaining Mrs. Mary Lumbach, of Freeland, Luzerne coun-ty, and/Mr. Davis, of Hyde Park. Mrs. J. J. Cummings, of Olyphant, was a visitor at the home of Miss Mary B. Eurke, on Main street. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Connor, of Gordon avenue, is ill with diphtheria.

slung across my back, and it was but the work of a moment to unsling the sun and fire at he bird, which appeared to be directly above me. The shot was a clear miss, and not caring to waste inde on, when I was startled to hear what I took to be the dull 'chung' of a stone thrown by an unseen hand, which fell into a little gully partly filled with leaves, within twenty feet of me. Tooked carefully about me in all directions, but could see no sign of a human being, and then dismounted and, scraping back the leaves, was as-tonished to find a piece of ice as harge as a goose egg, and about the same shape. Upon close examination, I was have speculated a great deal over this half firmly inbedded in its center. have speculated a great deal over this in passing through the cloud gathered the moisture and held it by its whirling er altitude and fell to the earth as T motion, so that it was frozen at a high-er altitude and fell to the earth as I have described."

NERO AND HIS FIDDLE.

An Unsuccessful Effort to Gloss Over a Great Historical Crime.

From the Washington Post. One of the later phases of modern

One of the later phases of modern civilization is a generous effort to vin-dicate the so-called "monsters of in-iquity" of ancient times. More than one accomplished lawyer has volun-teered a defense of Judas Iscarlot. They contend that he was not hanker-ing after the thirty pieces of silver, that he had no treasonable intent to-ward the Master, but in the most loyal and loving spirit aimed to furnish Him an opportunity to display his divine to the wretched quarters where the Roman populace abode in squalor. The 'sky-scrapers' of New York and Chi-cago are less tail than the long rows of tenements on narrow and crooked treatenets were crammed from cellar to attice with human beings, and that the buildings would frequently topple over, immates and all, Nero, we are assured, desired to change all this. He planned and managed the burning with such consumate skill that, in a confagaration greater than Chicego's, not a life was lost. When the fire had done its work Nero laid down his fiddie aid the bow long enough to order 'the architects to erect no hasty and irro-gular buildings, but to open public squares instead of the fithy quarters, and to limit the height to double the width of the street." With every inclination to do jus-tice to the memory of Nero, whose de-width of the street." With every inclination to do jus-tice to the memory of Nero, whose de-width of the street." With every inclination to do jus-structed plea in his behalf. Had the life of the famous fiddler been blameless in other respects, had his record come down through ages unsulided by other rerimes, we might acquit him of evil in the ton the definition of evil the achievement is without a parallel to a political convention, he made soldlers. No one who withressed the proceedings of the Chicago convention the delegates feel that they were drilled soldlers. No one who withressed the 206 together for six days and caused to day, cool, screne, intrepid, magnifi-ter day, cool, screne, interpid, magnifi-the fames rolled on. The grenerous hope of a reversal of the odd verdict. people of these progressive days will leader. regret their inability to accept Nero, sign o but his case is too bad to admit of any mous mous speech. $t was delivered to the shouting, howling, crazy mob of 20,000 hope of a reversal of the old verdict. people with the calm force of a man sublimely confident of his cause. It was one of those rare examples of the power of oratory under the most in-

<text>

Acadmy of Music. But it is doubtral whether any, even with all the acces-sories of costume and scenery, ever captivated an audience as he did dur-ing the two hours in which he deliv-ered a speech of rare force, with an eloquence manly, luminous and grace-ful. It is not often that an actor caus-es the English languages to fall on the can with such much as Conding's

The condition of the properties of growth and solid it would be from training undim authority to a display his divine that the most of an accussive the stage to go through the subjector should be that solid the stage to go through the should be prevented into a subject that the distinguishes and careful the single accound the strengt of a man master among men.
As he left the stage to go through the should be search in the provide state that the most needed and the stage to go through the head after sense of home to white wash Nero, will be even less under the single of a great progression to transform Judan of the single of a great progress to wand solid the streat domains and trains, the distinguishes to the should be sense of a mage and the sense of a great progression to transform Judan of the should be sense of the odd spanish grandees in the should be remembered as the stage to go a great progression to transform Judan of the single cound its with the should be remembered as the shead and the should be should be remembe

Pittsburg, Nov. 5.-The general board f church extension of the Methodist Episcopal church met in Pittsburg to-day. The work of this board is one of the most important and effective in the machinery of the church, having for CASTORIA For Infants and Children. Chart Flitchers int

DR. GREEN'S ELECTRO-THERAPEUTIC INSTITUTE

No Gripe When you take Hood's Pills. The big old-fasisioned, sugar-coated pills, which tear you all to its object the erection of church build-ings and ald to struggling congrega-tions. Since its organization 31 years ago the board has assisted in building ten thousand churches. Business sessions of the board will occupy the time today and tomorrow. Friday evening the thirty-firgt anni-versary of the founding of the board will be celebrated. Monday the gen-eral committee on freeman's aid and eral committee on freeman's aid and southern education will meet and con-tinue in session two days.

TAILORING.

We Are Still at It.

for these reasons :

We cut, fit and make all our plication at our store. own goods right here in Exhibition, Mon Scranton, and we are the only 2, people making garments at Pants from $3.00 up.

AUCTION SALE MAGNIFICENT ORIENTAL RUGS AND ARTISTIC POTTERY.

Having determined to retire from the Oriental Rug business, (on account of poor health), I have decided to dispose of my entire collection of Antique and Modern Turkish e Are Still at It. Making suits at prices the Pottery, Cloisenne, Etc. The collection of Rugs and Carpeople of Scranton never pets was selected with much care for a fine retail trade and heard of before. Our trade you will find hundreds of very silky antique pieces to select increases from week to week from, many of them rare gems of the Oriental Weavers' art.

The collection of Bric-a-Brac and other Oriental Art We sell cheaper. Our fits, Goods from Japan, China and India is so large that we in even the cheapest suits, cannot go into detail in describing it, but a personal visit are not surpassed in Scranton during the exhibition days will more than repay you.

A descriptive catalogue of the Rugs can be had on ap-

Exhibition, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 3 and 4.

Auction Sale will commence Thursday, Nov. 5, at 2.30 any where near our prices p. m. and 7.30 p. m. and continue each day at the same that do this. p. m. and 7.30 p. m. and continue each day at the same hours until the entire stock is disposed of. Seats will be reserved for ladies. By order of

R. W. WESTCOTT, JR., Importer of Oriental Goods, 500 AND 502 LACKAWANN AVENUE, COR. WASHINGTON.

KERR'S Established 1873

Our Bargains for this week are great in Carpets, Rugs, Draperies, Upholstery Goods, Window Shades, Easels, Screens, Linoleums, Oil Cloths, Mattings, Carpet Sweepers, Etc.

Largest Stock. Finest Assortment. We Invite Inspection, We Urge Comparison. Read all of the bargains advertised, then come to our establishment and you will find everything here, quality for quality.

OF SCRANTON.

NATIONAL BANK

But after all, the most remarkable at any price.

THE

MOOSIC POWDER CO.,

BOOMS I AND 2, COM'LTH B'L'D'G.

SCRANTON, PA.

MINING AND BLASTING

MADE AT MOOSIC AND RUSH-DALE WORKS.

LAFLIN & RAND POWDER CO'S

ORANGE GUN POWDER

Electric Patteries, Electric Exploders, for ex ploding blasts, Safety Fuse, and Repauno Chemical Co.'s Explosives.

ELECTRICITY IS KING.

607, 608 AND 609 MEARS BUILDING

Corner Washington Avenue and Spruce Streel, Scranton, Penna.

OWDER

Sults from $14.00 to $10.00

W. J. DAVIS, 218 Wyoming Ave. Arcade Building.

Miss Ida Taylor, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents in this city. The Chrysanthemum club enter-tained their young lady friends at the tained their young hay friends at the home of George and Irving Avery, of Garfield avenue, last evening. George Merritt, of Mill street, and May Johnson, of Seventh avenue, were married at noon Wednesday, by Rev. William Edgar, at the Methodist par-

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Writer, of South Church street, are entertaining the lat-ter's sister, Mrs. C. L. Campbell, of Easter

Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wyllie and daughter, Lizzie, are visiting in New York city. The social of the P. W. Nally club, which will be held in Burke's hall. Thanksgiving evening, promises to be the event of the season. The proceeds, will go to swell the fund for the relief of the released Irish political prisoners. Benjamin Franklin Spangenburg, who has been sick at the hospital in this city for the past month, died Wed-nesday evening. Miss Millicent Brown, of Hones-dala and Millicent Brown, of Hones-

Miss Millicent Brown, of Hones-dale, and brother, Fred. of Bingham-ton, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Ar-thur Howell, of Seventh avenue. Frederick Hamenstun has accepted a position in the general store of W. R. Moon, Belmont street. Mr, and Mrs. Robert Bryson, former-ly of this city, but who have been re-siding in Pittston for some months, have returned to this city. Mrs. Foster, mother of Photographer Foster, is seriously ill. William E. Watt was a visitor in Wikes-Barre this week. Mr, and Mrs. John Boylen returned from their wedding trip Wednesday evening and have gone to housekeep-ing in their newly furnished home on Pike street. Miss Gertrude Raynor will entertain

Miss Gertrude Raynor will entertain the members of the Young Ladles' Cooking club Saturday evening.

BULLET IN A HAILSTONE.

The Missle Was Fired Into Space and Came Down Encased in Ice.

From the Chicago Chronicle.

From the Chicago Chronicie. Colonel Clark R. Westcott, of London, England, who has been spending a couple of months in Chicago and the west. In the interest of a syndicate which owns considerable mining prop-erty in this country, is responsible for the following account of a singular nat-ural phenomenon. His story is as fol-lows: "One bot day a couple of weeks since

"One hot day a couple of weeks since I was riding along a mountain road in Colorado on my way to a mine in which I am interested, when I noticed high above me, soaring in majestic circle, an eagle. I had a 45-90 Winchester

CARPETS FOR FALL TRADE

All the latest, from a 20c. In-grain to the best Wilton. Oil Cloths and Linoleums, all all widths and prices. Window Shades and Curtains, all the latest novelties. Fancy Rocking Chairs, uphol-stered in plush, tapestry and broc-atelle. Also a fine collection of cobbler coats and our price al cobbler seats, and our price al-ways the lowest.

HALLSTEAD.

Charles Herkimer is ill. The Baptist Young Peoples Society Christian Endeavor, will hold a social at the home of C. A. Bogart on Main street this Friday evening. Mrs. William McLoud was in Bing-hamton on Wednesday. Miss Mattle Millard has returned home after a two weeks visit with friends in Scranton. spiring and yet, at the same time, try-ing, conditions that an orator could have, and no convention since that time has witnessed anything like it, with the single exception of Bourke Cock-ran's superb cloquence in the Chicago convention of '92 at 2 o'clock in the morning. if Conkling had been tempted to look friends in Scranton.

aut for himself, he might in the final brenk-up have come out where Garfield Warren Preston spent part of Sunday in New Milford. did. But no suggestion of that kind

THE FOUR WINDS. The wind o' the West I love the best; The wind o' the East I love the least.

The wind o' the South Has sweet in its mouth! The wind o' the North Sends great storms forth. Taken together, all sorts of weather, The four oil fellows are su a to bring Hurry and Jurry, rush and scurry. Sighing and dying, and flitting and fly-ling Through summer and autumn, and win-ter and spring. --Margaret E. Sangster.

Fanny Rice will be seen in "By Order of the King," an opera by the authors of "Erminie."

DAVI

307

$1.00 Misses' School Shoes for 59c. 75c. Child's Shoes for 50c. 1,000 Pair of Babies' Shoes for 15c. Men's $2.00 Shoes for $1.29. Men's $1.50 Shoes for 98c.

Boys' School Shoes for 75 Cents.

The above are only a few of our great bargains. You can always depend upon getting the best shoes for the lowest money in our store. We are cutting prices all the time and selling goods lower than any other house in Scranton.

LACKAWANNA AVE.

Corner Washington Avenue and Spruce Street, Scranton, Penna.
The late ROBERT BARTHOLOW PROT FESOR of MATERIA MEDICA, GEN, of JEFFERSON MEDICAL COLLEGE of philadelphia, said in his last work of medical electricity. "The time is not far of the sector of this science in the moving of ears lighting of streets and houses and for general motive power." It was in far of ears. Used in the nerves by experiments of an application of the nerves by experiments of diverses.
The TR ET HOROUGHLY UNDER. Store and an application of electricity to the as prescriber of medical the work of the sector of the sector is a graduate in the moving of an application of electricity to the motion of the nerves by experiments for divense.
The TR ET HOROUGHLY UNDER. Store and an application of electricity to the sector of t

3% Interest Allowed on Interest Deposits. un de la compañía de Watch Us Institute. MONDAY

Big

Bedroom

Suit

Bargains.

Did You See Our 3-Room Outfit for $87.50.

4

DOLLARS ROLL

Your way-if you invest in the "ECONO-MY'S" Clothing.

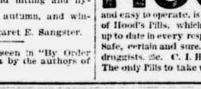

MEN'S SUITS

$10.98

You're not obliged to pay the amount of your purchase at once-a little at the time will suit us. wear your clothing in the meanwhile.

opp. Main Entrance 408 LACKAWANNA AVENUE. THIRD