WORK OF THE STORM.

J. E. Burr's Residence Struck By Lightning—Windows Broken.

The terrible storm which burst over the city on Wednesday evening, came so suddenly that few realized it, until the crash of thunder was heard, and the vivid flashes of lightning startled them. Mr. J. E. Burr and his family were suddenly aroused, while quietly seated in their home by the crashing of the chimney falling upon the roof. The house which was built twenty years ago, was in a state of darkness, and it was evident that the bolt of fire had fallen. About half of the masonry chimney on the east side of Mr. Burr's house was demolished, and many of the bricks were hurled across the street upon the adjacent grounds. Some of them struck the residence of E. D. Lawrence, across the street, breaking two large window panes. Beside the demolition of the chimney a large hole in the roof shows the penetrating power of the bolt. The electric wires and telephone wires were also disarranged. The electric lights in the residences around went out, and some alarm bells were set off, but the fire companies were not required.

Among other matters of interest the company voted to accept an invitation to parade with the William Walker hose company of Mayfield.

CLARK'S GREEN.

We now rejoice and congratulate our officers-elect, from highest to lowest. South Abington to the front, having an enrollment of three hundred and seventy-seven. To this aid, thirty-seven more which were added on the day of election, gives us a total of four hundred and fourteen voters. Of this number three hundred and forty-six cast their votes on Tuesday according to dictates of their own conscience, the largest ever cast. Among the number were the following citizens: George A. Davis, the oldest voter of the township, at the age of eighty-six; Almeron Covey, at 81; and not but least a confirmed invalid called upon friends to carry him to the polls that he might vote for McKinley. J. P. Slinger, aged 80 years. Mr. Cameron, of Glanville, has now taken up his residence in Mr. Silas White's home here.

WHITNEY'S WEEKLY BUDGET OF NEWS

Susquehanna Infested With a Gang of Illiterate & White Caps.

NOTE OF WARNING TO REV. COCHRANE

Threats of Poisoning Are Made. Excitement at Onaquaga—A Few Election Choices—News Concerning the Railroads—Congratulations to Mr. Connell—Personal and Other Notes.

Special to The Tribune.

Susquehanna, Nov. 6.—Susquehanna or Oakland undoubtedly contains several persons who should quickly feel the strong arm of the law. A few weeks ago a farm, situated on the Oakland side and belonging to Frank Andrews, was fired by an incendiary and consumed, together with the contents, including four horses and a cow. On Monday morning W. H. Cochran, pastor of the Oakland Methodist Episcopal church, through the postoffice received an anonymous letter, of which the following is a verbatim copy: "Rev. Mr. Cochran, take notice, this is to notify you to get out of that house as soon as possible as it is marked one. The intention now is that we will fire some time this next moon and as we don't want to do you any harm we notify you to move out. Vengeance, our motto."

FOREST CITY.

An alarm of fire was sounded at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The both fire companies quickly responded and were soon dashing up and down the streets excited to locate the threat. This they failed to do and consequently repaired to their respective compartments. In the meantime the fire which was kindled in the rooms of H. E. Taylor, on South Main street, was being fought by the neighbors in that vicinity. From the information given it seems that the fire had exploded in the dining room and the burning oil had spread around the rooms considerably, which for a few moments caused quite a blaze. When the oil had burned out the furnishings were left smoldering and were easily extinguished. There was no visible blaze remaining in the locality, therefore the firemen were somewhat at sea in their efforts to locate the fire. The household furnishings were completely ruined and the loss to Mr. Taylor will be quite heavy. On Monday afternoon the foreign speaking population held a sound money demonstration at the head of the procession there was carried by one of the men an United States flag, which was the property of a local secret society. It seems that some of the members of that society were silver men while others were for the money system which we shall still continue to discuss (according to Tuesday's election returns). When the parade was in progress and the men in line were keeping step to the music furnished by the band, a member of the society opposed to their political views rushed into the street and demanded the flag. A number of his associates followed, and a while there was quite a confusion. The police appeared on the scene and in a few moments the parade was continued and the flag returned. About 200 or 300 men had congregated together during the trouble and the excitement was so great that a riot was feared. The police finally succeeded in putting a stop to the trouble and the parade was allowed to pass them on the return trip unmolested. On Thursday warrants were issued for nine of the men who were arrested and taken before Justice of the Peace W. J. Maxey. They entered bail in the sum of $200 each to appear at the next term of court.

This evening the Republicans will celebrate. A parade will be held and a joyous enthusiastic time is assured. It is the request of those who have charge of the event that all who can possibly attend should do so in order to make it a good, roaring, patriotic demonstration. The Mendelssohn Glee club, under the direction of Prof. J. L. Morgan, will render an excellent programme on Saturday evening, the 14th inst., at the Davis' Opera house. The club will be assisted by Professor G. Markis Evans, of Wilkes-Barre, the noted composer and basso. Also, H. A. H. and Richard Williams, of Kingston, tenor prize winner at the World's fair. The club will also furnish glee, duets, trios and quartets. The tickets are 10, 20 and 30 cents. Professor Morgan's entertainments are always first class events and his music would be well pleased should they attend.

THE ELECTION.

The election passed off amid some excitement, the day being polled in the history of the borough. The Democratic majority was 59. Compared with the vote at the last election, the Democratic loss is about 20. The Republicans carried the county by the following majorities: McKinley, 174; Grow and Davenport, 148; Congressman C. M. King, 1,703; Boyden, 1,535; Deuel, sheriff, 1,497; Wright, register and recorder, 1,121; Moore and Adams, representatives, about 1,750.

ELECTION ECHOES.

This is undoubtedly a Nation, with a big S. Except the forfeitures and the burial of the politically dead, the election is over. Those attended to, let us prepare to get on with the work of the day. In the heat and turmoil of politics you offend your neighbor, while endeavoring to set him right, drop around to his door and give him an opportunity to apologize. Hear the cry upon the street corners today, "I told you so—I told you so!" Please do not do this. It is not pleasing to you. In this world we cannot have everything to please us. The Erie undoubtedly "coerced" its Democratic, and yet Susquehanna went Democratic, "user wasn't it?" The E-publicans of old Susquehanna county rejoice because of the election of William Connell to congress. Lackawanna county, in honoring her favorite citizen, has honored herself. Mr. Connell has presented the district anywhere on earth, and he will be a success as a legislator. Stick a pin right here!

It furnishes the desired strength by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood, and thus builds up the nerves, tones the stomach and regulates the whole system. Read this: "I want to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health run down, and I had the grip. After that, my heart and nervous system were badly affected, so that I could not do my own work. Our physician gave me some help, but did not cure. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon I could do all my own housework. I have taken 13 bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and through the blessing of God, it has cured me. I worked as hard as ever the past summer, and I am thankful to say I am well.
