Rev. W. S. Jones Asked to Withhold His Final Decision About the First Welsh Pastorate for One Week.

Rev. W. S. Jones did not, as he had announced, give his final answer to the First Welsh Baptist church last night in regard to reconsidering his resignation from the church pastorate. Mr. Jones was ready to give his decision, but the committee which was appointed to ask him to reconsider, urged Mr. Jones to withhold his announcement until next Sunday night. This means that Mr. Jones had decided to leave the First Welsh Baptist church and to be-come the pastor of the Prior street church in Wales.

To a Tribune reporter he hinted that such was his attitude. He told the committee that he would not reconsid-er and for this reason they urged him to take another weeks' time.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S PARADE. For the first time in many years Hyde Park had a chance to display itself Saturday night when the Repub lican jubilee parade passed around the principal West Side streets. The residents turned out to the number of several thousand to witness the demon-stration and the street corner at Main avenue and Jackson was densely packed with people. All along the route the residence and business houses were decorated in honor of the occa-sion. The Clarke residence on South Main avenue was covered in front by a number of Chinese lanterns and over the iron front fence from a wire hung a large silk American flag. Almost every prominent resident showed his appreciation of the honor of having the parade over here. The spectacle on Main avenue as the parade was moving northward was very pretty. The residents burned colored light during the passing of the noisy paraders. It is doubtful whether any section of the city did itself up as proudly as Hyde Park. Among the principal decorators were: Dr. George B. Reynolds, W. W. Davis, J. J. Davis, Peters & York, Attorney H. L. Taylor, Dr. Paine, Dr. J. H. Gilbs, Dr. J. J. Roberts Dr. Moylan, Richard Hall, Judge H. M. Edwards, George Fairchild, George Benore, Captain M. L. Blair, W. G. Daniels, Thompassing of the noisy paraders. It is tain M. L. Blair, W. G. Daniels, Thomas W. Fhillips, Evan F. Davis, Mrs. L. B. Potter, Dr. P. F. Struppler, William Price, Dr. F. C. Hall.

HAD DELIRIUM TREMENS. Richard Gray, a well-known character about town, was taken III with tremens on Saturday afternoon, and threatened the lies of all who came near him. His ravings became so violent that a messenger was dispatched to the station house last evening. He stated that Cray was unsaft about the house. ad! requested that he be brought to the station house. Sir: Today's Sunday Free Press and News printed the statement that the Scranton Sunday World had been offered for sale to Street Commissioner Kinsley, whose official conduct is at present being investigated at the instance of the world. Kindly allow me to contradict most emphatically the allegation. I have been told that on Saturday J. J. H. Hamilton, an attorney of this city, offered a small interest in the World to Mr. Kinsley. This interest was purchased without the knowledge of those helding a two-thirds interest in the paper, and if any such offer to purchase was made to the street commissioner it was made unknown to me.

commissioner it was made unknown to me.

The Scranton World is not for sale to Mr. Kinsley or any one else and will continue publication despite the opposition which some so-called giant powers in Scranton and vicinity that have been brought to bear upon it. The men who make the statement do so malliciously, and I would ask hir. Kinsley for a bill of particular regarding the alleged offer.

With regard to the reference to blackmail made in the Free Press, I respectfully ask that when Mr. Kinsley takes the stand at the investigation, that his attorney present whatever evidence of such they have.

SATURDAY'S GAMES ON THE GRIDIRON'

Penn. Vanguishes the Indians and Princeton Downs Harvard.

THE QUAKERS ARE IN HIGH GLEE

heir Team of Which They Had Some Misgivings Makes a Better Showing Against the Indians Than Did Any of the Other Big College Elevens -- The Tigers Have a Hard Tussle With Harvard in the Beginning but Play All Around Them Towards the Wind Up -- Other Games Here and Elsewhere.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8 .- Pennsylvania. yesterday, made a better showing against the indians than did any of the other varsity teams which have tackled them this season. Pennsylvania rolled up 21 poins and prevented the Indians from scoring. Princeton made 22 against the Indians' 6. Yale played 4 tie game with them but the official score staids 12 to 6, owing to a misjudgment of the referee, which robbed the redmen of 6 points, Harvard prevented the Indians from scoring, but they wer kept so busy doing this that they mad but 4 points. On the surface this would indicate that Pennsylvania has the best team of the four but football any thing it proves is that the Indians are not as good as any one of the big college teams. It gives no reliable indication of the respective merits of the other teams.

indication of the respective merits of the other teams.

Pennsylvania was not expected to make the showing it did and it is only through the excellent headwork of its directorate that it made such a showing. There isn' a foot ball eleven in the country that can beat the Carlisle Indians in a brawn and muscle game.

It will be burned and general thanks-giving. Invitations have been issued by members of the society to their friends to attend the burning and an interesting programme has been prepared for the cocasion.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured. They are regretfully weak, though, in the tricks of the game. Pennsylvania discovered this in watching their work against Princeton, Yale and Harvard and took every advantage of it in yesterday's game. One of their scores was made from a double pass, another from their old time quarter back trick and another from a drop from the field. This last, of course, is not generally characterized as a trick of the game, but wide-awake teams are generally successful in preventing their oppon-ent's from getting into a position to attempt it. Pennsylvania kept the Indians on the defensive during the whole of the first half and until the closing ten minutes of the sceend half, when the Indians got the ball and by a series of fierce rushes, principally mass plays on the center worked the ball to within six inches of l'enn's goal. Here the Quakers by a superhuman effort held the red men and got the ball just as time was called. The Quakers were pretty well scared and glad that the game was over. The features of the game were a 25 yard run around left end for a touch down by Geibert and the wender-ful lies trecking of Meloyen the Inful line bucking of Meloxen, the In-dians full back. The game was wit-nessed by 12,000 people.

Princeton Defeats Illarvard.

Cambridge, Nov. 8.—Baird's superior kicking and Dunlap's retirement from the game in the second half were two of the principal agencies in the defeat of Harvard by Princeton yesterday. There was no scoring in the first half although Harvard had an easy chance on a blocked kick, and the play was about even, except that Baird out-kicked Brown and thereby managed to keep the ball in the Harvard territory Dunlap was laid out in the second hal and his steady head and great strength was severely missed by Harvard at critical times, so much so indeed that the two touch downs with resultant goals secured in the second half might attributed in no small measure his absence.

Defeat of Brown by Yale.

Phovidence, R. I., Nov. 8.-Yale defeated Brown here yesterday by a score of 18 to 6. The Providence lads put up a plucky game and during the first half made an excellent showing. They were compelled to finish out the game with five substitutes owing to injuries to the regulars and in consequence Yale had things her own way. The feature of the game was the all around playing of Fultz, Brown's right half, who among other things made a ninety yard run through the entire Yale eleven for a touch down, and again by a fifty yard run carrying the ball to Yales four yard line. Yales best efforts were required to prevent another touch down resulting from this run.

Are Eventy Matched.

In the "fourth half," for Saturday's game was a continuation of a former 0-0 game. Scranton broke the ice and scored against Wyoming seminary at Athletic park. The first Half was a series of see-saw tries for the necessary five yards, with forced kicks following nearly every try. Neither side could make any material headway, so evenly make any material headway, so evenly were the teams matched and so desperate was the resistance. When the second half opened up Zang went into the line and Gelbert took Thayer's place at half. Thayer going to full-back. Gelbert was given the ball on the opening play and with the aid of Zang, Posner and Thayer, made a beautiful seventy-yard run for a touchdown, just three minutes from the call of time.

On the next kick-off Posner and Gelbert carried the ball to Wyoming's thirty-five-yard line and then on a fake pass Posner carried it another thirty yards, being tackled five yards from Wyoming's goal. Here the Semiparians by a superhuman effort held the Scrantons for four downs and upon receiving the ball kicked it out of danger. The game closed with each team kicking the game closed with each team kicking the ball out of its territory as fast as it re-

Scranton had the best of the second half and should have scored two touch-downs instead of one. Zang, Posner, McGouldrick, Gelbert and Decker played great foot ball for Scranton and for Wyoming, Captain Gendall, Decker, Johnson and Fletcher did the bulk of the work, Gendall by long odds being the best all-around player on the field. He is a little wonder and will be heard from at one of the bigger colleges when he gets through at the Seminary. The teams lined up as follows:
