

News of the Suburbs.

WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Concert for the Benefit of the American Bible Society—Stopped a Runaway.

Tomorrow evening, at the First Welsh Congregational church, a concert will be given for the benefit of the American Bible Society.

Address, Chairman Selection, Professor W. W. Jones and Party Song, Selected, Evan Miles

Address, Selected, Rev. W. E. Morgan Song, Selected, Messrs. Davis and Jenkins

Address, Selected, Rev. J. T. Morris Song, Selected, Master Eddie and Miss Edith Davies

Address, Selected, Rev. D. J. Jones Song, Selected, Messrs. Warren and Stephens

Address, Selected, Hilda Davies Song, Selected, David Stephens

Address, Selected, Low Herbert Song, Selected, Miss Lizzy Thomas, "Lill Morganaw"

Address, Selected, My Country, "This of These

STOPPING A RUNAWAY. A good story which should survive in the annals of the suburbs.

HOME MISSIONARY SOCIAL. At the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church last evening the Woman's Home Missionary Society held an interesting meeting.

NOTES AND PERSONALS. The fire last night was in the chimney of Kelly's block on Scranton street.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, to James Benjamin Lewis on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Morello, of New York city, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Harris, of South Main avenue.

Richard Gray, the man who is suffering from three days from delirium tremens, was lodged in the police station early yesterday morning.

Miss Jessie Kern, who is teaching school at Madisonville, spent Sunday with her parents on North Hyde Park avenue.

Miss Ella De Puy returned yesterday from a stay at Delaware Water Gap. The members of the Tabernacle church will conduct an entertainment and festival in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon.

Owing to the inability of Rev. J. B. Sweet to occupy his pulpit at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday the morning service was presided over by Rev. Jonas Underwood, a supernumerary of Elm Park church.

In the evening Rev. Dr. Beller, of the American University at Washington, gave an interesting address on Jackson street.

The Company F will tonight resume drill in St. David's hall. The latest and best styles. Roberts, 125 North Main.

Dr. C. W. Colborn, Dentist, Rooms 144 North Main avenue.

West Side Business Directory. HARRIET J. DAVIS, FLORIST—Cut flowers and funeral designs a specialty.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. C. King, 701 to 709 West Lackawanna avenue.

PROVIDENCE. Sweet Gardner died yesterday morning at his home on North Main avenue.

Mr. Gardner was 85 years and 10 months old, having been born in the year 1811, in Abington township, about a mile from Dalton. In the year 1838 he came to this place and started in business as a blacksmith and carriage maker.

He was married in Bradford county when he was a young man and had a family of five children. He was a man of good character and an earnest Christian.

He was afflicted with a neuralgia stroke, which compelled him to keep his bed ever since. He is survived by a wife and one son, Newland, who resides here. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Short services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church. Interment will be made in Dalton cemetery.

The North End and Turners basketball team will play a game of basketball on Thursday night in Company H armory.

Dancing after the game will be at the Casino, No. 423, Young Men's Institute, will conduct a grand social tomorrow night in Company H armory.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Residents of Minooka Want Better Car Service—Funerals of Mrs. O'Connor and Edward Melloy.

Residents of Minooka are preparing to present a petition to General Manager Hillman of the Traction company to secure a better street car service.

The point of which most complaint is made is the custom of transferring passengers if cars happen to be late. This is done so much lately that the people who look upon it as a nuisance.

For instance, a South Side car leaving town at 8 o'clock is 10 minutes late. When it gets to Breck street the waiting car comes along and transfers its passengers.

As likely as not the next car is also a South Side car and after receiving the transferred passengers it runs only to the switch on the hill and there waits for a Pittston car to take its passengers to the city line.

This has got to be the case rather than the exception and the people there are making ready to petition against it.

FUNERAL OF MRS. O'CONNOR. The funeral of Mrs. Winifred O'Connor, of 1808 Fifth avenue, took place yesterday morning.

The remains were interred at the cemetery and were largely attended. Services were conducted at St. Peter's cathedral by Rev. J. B. Conroy.

EDWARD MELODY BURIED. Edward Melloy was laid at rest yesterday afternoon in Hyde Park cemetery. The funeral took place from the home of his parents on Willow street.

Services were conducted at St. Peter's cathedral by Rev. J. B. Conroy. The pall bearers were James G. Martin, John Barrett, Edward Sweeney and John Carmody.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS. Night school was well attended in No. 11 building last night. The first night of the session and it bids fair to increase to one and one-half the attendance.

The marriage of Christian Storr, Jr., and Miss Anna Herdick, of Stone avenue is announced. A regular meeting of Camp 430, Patrician Order Sons of America, was held last night.

The anniversary of the Young People's society of Christ Lutheran church will be celebrated this evening. At a party Saturday evening in honor of the seventeenth birthday of William P. Heuster, son of Recorder of Deeds Charles Heuster, the following were present: Misses Edith Wahl, Charlotte Phillips, Lena Schaefer, Lizzie Fisher, Carrie Schaefer, Alexista Franz, Carrie Heinz, Kate Buntz, Annie Heuster, John Schmidt, Fred W. Buntz, William Schmidt, Oscar Rudolph, John Heuster, Peter Roser, William Horbach and Charles Miller.

New stock of elegant wall paper and paints at Bowers', 715 Cedar ave.

DUNMORE. The St. Annes Guild of St. Mark's church will hold their social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Winterstein of Blakely street and not at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Weber of Drinker street.

Miss Ida Powell, of Riggs street, is convalescing after a severe illness. Miss Annie Branning of Fifth street, is entertaining Miss Hattie McCracken of Hyde Park.

The Independent Home company is making preparations for their grand ball, which will be given at the Grand Hotel, on Thursday evening, November 12. The proceeds of the ball will be put toward the purchasing of a team for their horse car.

John Duggan, of Chestnut street, has returned home from a two weeks sojourn in New York. Miss Kate O'Hara, who has been the guest of relatives in Moscow for the past few weeks, has returned to her home on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Frank Leitch, of Monroe avenue, is able to be around again after a severe illness. Mrs. D. W. Swartz gave a party at her home on Taylor avenue yesterday afternoon in honor of her son Walter, who has attained his eighth year.

Among the large number of his young friends who participated in the joyous event were: Grace Mitchell, Helen Evans, Lena Biecker, Helen Bray, Nellie Lochran, Marguerite Snyder and Artie Drew, Willie Sweetland, Willie Loggahan, Lewis William Henry, Harry Burdick, Ray Roper, Edwin Snyder, Logan Whitman, Alton Swingle, James Brown, Haydn Swingle and Miss Annie Stentland.

FISH AND GAME SEASONS. Dr. Warren's Summary of the Laws for the Benefit of Sportsmen.

Dr. B. H. Warren, state zoologist, has prepared for the benefit of the sportsman and convenient summary of the Pennsylvania fish and game laws. It is printed on the back of a postal card so that it may be easily carried and constantly carried in the pocket by sportsmen who desire and intend to observe the laws of the state in their fishing and shooting. The summary is as follows, the date indicating when fish and game can be legally taken:

FISH. Sea Salmon, April 1 to August 1; speckled trout, April 15 to July 15; lake trout, January 1 to September 30; blue or pickerel, June 1 to February 1; Susquehanna salmon, May 29 to January 1; black and other bass, May 31 to January 1; shad in Delaware river, December 21 to June 15; no rock bass or wall-eyed pike can be taken in the Delaware river for two years from June 23, 1895.

GAME. Ruffed grouse or pheasant, also called by some partridge, October 1 to January 1; prairie hen or pinnated grouse, October 1 to January 1; woodcock, July 4 to January 1; quail or Virginia partridge, November 1 to December 15; wild turkey, October 15 to January 1; wild fowl (ducks, etc.), September 1 to May 1; upland or grass plover, July 15 to January 1; elk, wild deer or antelope, October 1 to December 1; gray, black or fox squirrel, September 1 to January 1; hare or "rabbit," November 1 to January 1.

Note—The counties of Tioga, Bradford and Huntingdon have special laws, for which see Bulletin No. 6 of his department, pages 75, 81 and 82 or the pamphlet laws of Pennsylvania for 1895, pages 390, 391 and 463. Pike county also has a special law passed in 1878.

To place any torpedo, giant powder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite, electricity, lime or any poisonous or explosive substance in any stream is punishable by fine and imprisonment.

In streams not inhabited by trout, eel-pots made of wicker work or netting not exceeding five feet in length with an interval of not more than one and one-half inches, are allowed.

CARMEN AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Produced by a Company Headed by Miss Morrison and Edward Elmer.

PULSE OF NEW YORK AT DAVIS' It is a Strong Melodrama and Attracted Large Audiences to That Playhouse Yesterday Afternoon and Last Night—Some of the Attractions That Will Soon Be Seen in This City

A dramatic version of Prosper Merimee's story, "Carmen," was presented at the Academy of Music last night by a company headed by Rosabel Morrison and Edward Elmer.

The stage yesterday and evening in general, in discretion, if not genius, and the more risqué scenes find no place in it, although it is strong in a dramatic way through the character of the heroine.

Miss Morrison in the title role acted with an abandon and fire that won her several tributes of applause, but she did not make a very good impression as the incarnation of inconstancy and devilishness on whom no law, human or divine, had any restraining influence.

Edward Elmer's Don Jose was well done and saved from any general condemnation by the excellent impersonation of a bull fight which was given by means of the Eidoloscope.

"Carmen" will be presented by the same company at the Academy again tonight.

"The Pulse of New York" kept two audiences at Davis' Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening in the greatest interest. The play is a melodrama with good scenery and a thrilling plot.

It tells the tale of a villain who loves his habit of robbing and is in the hands of a woman who has a hand for him in all his robberies. A pile driving scene in which one of the good characters in the play is killed is a very interesting and awful end by the use of a revolver in the hands of the subtitle is quite realistic.

The show is up to date. During the third act excellent specialties as a variety of the very pleasing features. He is as agile as a monkey. There are a number of other capable people in the cast.

"The Pulse of New York" will be repeated today and tomorrow with matinees.

The conspicuous novelty of this week's theatrical offerings is to be found in the presentation of that greatest of all American melodramas, "The Great Diamond Robbery," at the Academy of Music Wednesday and Thursday.

This week's offering is the joint effort of A. C. Wheeler (New York) and New York's great critic, and Edward M. Alfriend, who is also known as the writer of several plays. "The Great Diamond Robbery" comes to us with the proud record that covered five months' duration in New York city, where it was enthusiastically received.

Unlike most melodramas, it gives out at New York amusement houses heretofore. A copy, well bound in scarlet and gold, will be presented to every lady and gentleman attending the performance that night. It contains a personal sketch of Mr. Daly, and a full summary of all the plays and companies he has placed before the metropolitan public. The average play-goer who associates Mr. Daly only with a few well-known artists of recent years, will be startled by the extent of this survey of his past work and the vast number of distinguished men and women whom he has introduced or enlisted, either in the two theaters formerly known as the Fifth Avenue, or in the present Daly's Theater, New York, and Daly's Theater on Leicester Square, London.

Richard Mansfield's new romantic play, which he will bring to the Garden Theatre, New York, on Monday, the 23d, is "The Sign of the Cross," by the late Greenough Smith, editor of the "Strand Magazine," London. The period of the play is that of Charles I. of England. The interest is about the castle of Sir John Sombras. The curtain goes up on a military camp. An attacking force has been sent by King

Augustin Daly is now preparing for distribution, on the opening night of his regular dramatic season in New York, November 23, a souvenir volume, "Memories of Daly's Theaters," which is likely to surpass in elegance and permanency any other souvenir given out at New York amusement houses heretofore.

A copy, well bound in scarlet and gold, will be presented to every lady and gentleman attending the performance that night. It contains a personal sketch of Mr. Daly, and a full summary of all the plays and companies he has placed before the metropolitan public. The average play-goer who associates Mr. Daly only with a few well-known artists of recent years, will be startled by the extent of this survey of his past work and the vast number of distinguished men and women whom he has introduced or enlisted, either in the two theaters formerly known as the Fifth Avenue, or in the present Daly's Theater, New York, and Daly's Theater on Leicester Square, London.

Richard Mansfield's new romantic play, which he will bring to the Garden Theatre, New York, on Monday, the 23d, is "The Sign of the Cross," by the late Greenough Smith, editor of the "Strand Magazine," London. The period of the play is that of Charles I. of England. The interest is about the castle of Sir John Sombras. The curtain goes up on a military camp. An attacking force has been sent by King

Augustin Daly is now preparing for distribution, on the opening night of his regular dramatic season in New York, November 23, a souvenir volume, "Memories of Daly's Theaters," which is likely to surpass in elegance and permanency any other souvenir given out at New York amusement houses heretofore.

A copy, well bound in scarlet and gold, will be presented to every lady and gentleman attending the performance that night. It contains a personal sketch of Mr. Daly, and a full summary of all the plays and companies he has placed before the metropolitan public. The average play-goer who associates Mr. Daly only with a few well-known artists of recent years, will be startled by the extent of this survey of his past work and the vast number of distinguished men and women whom he has introduced or enlisted, either in the two theaters formerly known as the Fifth Avenue, or in the present Daly's Theater, New York, and Daly's Theater on Leicester Square, London.

Richard Mansfield's new romantic play, which he will bring to the Garden Theatre, New York, on Monday, the 23d, is "The Sign of the Cross," by the late Greenough Smith, editor of the "Strand Magazine," London. The period of the play is that of Charles I. of England. The interest is about the castle of Sir John Sombras. The curtain goes up on a military camp. An attacking force has been sent by King

Augustin Daly is now preparing for distribution, on the opening night of his regular dramatic season in New York, November 23, a souvenir volume, "Memories of Daly's Theaters," which is likely to surpass in elegance and permanency any other souvenir given out at New York amusement houses heretofore.

A copy, well bound in scarlet and gold, will be presented to every lady and gentleman attending the performance that night. It contains a personal sketch of Mr. Daly, and a full summary of all the plays and companies he has placed before the metropolitan public. The average play-goer who associates Mr. Daly only with a few well-known artists of recent years, will be startled by the extent of this survey of his past work and the vast number of distinguished men and women whom he has introduced or enlisted, either in the two theaters formerly known as the Fifth Avenue, or in the present Daly's Theater, New York, and Daly's Theater on Leicester Square, London.

Richard Mansfield's new romantic play, which he will bring to the Garden Theatre, New York, on Monday, the 23d, is "The Sign of the Cross," by the late Greenough Smith, editor of the "Strand Magazine," London. The period of the play is that of Charles I. of England. The interest is about the castle of Sir John Sombras. The curtain goes up on a military camp. An attacking force has been sent by King

Augustin Daly is now preparing for distribution, on the opening night of his regular dramatic season in New York, November 23, a souvenir volume, "Memories of Daly's Theaters," which is likely to surpass in elegance and permanency any other souvenir given out at New York amusement houses heretofore.

A copy, well bound in scarlet and gold, will be presented to every lady and gentleman attending the performance that night. It contains a personal sketch of Mr. Daly, and a full summary of all the plays and companies he has placed before the metropolitan public. The average play-goer who associates Mr. Daly only with a few well-known artists of recent years, will be startled by the extent of this survey of his past work and the vast number of distinguished men and women whom he has introduced or enlisted, either in the two theaters formerly known as the Fifth Avenue, or in the present Daly's Theater, New York, and Daly's Theater on Leicester Square, London.

Richard Mansfield's new romantic play, which he will bring to the Garden Theatre, New York, on Monday, the 23d, is "The Sign of the Cross," by the late Greenough Smith, editor of the "Strand Magazine," London. The period of the play is that of Charles I. of England. The interest is about the castle of Sir John Sombras. The curtain goes up on a military camp. An attacking force has been sent by King

Augustin Daly is now preparing for distribution, on the opening night of his regular dramatic season in New York, November 23, a souvenir volume, "Memories of Daly's Theaters," which is likely to surpass in elegance and permanency any other souvenir given out at New York amusement houses heretofore.

A copy, well bound in scarlet and gold, will be presented to every lady and gentleman attending the performance that night. It contains a personal sketch of Mr. Daly, and a full summary of all the plays and companies he has placed before the metropolitan public. The average play-goer who associates Mr. Daly only with a few well-known artists of recent years, will be startled by the extent of this survey of his past work and the vast number of distinguished men and women whom he has introduced or enlisted, either in the two theaters formerly known as the Fifth Avenue, or in the present Daly's Theater, New York, and Daly's Theater on Leicester Square, London.

Richard Mansfield's new romantic play, which he will bring to the Garden Theatre, New York, on Monday, the 23d, is "The Sign of the Cross," by the late Greenough Smith, editor of the "Strand Magazine," London. The period of the play is that of Charles I. of England. The interest is about the castle of Sir John Sombras. The curtain goes up on a military camp. An attacking force has been sent by King

Augustin Daly is now preparing for distribution, on the opening night of his regular dramatic season in New York, November 23, a souvenir volume, "Memories of Daly's Theaters," which is likely to surpass in elegance and permanency any other souvenir given out at New York amusement houses heretofore.

Charles to capture, if possible, both the castle and the person of Sir John Sombras. This castle is an impregnable stronghold, cut off from the outer world by a deep chasm, spanned by a drawbridge. Sir John is the descendant of a long line of cruel, saturnal ancestors, and he has a name for ferocity and lawlessness that he does not really deserve. Some time before this the besieging captain, Hilary Dare, had met and loved a maid, Thyra. This was at York. They had pledged their troth; there had been a meeting appointed, and then—she had disappeared utterly from his ken. A chance meeting reveals to him the fact that Thyra is imprisoned in the very castle he is besieging. The girl is Sir John Sombras' ward. By a ruse Hilary is lured into the castle, discovers Thyra, and is in the midst of an enthralling love scene when Sir John enters. Sir John is passionately in love with his ward, and had but just succeeded in wringing from her, utterly worn out as she was from sheer weariness of despair, her consent to a marriage. With the appearance of Hilary and Thyra's open confession of love for him there ensues a struggle for mastery between the two men that continues the main thread of interest. Sir John has Hilary in his power; but Hilary has Thyra's love. In contrast to the light-hearted, impetuous Hilary, Sir John's character forms a vivid contrast, of pale and somber exterior, he is a man of infinite goodness of heart, in whom all the softer emotions are hidden, however, against the outer world, he is the mask of a stern and even cynical demeanor. At heart he is a sterling good fellow, and an ardent lover. Mr. Mansfield will play Sir John Sombras, with Miss Beatrice Cameron will be Thyra, and Mr. Jewett, Hilary Dare.

John W. Isham knew not how well he planned for a novelty in the amusement line, until he had played his company of "Octoroons" before the audiences of several large cities, and then he realized that he not only had a novelty but a paying one and one which would be recognized as something first-class. The "Isham Octoroons" will be at the Academy of Music Friday and Saturday, giving a special Saturday matinee.

CALIFORNIA WOMEN'S CRUSADE. 80,000 Votes for Female Suffrage to 95,000 Against. San Francisco, Nov. 9.—The women who fought so well for the right of suffrage in California are highly elated at the result of their contest as shown by a letter received from the following of their defeat a virtual victory because of the great vote polled. Incomplete returns from all counties show that the suffrage amendment received in round number 80,000 votes, while 95,000 were cast against it. The leaders attribute their defeat mainly to the Liquor Dealers' association of San Francisco and surrounding counties.

The state outside of the Bay counties gave a majority of nearly 8,000 for the amendment, but this was overcome by the majority of 20,000 in San Francisco and 4,500 in Alameda county against it. In only twenty-five of the fifty-seven counties of the state were the women organized and every one of these counties gave a majority for the amendment. The suffrage leaders feel sure of victory two years hence.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 11-12. A. M. Palmer & Edwin Knowles announce the Appearance Here of Their Magnificent Production.

THE GREAT DIAMOND ROBBERY. By E. W. Alfriend and A. C. Wheeler, direct from a run of Five Months in N. Y. City. Presented by the following excellent plays: Rose Eytling, Mrs. Annie Yeaman, Selene Johnson, Louise Closser, Fannie Cohen, Elmer Cummins, Joe E. Whiting, W. A. Whitecar, Thos. M. Hunter, Geo. C. Boniface, Jos. A. Wilkes, Mrs. Beving, J. H. Cosser, Mrs. Ames, Gustave Frankel and several others.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13-14. Special Matinee Saturday. The Old Reliable.

J. W. ISHAM'S OCTOORONS THE ONLY ONE. 40—ARTISTS—40. Including Madam Flower and Fred Piper, the Greatest Singers of the Day.

DAVIS' THEATER. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 9, 10, 11. NEWEST EDITOR: THE PULSE OF NEW YORK.

Carrie Lamont. And the Comedy King. Chris Bruno. Admission 10, 20 or 30 Cents. Two performances daily. Doors open at 1.30 and 7. Curtain rises at 2.30 and 8.15.

POSITIVELY THE LAST WEEK OF BERGMAN'S Swiss Village combined with Prof. Berger's wonderful AUTOMATIC * EXPOSITION. At 400 and 402 Lackawanna Ave.

All united in one colossal combination, form in their entirety the grandest combination and most elaborate display of Scientific Automatic Works in the world. You cannot afford to miss these automatic marvels.

Open 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. ADMISSION TO ALL, Including Reserved Seats for Ladies, ONLY 10 CENTS.

POULTRY. Turkeys, Ducks, Chickens, Fresh Every Day. ALSO Pheasants, Quail, Prairie Chickens, Wild Ducks.

W. H. PIERCE, PENN'VE MARKET.

Gerson's MILLINERY, 413 Lackawanna Ave. Hats Trimmed Free. Ribbon Bows Tied Free.

NEW STYLES EVERY DAY. The story of Trimmed Hat and Bonnet Fashions comes like perfume in the air. Look in our Show Rooms today. A garden of the prettiest, daintiest Headgear will there delight you. Our styles attract marked attention wherever worn.

And Our Prices Are Very Little, Indeed. In Bare Hats as in Trimmed our styles are always ahead of others. Beautiful Turbans, Toques and Round Hats in English Felt.

29c, 39c and 45c. Large Gainsboroughs and Flats, fine quality Felt, 02c, 73c and 98c Each.

Trimmed Sailors and Walking Hats. FINE FRENCH FELT, CAMEL'S HAIR FELT, fully trimmed, newest styles, were $1.00, $1.50 and $1.75; all to go at 48c. Each.

Ribbons. PLAID RIBBONS, STRIPED RIBBONS, GLACE RIBBONS, Velvet and Satin effects, 10c, 15c, 20c, and 30c a yard, worth double.

Ostrich Feathers, Fancy Feathers, Birds, Wings, Algrettes, French Roses. At about half value. NEW VEILINGS at new prices lower than you have ever seen them.

GERSON'S, 413 Lackawanna Ave., Scranton, Pa. HAIR CHAINS FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

LADIES, you can have a beautiful chain made out of your own hair at E. M. HETZE'S, 330 LACKAWANNA AVE., SCRANTON.

Remember, we are the only ones here who manufacture chains from your own hair. Leave orders as early as possible.

WASHBURN, CROSBY CO. MILLS, A. B. C. D. The A Mill Alone produced 1,000,000 Barrels, Largest Run on Record.

Washburn, Crosby's Superlative is sold everywhere from the Pacific Coast to St. John's, New Foundland, and in England, Ireland and Scotland very largely, and is recognized as the best flour in the world.

MEGARGEL & CONNELL WHOLESALE AGENTS. WE CARRY ALL SIZES OF Burden, Phenix, American, Juniata Steel, X. L. Steel, Toe and Side Weight Shoes.

NEVERSLIP CALKS, BLACKSMITH AND WAGONMAKERS' SUPPLIES.

BITTENBENDER & CO., SCRANTON, PA. THE DICKSON MANUFACTURING CO. SCRANTON AND WILKES-BARRE, PA. Manufacturers of Locomotives, Stationary Engines, Boilers, HOISTING AND PUMPING MACHINERY.

General Office SCRANTON, PA.

Notice To Publishers. THE TRIBUNE is now prepared to fill orders for composition on newspapers, books, pamphlets, or other publications at moderate rates.

Address BUSINESS MANAGER.

Renew Lost Vigor. When you doubt what to use for Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Atrophy, Varicocele and other weaknesses, from any cause, use Serravallo's Tonic. It is a full and full vigor quickly restored.

For sale by JOHN H. PHELPS, Pharmacist, 209 Wyoming Avenue and Spruce Street, Scranton, Pa.

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing

Such styles and qualities are not to be found elsewhere at prices equally low. Workmanship, fit and finish are perfect and shapes are correct.

Men's Sacks and Cutaway Frock Suits of Black Clay Worsteds, $10.00, $12.00, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00.

Men's Sack Suits in Nobby Plaid Effects and Choice Colorings. $10.00 to $20.00

Men's Overcoats, the kind that look well and wear well—Kerseys, Meltons, Chinchillas, Beavers, Etc., $8.00 to $30.00

Boys' Double-Breasted School Suits, in all colors, 8 to 15 year, would be cheap at $3.00. Our Price, $1.98

Child's Heavy Blue Chinchilla Reefers, with deep sailor collar and braided, $1.98

THE SAMTERS Square Dealing Clothiers, Hatters and Furnishers.

ORIENTAL RUGS & CARPETS

Oriental Rugs, Oriental Carpets, Oriental Rugs, Oriental Carpets, Oriental Rugs.

This week we will sell any of your choice at exactly half the price to be able to raise a certain sum. China and Japanese ware at cost.

MICHAELIAN BROS. & CO., 124 Washington Ave.

INFANT HEALTH SENT FREE. A little book that should be in every home. Issued by the manufacturers Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk. N. Y. Condensed Milk Co. 77 Hudson Street, New York

W. H. PIERCE, PENN'VE MARKET.