While Living in Luxury He Wrote His Wife He Was Starving.

Denver, Col., Nov. 10.—According to a letter written by a woman who styles herself Selma F. Adams, Matt Adams, former clerk of the district court, and alleged embezzier of $50,000, will have another crime to answer for.

The writer charges that she is the legal wife of Adams, who deserted her seventeen years ago and represented himself since then as playing in the hardest kind of luck in trying to make a home in Colorado.

high as $50,000 a year, and that he al-ways occupied a most lucrative posi-tion here and in Leadville. The news came out through inquiries directed as to the personality of the embezzler, whose detention by the London police obtained widespread notice in the east-ern papers.

ooo is in greenbacks and $39,471,000 in Sherman notes. Only $13,342,000 of silver certificates remain in the treasury. The continued increase in the deficit is now engaging the attention of Secretary Carlisle, and will be treated by him with an annual report. It is rumored that he will recommend an increase in the tax on beer, from $1 to $2 per barrel. This proposition is said to be favored by Commissioner Miller. The treasury deficit for this month up to date—one-third of the month having passed—is $4,453,000, making an aggregate since July 1, 1895, of $37,342,000.

Miss Gertie Dearie as Arra Meelish, and Katle Mealon in the part of Fannie Powers, were easy and graceful in their parts, and were liberally applauded. After the play a social was given in the club of '95 hall, and was largely attended.

BET HIS WIFE ON ELECTION.

Mrs. William Corbus Was Wagered Against a House and Lot.

La Grange, Ind., Nov. 10.—George Barnell, living near the Elkhart county line, has deeded to William Corbus a house and lot valued at $5,000 in fulfillment of the conditions of a novel elec-the expenses of securing a divorce and also procure a marriage license and pay the magistrate for performing the ceremony. Barnell agreed to pay to Corbus a house and lot in the event McKinley was elected.

The wager was made in good faith, and its conditions have been fulfilled. Mrs. Corbus was so confident that the judgment of her husband was not at fault that she willingly became a party to the unique contract.

STEEL MEN IN SESSION.

The Bessemer Association Begins Its Quarterly Meeting at H tel Manhattan in New York City.

New York, Nov. 10.-The Bessemer New York, Nov. 19.—The Bessemer Steel association began its quarterly meeting at the Hotel Manhattan to-day. Major Bent, of Philadelphia, president of the association, cailed the meeting to order. Though the officers refused to allow outsiders to hear the proceedings and declared that only the usual business would be transacted, one of those in attendance admitted that an effort would be made to obtain that an effort would be made to obtain co-operation from firms not belonging to the association, so that trade throughout the country could be brought into thorough sympathy with the ends that the association sought to accomplish. The Illinois Steel com-pany and Schoenberger & Co., of Pitts-burg, which did not enter into the agreement, endorsed by the members agreement, endorsed by the members of the association, when it was formed had representatives at the meeting who were cordially received by the
