

FIRST OF THE STANDARD COURSE.

Mozart Symphony Company's Con-

ourse of entertainments by the Young den's Christian association was given ast evening by the Mozart Symphony oncert company. The opening concert was a success in several respects. The attendance was large, nearly every scat in the hall being occupied. Socially it was of importance also many of the city's elite being present, which argurs well for the succeeding entertainments. varied in the character of the selec-tions, the composers chosen from and the styles of instruments. Perhaps the composers were too numerous, a more limited partiality might have given greater satisfaction.

Instruments of historic interest, since their use in the orchestra dates from which inspired the breasts of many a torious war was seen and heard for the first time by many last night. Herr Theodore Hoch was the performer upon this instrument. He gave several trumpet calls, the emperor's salute

Miss Marie Louise Gumaer was the contraito soloist. She had two num-bers on the programme, "The Holy City" and the "Gypsies," and responded to an encore each time. Her voice was powerful and withal very pleasing on account of her excellent powers of modulation.

YOUNG WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Miss Annie Fahey Used Kerosene Oil

Miss Annie Fahey, age 22 years, was so frightfully burned at her home in Dunmore yesterday morning at 9 o'clock that she died at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Fahey was working in the kitchen at the home of her parents, and to make the fire in the stove burn better had recourse to kerosene and the flames extinguished she was frightfully burned, and lingered in ter-rible agony for several hours when death relieved her from further suffering. The funeral will take place from the home of her parent's residence, on Throop street, Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of Scranton are cordially invited to inspect the beautiful line of Mexican Drawn Work now on exhibi-tion and sale at M. E. Reynolds', 109 Wyomit's avenue. Prices ranging from

