UNIVERSAL TEMPERANCE SUNDAY. A Call for its Observance. An effort is being made by the Christian temperance people to establish the fourth Sunday of November as Annual Temper-ance Sunday, to be universally observed. The movement orientated in the London Sunday School union, has been taken up by the leading temperance and Sunday school workers of America, and has the endorsement of bishops and clergymen of nearly all denominations. The general as-sembly of the Presbyterian church, the United Presbyterian church, the United Presbyterian church, the united Presbyterian church the national therational sounday , school convention also call for a special observance of the interrational Sunday , school convention also call for a special observance of the day. In view of these facts and with a desire to aid this movement, which com-mends itself to Christian people every-where, we earnestly request the pastors of all churches in our city to observe Nov. 2nd. We recomment the proteching of a temperance serion in the Sunday schools and ask the Young People's socie-ties to make it a subject of prayer in their meetings. We further suggest that in the covening union temperance or Christian churches he during be held wherever practicable. This call is made that Chris-tian temperance series in the Sunday schools and ask the Young People's socie-ties to make it a subject of prayer in their meeting. est ever used in the tragedy. . . . Next Tuesday evening, Nov. 17, Reich & Maiders, comedians, will appear at the Frothingham in that delightful and funniest farce comedy, "A Pair of Jacks," by H. Grattan Donnelly, who is also the author of other successful comedies now before the public. The wit of the piece is in Mr. Donnelly's best humor and the fun is incessant. A splendid musical and specialty pro-gramme is interspersed and an evening of rare fun and enjoyment is prom-. . .

Hanlon Brothers' "Superba" will be presented at the Frothingham Wednesday and Thursday nights.

The International Grand Opera company will give three performances at the Frothingham next Friday and Saturday. On Friday night the company will sing "Lucy of Lammermoor" and on Saturday night "II Trovatore." "Cohemian Girl" will be sung at the Saturday matinee. The soprano solo-ists of the company are Marle Senta and Myrta French. The latter was heard in this city with Sousa's band. . . . There are few attractions on the mimic stage today that have stood so long alone in character as Sam T. Jack's Creole company which will appear at Davis' theater the first three days of next week. It has invariably given satisfaction and left behind a record which insures on its return a cordial welcome. That Mr. Jack ap-preciates the liberal patronage showered upon this attraction is evidenced by his unceasing efforts to present something new. This season there is a fresh importation of artists, native belles, merry mestee maidens, comediang and Southern specialty stars, all of whom have attained a high rank.
