DEMOCRATS ARE GAINING GROUND

The Republicans Have Lost 37 Votes in the Next House.

POPULISTS GET FIFTEEN OF THEM

The Net Democratic Gain in the Next Cougress is Twenty-three, One of Which Comes from the New State of Utah .- Only Two Gold Democrats Are Elected This Year. A Colored Republican Comes from North Carolina.

From the Washington Post.

From the Washington Post.

So far as the lower house of congress is concerned, it was not so glorious a Republican victory after all. Full returns from all the states show that the Democrats have made congressional gains as follows: California, 1; Colorado, 2; Delaware, 1; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 1; Indiana, 2; Kansas, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Missouri, 6; Nebraska, 3; Ohio, 4; Pennsylvania, 1; Tennessee, 2; Utah, 1; Washington, 1. Total, 20. The Populists have gained votes in California, 2; Illinois, 2; Indiana, 1; Kansas, 4; Michigan, 1; Missouri, 1; Montana, 1; North Carolina, 3; and Washington, 1. Total, 16. The Republicans have gained three congressmen in Maryland, one in Virginia, one in New York, and one in Louisana. Total, 6. The net Democratic gain of votes, therefore, in the next congress is 23; the net Populist gain, 15, and the net Republican loss, 37. Utah's representative adds one more to the total number; but two gold Democrats were elected, and the net gain to the silver men, theerefore, combining both Democrats and Populists, is 36. One of the Republicans elected in New York is James J. Belden, an independent, who defeated the regular party nominee, but who is withal as staunch a So far as the lower house of conwho defeated the regular party nominee, but who is withal as staunch a Republican as ever lived.

George W. Murray, the colored Republican member from South Carolina, has been defeated again by Colonel william Elliott. A contest may again be expected, since he was successful last session. George H. White, of the Second North Carolina district, whose election will not be questioned, is also a colored man.

Illinois also has a Hunter, New Jersey and North Carolina each a Fowler, but Pennsyl-vania contributes Robbins.

The little New England State of Rhode Island sends a Bull, Virginia a Lamb, North Carolina a Martin, Mississippi a Fox, Missouri a Cooney, and issippi a Fox, Missouri a Cooney, and Ohio a Kerr, while a Skinner comes from North Carolina, and a Packer from Pennsylvania. There is a Fischer in the New York delegation, but the only thing for him to catch is Sauerhering, of Wisconsin. Fruit, too, is scarce, there being only one Berry, from Kentucky. from Kentucky

The citizens threatened lynching, especially as there are four negroes in jail who participated in the murder of Officer White at Owensboro. A bla crowd surrounded the jall and cour house. A strong escort of officers, under direction of the sheriff, took the prisoners from the jail to the station. The mob, headed by John Born, attempted to take the negroes from the officers, but Jailor Kohl knocked the header down with a rifle and the prisoners. leader down with a rifle and the pris-oners were landed on a Louisville and Nashville train.

GIRL GOES TO JAIL FOR ASSAULT.

She Kicked and Scratched Two Young Men--Breakdown in Court. Elizabeth, N. J., Nov. 15.—Edith Behr, a prepossessing young woman of 17, was sent to the county jail yesterday morning for committing an assault on two young men, Harry and William Bloy. The young woman was found guilty of having kicked them, scratched them with her finger nails, and of having thrown stones at them. She was tried before a jury on Nov. She was tried before a jury on Nov. 5. Miss Behr has curly hair and a

5. Miss Behr has curly hair and a jaunty air.

She had been out on bail since her trial, and when she entered the court room yesterday morning she smiled at Judge McCormick and all the lawyers. She told a friend that she expected to be fined, and that her father had secured money to pay the amount. When her case was called her attorney, W. D. Wolkskiel, made an eloquent appeal in her behalf, asking for extreme leniency, and pointing out that a heavy sentence would mean fearful disgrace to his client, who stood on the threshold of womanhood.

Colonel Lara reports having had an encounter with a party of insurgents near Calabazar, province of Santa Clara. He says the insurgents were routed with a loss of twenty-one killed. The loss of the troops were three killed and eight wounded.

Serafin Sanchez, the insurgent leader, attacked the town of Condado, twelve miles from Trinidad. The insurgents fired eight cannon shots, but did no damage. Finding it impossible to capture the town, they set fire to a number of huts on the outskirts and cut the telegraph wires, after which they retired.

When the lawyer finished Judge Mc-Cormick said he could not see a single extenuating circumstance in the case. The young woman's own story and her actions had been against her, and he saw no reason for elemency. Then he pronounced sentence that Miss Behr be pronounced sentence that Miss Behr be confined in the county jail for a term of three months. Miss Behr's face blanced and she gave a shriek as she tottered from the rail.

"My God," she screamed. "Me go to jail? No, no, I cant. Don't send me to prison. It's wrong. Don't. Oh, my God," and she began to tear her hair and called in nitiable tones for her and called in pitiable tones for her mother to save her from disgrace. She became hysterical, and it took three court officers to remove her from the room. She fought them all the way down stairs to the jail. The assault for which Miss Behr was sent to jail was committed last June at Lyons Farms, A drove of cows beat Lyons Farms. A drove of cows belonging to the Behrs, who live in Union township, broke into a turnip patch belonging to the Bloys, and when William and Henry Bloy were driving the cattle out of the field Behr and his daughter Edith ran into the field and began to beat them. Miss Behr kicked them until she was tired. Then she used her finger nails and scratched their faces, and finally pelted them with stones.

The case was taken before the grand jury and an indictment was prompt-ly found. Miss Behr said at the trial ly found. Miss Behr said at the trial that the cows were on the highway and that the young men were driving the cattle to the pound when she attacked them. It took the jury but a few minutes to convict her. Miss Behr first came before the public last summer, when she was charged, together with her mother, with having beaten off two constables who had warrants to search constables, who had warrants to search barns on the Behr farm for a steer. The animal was one of the twenty that escaped from a pen at Waverley and created havoc among the farms in the

SUIT TO ANNUL A MARRIAGE.

Brought by the Groom on the Ground That He Was Hypnotized.

Poughkeepsie, Nov. 15.—A marriage was celebrated in Hyde Park on Monday, and a suit for its annulment was brought in Poughkeepsie yesterday. The parties were Miss Rachael Schry-ver, aged 27, and Alvah Baker, aged 21. The bridegroom says that he was nypnotized and not in a condition to appre-notized and not in a condition to appreciate what he was doing.

Baker is employed on Frederick W. Vanderbilt's place. He says that on Monday Officer Van Steenburgh came after him while he was at work and placed him under arrest. He took him before Justice George Purph, and he before Justice George Rymph, and be-fore he realized what was going on he had been taken to Miss Schryver's house and the option given him of marrying her or remaining under arrest. It seems, he says, as if he must have been under the influence of some mysterious spell, because he submitted passive.y to the proceedings and was married to the young woman.

Baker says that he was not Miss Schryver's sweetheart, but that she has a lover of the name of William Ostrom, who is somewhere in Connecticut, and this he regards as a strange feature of the transaction.

Mrs. Baker's friends, on the other hand, assert that the two were engaged to be married, and that there is strange about the affair at all. The two have known each other since childhood. Mrs. Baker has employed coun-sel and will fight the annulment of her marriage. The Schryvers are well known in Hyde Park Albert Schry-ver, Mrs. Baker's father, was town clerk for a number of years. He has two sons on the New York relief force. two sons on the New York police force,

SAYS ROSENBERG DECEIVED HER.

Miss Heebler Says He Made Her the Victim of a Mock Marriage.

Poughkeepsie, Nov. 15.—Alexander Rosenberg, of this city, son of a well-known clothing merchant, has been held under $800 bail for the grand jury on a charge of seduction preferred by Miss Heebler, with whom he has been known commany, and who says she is Jewess in Brocoklyn. She then caused Rosenberg's arrest and employed an attorney to look after her interests. Miss Heebler says that a year ago she went with Mr. Rosenberg to Staats-burgh, twelve miles from Poughkeep-sle, with the intention of getting married. They saw a minister, who took Mr. Rosenberg aside and said he could not perform the ceremony, as he did not know either of them. On their way home, she says, Mr. Rosenberg produced a paper and told her that all that was necessary to complete the marriage. was necessary to complete the marriage was necessary to complete the marriage ceremony was to sign it, which she did, and from that time on believed that they were legally married. The mar-riage, she says, was kept quiet because she is a Christian and Mr. Rosenberg's parents, who are Hebrews, would ob-ject to the union on account of her re-

Havana, Nov. 15 .- As the days pas and bring no news from the Spanish forces in the province of Pinar del Rio the anxiety here grows deeper and many rumors are circulated.

The situation of General Weyler is unknown, and the non-receipt of intelligence concerning his movements leads many persons here to believe that he is waiting for a decisive engagement with the insurgents before he will allow any information to leak out.

It is reported that the insurgent chief Ducassi was killed in the engagement with General Weyler's forces in the Budd Mile. Rubi hills.

CUPAN PRISONERS IN SPAIN.

Madrid, Nov. 15.—A dispatch from Havana to the Imparcial says: "The arrival of the Cuban exiles in Spain has had a bad effect here. The Spanish authorities in Cuba are of the opinion that these prisoners ought to have been sent to the Island of Fernando Po Instead of being taken to Spain for confinement.

This requires some explanation. The Cuban exiles have been sent to Fernando Po, Ceuta, and other penal settlements in Africa. If some of the exiles are now kept in Spain it is not because the gavernment is becoming because the government is becoming more humane, as the Spanish in Cuba seem to fear, but because, as reported in one of the Sun's recent letters from Madrid, the African penal colonies are so overcrowded with Cuban exiles that the government is obliged to plunge them into the dungeons at Manjuich Castle, in Barcelona, and other peninsular fortresses.

Madrid, Nov. 15.—A despatch to the Imparcial from Hong Kong states that the report from Manilla that the Spaniards had won a brilliant victory over the insurgents at Novaleta, the latter losing four hundred killed, was incorrect. The truth is that the Spaniards attacked the rebel position at Novaleta on Nov. 8, but could not carry them, the rebels being strongly fortified. An-other attack was made on Nov. 11, when the Spaniards were repulsed with covered in four hours The cars arrived at Brighton irregu-larly. The procession which it was proposed to hold upon the arrival of the cars was abandoned in consequence of a heavy fall of rain. The occasion of the race was the going into effect of the law opening the highways to the use of motor cars, and doing away with the vexatious restrictions that have heretofore prevented their use. Under the old law self-pro-pelled vehicles were not allowed to go faster than six miles an hour, and had preceded by a horseman bearing a red flag.

AMERICAN APPLES SELL WELL. Jealous German Growers Unable to

Keep Them Out of Hamburg. Boston, Nov. 14.—A private cable-gram received in this city from Hamburg states that the first shipment of apples received there from Boston had just been disposed of, and netted from $2.50 to $4 a barrel, according to quality.

These are considered remarkably high prices, and especially as there has been a determined effort in some quarters in Germany to keep out the American product by circulating absurd stories about apple containing germs of disease. The cable further stated that the supply was insufficient for the requirements of the trade.
