MURDERER WAS GIVEN A HEARING

After Which Alderman Howe Committed Him to Trial in Court.

WAS A MATTER OF FORMALITY

Attorney John J. Murphy is retained to defend Dambrosio--At the Hearing County Detective Leysbon Swore and Was Corroborated by Constable Timothy Jones That the Defendant Admitted He Killed Rocco Salvatore.

Frank Dambrosio, Rocco Salvatore's murderer, was given a summary hearing in Alderman Howe's office yesterday afternoon at 4.30 and after the evidence of Coroner Longstreet, County Detective Leysbon and Constable Timothy Jones had been heard, Dambrosio was formally committed to the county jail to await trial in court.

Mr. Leysbon brought the prisoner Dambrosio to the court house and was made on the street car. They got off at the corner of Washington avenue and Spruce street...

When the hearing began the warrant was read by Alderman Howe to the prisoner. It was sworn out by Mr. Dambrosio and it charged him with the deliberate, premeditated, and willful killing of Rocco Salvatore...

Mr. Leysbon was sworn to testify that he saw Dambrosio on the morning of Nov. 14, when he arrived at Bunker Hill, Dunmore, he first saw the dead body of Rocco Salvatore...

Death was caused by the wound on the right side, but it might result from a wound as was on the left side, from shock.

The intermediary was a young man named Rafael Caserio, who keeps a cigar stand in Carbonade. He was placed under arrest and on the way to the county jail he turned state's evidence...

They first went to the police station there and got Chief McAndrew and Patrolman McAndrew with them to Carbonade house...

Mr. Murphy objected to any statement made by the prisoner while under duress should not be used as evidence against him...

That was all the testimony taken and District Attorney Jones asked the defendant to issue a commitment for Dambrosio, holding him without bail for trial in court...

DAMBROSIO COMMITTED. That was all the testimony taken and District Attorney Jones asked the defendant to issue a commitment for Dambrosio...
