WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Celebration of the First Anniversary of Electric City Commandery, No. 177, Knights of Malta.

Electric City commandery, No. 177, Ancient and Illustrious Order of Knights of Malta, was one year old last night and in commemoration of the event an entertainment and general jubilation was held in St. David's hall. For a yearling the lodge is really a wonder on its roll and has attracted the members, four of whom were killed, two by railroad accidents and two in the mines. The phenomenal growth is without par in Scranton and the lodge is the foremost of the kind. David John, has reason to be proud. Mr. John was assisted in organizing the lodge by Evan R. Jones. The formal organization was made in Moore's hall on the night of November 16, 1895, and was the work of Past Grand Commander A. T. Hamilton and Grand Reverend George H. Pearce, of Philadelphia, and a "team" from John Knox lodge, of Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Pearce was at the celebration last night. He gave an eloquent address to the benefits of the order, touching upon the patriotic influence and exhorting from the non-members further interest in the welfare of Electric City commandery.

The entertainment was public and the hall, gallery included, could not contain the crowd of people. The room was elaborately decorated for the affair. Artist Furman, who was in charge of the decorations, did his work in a generous way. A dozen large American flags, arranged in semi-circles covered the greater portion of the bare walls and the effect of the red, white and blue was brightened by a number of lanterns. The chandeliers fastened equidistant about the walls and ceiling. The central chandelier focused a number of colored streamers. After a welcome by the past commander, introduced the chairman of the evening, Past Commander William J. Thomas. Mr. Thomas made a brief opening address. In the program which followed there were a number of excellent features. Crum's band played a couple of overtures and William Morgan and Edward Richards sang a tenor and baritone respectively. Mr. Morgan was the humorist of the evening. The comedy work of this man has been referred to before in The Tribune. He sings his songs without a smile while the audience breaks loose in laughter. Misses May and Nellie Clarke sang songs and Professor W. J. Thomas and Mr. Clark played several pleasing banjo-guitar duets. The Columbian quartet, also, was present. The members, G. and Emory Morgan, Herbert Jones and Frank Hughes, sang last night with their old time harmony. George Crump, the talented leader of the band, favored with a trombone solo and Harry Holby sang a lullaby selection. Thomas Abrams sang a tenor solo in the voice. The Dickson orchestra delighted the audience. Another feature which for tone was far above the rest of the programme were the recitations of Miss Mattie Hughes and Miss Bessie Shute, two little tots, who are pupils of Miss Margaret Gibbs. The music was with piano accompaniment, Miss Gibbs playing.

The affair was a great success and the lodge can congratulate itself upon attaining a recognized place in the entertainment-making organizations of the West Side. The officers now are William L. St. John, Christopher Robertson and Thomas Davy.

OBITUARY NOTICES.
William Roe, formerly of Pittston, died yesterday at the home of Clem Marsh, Jr., on South Hyde Park avenue. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Marsh residence. Burial will be made in Washburn Street cemetery.

The funeral of the late Peter F. Allen took place yesterday afternoon from the family home on Chestnut street. Many of the deceased's friends were present at the obsequies. The testimony made to the memory of the deceased by floral offerings was generous and the designs were very beautiful. Rev. Thomas Dixon, of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, preached the funeral sermon. Ezra Griffin, post No. 129, Grand Army of the Republic, and Union Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, attended the funeral in bodies. The pall-bearers were selected from the Grand Army men, who were in charge of the burial service at the Forest Hill cemetery.

Mr. Joseph Hallstrom, aged 31 years, died last evening at her home on Pleasant street. She is survived by her husband and an infant child. The funeral arrangements were not completed last night.

Interment of a child of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Jones, of Eynon street, was made yesterday afternoon in Washburn Street cemetery.

FOR COMMON COUNCIL.
It looks as if the battle for common council in the fifth ward will be interesting. By "the battle" is meant the effort to get the Republican nomination. There are no Democrats in the Fifth. Up to date there are three candidates, David Williams, Chester Cammer, and C. E. Godshall. Mr. Godshall announced his candidacy last night. He is one of the most prominent Republicans in the ward. Messrs. Cammer and Williams will make an earnest fight. About eight pairs of eyes are gazing fondly at the eminence worn by Alderman Blair, of the Fifth. The alderman, himself, takes a glance at it once and awhile.

A SURPRISE PARTY.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Evans, of Acker street, Bellevue, were tendered a surprise party Saturday evening. The occasion was Mr. Evans' birthday. Music, vocal and instrumental, and refreshments were served. Those present were Henry Hitchings and wife, Joshua John and wife, and sons, Masters David T. and Bradley T. John; Professor D. D. Lewis and wife, Esau Price and wife, William Lewis and wife, and son, William, Jr.; D. Reese and wife, Mrs. Margaret Williams, Mrs. Thomas R. James, Misses Mary Price, Anna G. Price, Mary C. Powell, Philip R. Thomas, all of President, during recent years the chief dance of the year was conducted by the rank and file of Company F. This year the subscription dances will be the thing.

A SUBSCRIPTION DANCE.
The society folk of the West Side will conduct a subscription dance Thursday evening in St. David's hall. A number of ladies prominent in social doings, are interested and will be present. The music will be furnished by the band. It is expected that it will be a standard for the social season, and that a number of similar affairs will be held during the period. During recent years the chief dance of the year was conducted by the rank and file of Company F. This year the subscription dances will be the thing.

CANTATA THIS EVENING.
This and tomorrow evening the Jackson Street Baptist church will present to the public a production of the cantata "Joseph," under the auspices of the church choir. Professor Lewis Davis, chorister, has trained a chorus of seventy good singers, and the individual soloists include a number of well known vocalists. The cantata will be given for the benefit of the church. Tickets are 50 cents. The young leader, Mr. Davis, is deserving of generous public appreciation for his work in directing the many rehearsals, and there should be a good attendance at the production.

"THE FATAL CARD" IS DRAWING.
The West Side schoolmen are fast disposing of tickets for the benefit performance "The Fatal Card," which will be played next Friday and Saturday evenings at the Frothingham theater. The schoolmen are using every known and several unknown methods in advertising their show, and success is already assured. Several tax parties are being formed, tonight at the homes of Miss Margaret Gibbs, of Sherman avenue, will be added to George Conroy, of Everett avenue, at St. Patrick's church.

WEDDING BELLS.
T. J. Powderly, a nephew of the ex-labor leader, and Miss Julia McAndrew, of Rebecca avenue, will be wedded this afternoon in St. Patrick's church. In the morning at 9 o'clock Miss Agnes Harrison, of Sherman avenue, will be wedded to George Conroy, of Everett avenue, at St. Patrick's church.

MISCELLANEOUS CHIT-CHAT.
The work of the last meeting of the board of trade was veritably better than any other meeting in a long time past. Business seemed to have been the chief topic of conversation. Mr. Tilling, the new secretary, has added much force and business precision to the doings of the board.

PERSONAL MOVEMENTS.
Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes, of Wilkes-Barre, were the guests of the day of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Phillips, of South Hyde Park avenue.

Mrs. Kate Parr-Fenton, of Wilkes-Barre, spent Sunday with West Side friends.

Miss Grace Meyers, of Clark's Summit, has returned home after a visit to Miss May Clarke, of Sweetland street.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Death of Miss Celia Boyle, of Fig Street, in Wilkes-Barre, Where She Had Been Visiting.
Ten days ago Miss Celia Boyle, of Fig street, went to Wilkes-Barre to visit at the residence of Rev. J. J. Curran. She was suddenly stricken with an attack of peritonitis, which became so serious that removing her home was out of the question. She died yesterday morning. The news is a shock to her many friends. A high mass will be celebrated at Holy Savior church, of which Rev. Father Curran is pastor, this morning, and the remains will be brought home on the 10:05 Delaware and Hudson train.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Boyle, 829 Fig street. A solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated at St. John's church, and interment will be made in Hyde Park cemetery.

PROVIDENCE.
Among those present at a party tendered Chas. W. Griffin, of Chinchilla, in honor of his twentieth birthday, Saturday evening, were Charles Conston, G. C. Charles Hopewell, Misses Amy Decker, Eva Meredith, Cora Gernon, Gertrude and Fannie Kennedy, all of this city.

A new electric light has been erected on the corner of Keiser avenue and George street.

Miss Mary Hadsel, of Green Ridge street, has accepted a position with W. H. Anderson, the North Main avenue newsdealer.

JOHN GRIFFITH AS RICHARD III

Given a Picturesque Impersonation of the Royal Butcher at Academy.

STAGED IN AN EXCELLENT MANNER

Sam T. Jack's Creoles Give a Very Entertaining Performance at the Davis Theatre—Two Jacks' Company at the Frothingham Tonight.

The "Richard III." of Shakespeare was a bad man, of that there is no reasonable doubt, but it is a matter open to at least a reasonable doubt if he intended him to be the kind of a bad man and worse king that John Griffith personifies in his night business. The small audience in the Academy of Music, Mr. Griffith possesses an ardent temperament and a love of color; a distinct improvement on his first characterization of Richard than in the costuming and scenery.

But with all the variety of coloring in his staging, scenery and acting, the fact that he is a bad man is not a matter open to at least a reasonable doubt if he intended him to be the kind of a bad man and worse king that John Griffith personifies in his night business. The small audience in the Academy of Music, Mr. Griffith possesses an ardent temperament and a love of color; a distinct improvement on his first characterization of Richard than in the costuming and scenery.

His supporting company contains several actors of considerable ability, among them Eugene Moore, Charles Peters, Anna Boyle-Moore and Celia France. The staging was the best that "Richard III." has ever received in this city.

One of the longest and best shows of its kind that Manager Davis has given to his patrons is Sam T. Jack's new Creole company which played to large audiences at the Lincoln street theater yesterday afternoon and last evening. There are twenty-three members in the company, all black and about equally divided, male and female. The evening was a "Creole" order, opening with "H. M. S. Pinafore" in ten minutes, and closing with a great buck dancing contest. This last feature is very popular with the negroes who like dancing must see those twelve or fifteen colored people hammer the stage with their feet. Thrown in all along the line are the popular negro songs of the day, and the show has a real live negro magician who smashes your finger rings for you; then gives them back with bouquets attached. The show is a Turkish harem. Hypnotic plays selections from operas on common glass tumblers and Mlle Cordelia and Billy McLean do some of the most wonderful things ever seen in a show.

No comedy now on the road has seen more genuine success than "A Pair of Jacks," by H. Gattin Donnelly, which comes to the Frothingham this evening. The piece is full of fun, fast and furious and coupled with a strong cast, beautiful girls and good music, an evening of great satisfaction is promised.

We are told that in "Superba," which opens for two nights at the Frothingham tomorrow evening the famous and world known Hanlon Brothers' mammoth creation, that we will find an edition of last year's "Superba" was originally intended to be a pantomime, which the silent clown with gesture and facial contortion graphically describes his wants, and by dumb show performs many amusing feats. All the old scenery has been discarded and new and more elaborate has replaced it—majestic baronial halls, mountains, deliciously furnished parlors, ornate interior that would grace a Sultan's Harem, and glimpses into the marvelous fairy land are each to the other transformed. The whole is cepted together with a score or more of very pretty girls, beautifully formed and costumed in the latest and most modern manner. The ballets that these dancers give are a scene in themselves. Some are exact reproductions from the latest successes of the London Alhambra and the New York Olympia, so that one can see the very best of the best of all that New York and European cities are talking about.

Every season since its organization the Primrose & West Minstrels company has visited our city and found always substantial welcome. Their repeated success is owing to the fact of the united excellence of their organization, the artistic merit of each performer, the refinement of their entertainment, the novelty and pleasing attractiveness of their introductions, and the superior quality of their music. The organization of whites and blacks, headed by Primrose & West, is said to be the greatest aggregation ever gotten together. The company will be
