FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

An Evening of Music and Literature at the Methodist Church.

An audience which filled the lecture room of the Methodist church enjoyed the musical and literary entertainment given on Manday evening under the management of Mrs. W. G. Scurry and Miss Olina Herring, Misses Rena Daley and Olma Herring, Misses Rena Parey and Olma Herring rendered a piano duet, followed by a cornet solo by George Ackerman, played in a very pleasing manner. George D. Darte, of Wilkes-Earre, favored the audience Wilkes-Barre, favored the audience with a recitation which was so well received that he was recalled three times and rewarded with warm applause. Mrs. Hannah Leonard gave a solo with her accustomed good taste and pleasing voice. Miss Ida Snyder, with Mrs. Leonard, sang the duet, "Till We Meet Again." Professor Carl Hessler rendered a violin solo from Greig (a.) "Cradle Song; (b.) "Gypsy Dance." An amateur orchestra gove several selections, which were highly enjoyed. The members of the orchestra are as The members of the orchestra are as follows: Mrs. W. G. Scurry, A. L. Vandermark and Jessie Jones, banjo-ists; Misses Grace Hathaway and Alice Butler, guitar; D.
