Inquiry Into the Affair of the Spy to Be Reopened -- Billot Angered the Deputies -- Minister of War's Tone Was Too Domineering -- Premier Forced to Accept a Compromise.

London, Nov. 19.—The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon publishes a dispatch from Paris, which says that the Meline ministry had another hair-breadth escape in the chamber of depu-

"At one moment its best friends had abandoned all hope, and nothing but deputies, independently of party politics, saved it from downfall. The domineering tone of General Billot (the minister for war) roused the hostility of the chamber, and M. Meline at first declined to supplement Billot's statement until he noticed that his own friends were deserting him. Finally he accepted the compromise (in the form modification of M. There was an animated discussion afterwards in the lobbles, and it was the general impression that the government would be forced to order new prosecutions in connection with the Dreyfus case; that it was preposterous for the country to pay (2.500 ($12,500) yearly for the prisoner's keep, and that it would have been better to shoot

GOBBLING WOOL FOR A RISE.

Chester Countians Buying All They

Can Get in View of Protection. West Chester, Pa., Nov. 19.—There is considerable activity among the mill operators of Chester Creek valley since the election, and wool is being gobbled up in large quantities. The manufacturers of woolen goods are purchasing it and packing it away in all available buildings. Dozens of loads are oeing hauled to the factories daily.

One manufacturer last week received establishes title to seven million acres of land in the northwest, on which St. Paul, Minneapolis and other smaller towns are located.

TO SAVE ROCKAFELLOW.

His Attorney Making a Desperate Effort to Keep Him from Prison. The case of Annie Meier against the aged ex-Banker F. V. Rockafellow for aged ex-Banker F. V. Rockatellow for embezzlement was called for trial in criminal court at Wilkes-Barre yester-day. Judge Edwards, of Scranton, was present to preside specially in the case as the local judges had some in-terest in it as depositors and did not wish to preside.

Attorneys John T. Lenahan and Frank W. Wheaton who represent the defendant made an effort to have the cases against the ex-banker quashed on the grounds that it was tried once and that the defendant suffered the the patriotism animating a number of deputies, independently of party poil-penalty. Mr. Lenahan argued that the facts in the case were not disputed and that there was nothing in the case for the jury to decide. He said the defend-ant was indicted for violating an act of assembly in taking money from de-positors when he knew his bank to be insolvent. That Isaac Long made a deposit of $625 on the day before the bank closed, later had Mr. Rockafellow arrested and convicted and sentenced by Judge Lynch to two years and two months in the Eastern penitentiary. Mr. Lenahan then stated that the Mei-er deposit was received on the same day as Mr. Long's deposit, and added that the defendant could not be guilty of each separate deposit. If so it would virtually mean a life punishment and if Rockafellow had 350 depositors he could be sentenced to 350 years. He argued that one conviction and punishnent would satisfy the law, and held that a conviction of one case was a bar to the conviction of any of the other District Attorney Fell and James L. Length argued for the prosecution.

Mr. Feli said the Meier deposit was made at 4.15 p. m. after banking hours and after the Long deposit, and added that the law distinctly says that each offense can be punished by a fine double the amount of the deposit. They also filed a plea in demurrer against the plead of the defendant's attorneys.

Judge Edwards said the plea was of considerable importance at the thresh-old of the case and added that he would not dispose of it before 10 o'clock today at which time he requested all of the parties interested to be pres-

Generalities About Her Marriage to John Stetson Will Not Do.

Boston, Nov. 19.—Adah Richmond, the actress, who says that she is the widow of the late John Stetson, and who wants a part of the large estate left by him, has received a setback in her contest of the will.

to be performed, and many personal matters to be attended to. They have mending to do, and dresses or bonnets to make, and long into the night they toil, for they must look neat, and they have no time during the day to attend to personal matters.

Women, therefore, notwithstanding their delicate organism, work longer and more closely than men. They do not promptly heed such signs as headache, backache, blues, pains in the groins, bearing-down, "all gone" feeling, nervousness, loss of sleep and appetite, whites, irregular checked, will launch them in a sea of misery.

There is but one absolute remedy for all those ills. Any woman who has to earn her own living will find it profitable to keep her system fortified with this tried and true woman's friend. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound speedily removes the cause and effects a lasting cure. We are glad to produce such letters as the following from Miss M. G. Mc-Namee, 114 Catherine St., Utica, N.Y.:

"For months I had been afflicted with that tired feeling, no ambition, no appetite, and a heavy bearing-down feeling of the uterus. I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Soon those bad feelings passed away; I began to have more ambition. my appetite improved and I gained rapidly in every way, and now I am entirely well. I advise all my friends to use the Compound, it is woman's truest friend."
