

C. E. Rittew, of Carbondale, spent yes-terday in this city. Ensign O. P. Jackson, of the warship Indiana, is home on a short furlough. William Hart, of New York city, is visiting Fred Lehr, of Sanderson avenue, Captain Samuel Hines has returned from a trip through Maryland and West Virginia.

1111 1 11

Rev. N. F. Stahl and family have re-turned from their stay in Germany and are now at New Castle, Del. Arthur Dunn, of Judge Hand's office, and Harold V. Wells will go to New York city today to witness the Princeton-Yale game tomorrow game tomorrow.

Hon. John R. Farr has returned home from the trip through the state in the interest of his candidacy for speaker of the house of representatives, Remarkable Bargains.

Children's all wool coats in Cardinal, Navy and Myrtle (4 to 12 years); worth $6.00, for $3.95.

Irish Frieze coats in Oxford Mixtures, ligh storm collars; regular price $7.50, for $4.75.

Black Rough Boucle coats, new collars and sleeves; a very stylish gar-ment; worth $10.00, for $6.88. ment; worth $10.00, for $5.88, A very large line of Misses' coats, no two alike. The cream of fashionable garments; many of them will fit ladies wearing a 32 or 34. Can be bought at half the price of ladies' coats of same Mears & Hagen. material.

BIG PRICE FOR REAL ESTATE.

Ex-Lieut .- Gov. Watres Makes a Purchase at $964 Per Front Foot.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Watres has his early business experience in New purchased of Stephen Jones the lot on Spruce street, near the Mears build- Nashville, Tinn., where he had been ing. The price was the highest ever paid in Scranton, $27.36 a square foot, and $22,500 total. The transaction was completed prior to Governor Watre's the formare devotes his attention to be checks and floor of the store while completed prior to Governor Watre's departure for Europe. The lot is bounded by the alley at the rear of the Mears building, in the rear by a lot owned by Dr. Gates and on the eastern side by a lot owned by Davidson & Oakford Davidson & Oakford Davidson & Oakford.

Wants in The Tribune are read by people who hire help.

Made of the very finest Vici Kidwith latest style toe-toe made to fit any foot-with heavy soles for damp fall weather.

And we fully guarantee every pair.

Ē

FITTING A COAT.

The Leader store aims to present to it customers. Their desirability and the "small profit" principle do the rest. In order that there may be no lapse in this policy a permanent buying agent has been established in New York city and either Mr. Lebeck or Mr. Corin visit that big trade center avery other work every other week.

They're sold all over the country for $3.00 per pair-Our price is

SCHANK & SPENCER,

his early business experience in New Collins; a duet, "The Wounded Sol-] terday afternoon and evening, and the dier," by R. Kirkwood and F. Pulaski; a recitation, "Home, Sweet Home," by M. Munley; a burletta, "The Trouble-The company contains some excellent ard Lindsay, who is the musical direc-tor of the dramatic association. One of the orchestral numbers was "The St. Thomas College March" dedicated to Rt. Rev. William O'Hara, which was heard for the first time in public at the matinee. The entertainment concluded with a three-act drama, "Maurice, the Wood-cutter," presented by the St. Thomas College Dramatic association. The Leader's success. The principle of "small profit and many sales" influences the firm in all Saleable goods rather than its buying. slightly defective articles are what three-act drama, "Maurice, the Wood-cutter," presented by the St. Thomas College Dramatic association. The principal role was enacted and well en-acted, too, by J. E. Gallagher, who possesses far more than the average amasesses far more than the average ana-teur ability. The others in the cast were G. McMullen, J. Roder, D. Jor-dan, J. Brogan, K. Burnett, A. Colli-gan, F. J. Connery, J. J. Jordan, W. e. McGee, E. O'Malley, F. Kennedy and D. Broade, C. Malley, F. Kennedy and R. Kennedy. The play was carefully and correctly staged and costumed, and altogether was an exceptionally fine amateur performance.

MARSHALL IS IMPROVING.

Recovery of the Colored Youth Who

Was Shot Is Expected Confidently. Yesterday the condition of Baxter Marshall, the colored boy who was shot in the legs by John Morgan, was very in the legs by John Morgan, was very much improved and the chances are that he will get well. He will not be entirely out of dang.r, however, for three or four days more. Morgan was taken up to the county and yesterday afternoon. Upon being searched his pockets were found to con-tain a quantity - large buckshot and a piece of lead weighing a pound and fitted up for use in a fight. The fami-ly of young Marshall is not disposed to press the case against Morgan, feeling that it was an accident

The first question he asked of Chief of Police Robling was: "Boss, d'ye tink I'll go down de line?" IN POLICE COURT.

The purchase of big lots explains the reason for The Leader's frequent "special" sales. During a ribbon sale

The purchase of big lots explains the reason for The Leader's frequent "special" sales. During a ribbon sale ford S or sentenced to thirty days in jail for being drunk and carrying an open the firm comprised nearly 5,000 pleces. The customer who purchased but one yard or a yard and a half

Luther league, Baptist Young People's union, St. Andrew's Brotherhood and a number of others. There will be a platform entertainment in the auditorium consisting of pearance and created favorable im-pression. The entertainment con-cludes with a burletta entitled "A Trip to Texas." New and popular choruses and ballads were interspersed through the metagements and ways diver in the performance, and were given in

For

. . .

cate for a twelve months' engagement

. . .

vocal and instrumental music and ven-triloquism and slight-of-hand by Charles E. Douglass. The decorations will be very pretty and refreshments will be served. The whole combining an evening of rare pleasure.

Men's Christian association in its building on Wyoming avenue. The association's reception committee will entertain the various young people's societies in the city, including the Christian Endeavor, Epworth league,

THE WHOLE STORY of the wonderful cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla is soon told. It makes the blood rich, pure and nourishing. It cures scofula, catarrh, rheumatism, HOOD'S PILLS act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Cure all liv-er ills. 25 cents.

Make your wants known through our want columns. Only one cent a word

We grow another inch. Our which ended, however, in a lively box-tor of the dramatic association One and trimmings are now to be had at

> "Rexford" prices. Strings Violin, Banjo and Guitar Strings. All kinds except the poor kind. Firstclass strings have always brought fancy prices in Scranton. Things will be different now. Strings you've paid from 20 to 35 cents for we shall sell for 10 and 15 cents.

creditable styl². The Fair Sex Busleque troupe will occupy the stage of the Davis theater for the balance of the week. Mandolins The favorite in-We have just been informed by the management of the Clara Weiland, Zaco company, that the inimitable strument of sunny Spain. No wonder she's too poor to conquer Cuba with mandolins Clara and the transformation dancing priginator, Zaco, have just signed con-tracts with Richard Warner & Co., selling here (tariff paid) at $2.90. Better ones all along up to $12,00. theatrical agents, of London, England, representing the South African syndicate for a twelve months' engagement at the enormous salary of 200 pounds ($1,000) weekly. This, however, will shorten their American engagements in Baltimore, Maryland, on Dec. 12, sailing for London on Dec. 16, and for South Africa Jan. 2, opening in Johan-masburg Jan. 23. The announcement of this engagement will be a grant dis. Mouth Hohner makes the Organs best. No doubt about that. Nobody ever sold a Hohner for less than a quar-

this engagement will be a great dis-appointment to many of the theatrical managers of this country as they were Turkey Most here. The tenbooked for a six-months' tour through the United States, but will be com-pelled to cancel all engagements after Time derest bird carves better-tastes better-if Dec. 12. Members of the company with them are Richard Petrot, the mon-Thanksgiving we will sell Meriden arch of mimicry; Warden Brown, America's representative German dia-lect comedian; the Misses Dane and Cutlery Co.'s hand forged steel carving sets for $1.00. Hahn, introducing singing and acro-batic dancing specialties; the Broth-ers, Davenports, comedy acrobats and over the Lehigh Valley ticket office. The following prices will satisfy you that they are the cheapest in the city: Solid gold-rimmed spectacles at $2.50 per pair; filled bows at $2; nickle bows from 50c. to $1.50; aluminum bows from 75c. to $2.00; colored glasses from 25c. to $1.25. We have a large line of reading glasses, the best in the Comprising everything requisite for fine Merchant Tailoring. And the same can be shown to advantage in his splen-dialy fixted up rooms If you have not seen us in our new store it will pay you to call.

Prairie Chickens, Wild Ducks. CONRAD, HATTER Lack AV. W. H. PIERCE, PENN AVE. MARKET

416 LACKAWANNA AVENUE