RUMOR IS BUSY IN CUBAN AFFAIRS

A Reported Change of Spanish Policy Toward Cuba.

HOME RULE ALLOWED THE ISLAND

General Weyler to Be Recalled--Two Men Said to Have Been Named in His Place--The Third Commander Sent Out to Crush Cuba Proves a Failure.

New York, Nov. 20.—The many rumors received during the past few days from Madrid, to the effect that Captain General Weyler will be recalled from Cuba by the Spanish government on account of his failure to check the revolution, are confirmed by a cablegram received in this city last night from the Spanish metropolis, by Senor Jose Gutierrez, a Cuban ex-patriot.

According to this dispatch the enemies of General Weyler have succeeded in urging on the government the necessity of sending to the island a military commander who is better equipped to deal with the insurgents than the present captain general, as there is a great deal of dissatisfaction over General Weyler's failure.

If the present plans are carried out, Spain will send to Cuba two men, one as governor-general and the other as lieutenant general. Both of these offices are now occupied by General Weyler.

Ex-Minister of Colonies Maura, who is mentioned for the first position, is a leading autonomist and author of what is known as the "Maura Plan." General Pando, who was sent back to Spain by Captain General Weyler upon the latter's arrival in Cuba, is spoken of for the office of lieutenant general. "This step," said Senor Gutierrez, "is taken for the purpose of conciliating the members of the Autonomist party in Cuba, with the hope that there is still a chance to end the war by granting to the Cubans home rule. This, however, will not be accepted by the Cubans, not even by the Autonomist party, and we consider this concession as coming too late, and, besides, the party is now almost disorganized, most of its members having united with the revolutionists."

GENERAL PANDO'S RECORD.

General Pando, who, the dispatch says, will succeed Weyler as commander of the Spanish army in Cuba, served in this succession, as he did in the ten years' war, but did not agree with his superior as to the manner of conducting the war, and after heated argument General Weyler ordered him to return to Spain. General Pando has many influential friends in Spain, however, who have since been secretly working against General Weyler until their aim seems at last to have met with success.

"If the Spanish government takes this action," said Minister Tomas Estrada Palma, "it will be not only an admission by Spain that the revolution has become very serious, but a direct slap at General Weyler and his methods of warfare. I do not believe, however, that General Pando can accomplish any more in Cuba than General Weyler. He will be the third commander sent to Cuba to try to crush the Cuban arms, and as General Martinez Campos, who was lenient and mild in his administration of the affairs of the country, and General Weyler, who has ruled with an iron hand and resorted to the utmost cruelty to restore peace, have both proved unsuccessful, I do not believe, however, that General Pando or any other commander they might send."

PROMISES OF AUTONOMY.
About the new promises of autonomy which Spain will probably make to the Cubans through Senor Maura, the Cuban minister said that it was not until the time of home rule under Spanish rule has passed, and not under any circumstances will we consider such promise. This war is one for independence, and the loveliest new designs imaginable will not be accepted until we are exterminated. But autonomy, never!"

'E KNIGHTS FOR SILVER.

A Solid Plank is Adopted at the Convention at Rochester--Will Be Submitted to Local Assemblies.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The general assembly of the Knights of Labor had a rather lively session this morning. The recommendations of the general master workman, Sovereign, were endorsed by the adoption of an addition to plank seven of the preamble of the order to read:

"Resolved, that silver when so issued, shall be by the free and unlimited coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1, regardless of the action of any other nation."

The following resolutions, sent in by District Assembly 41, of Maryland, were adopted:

Where, it is believed by many, and is now a demonstrable fact, that the great objection to the Democratic and People's platforms in the recent campaign were those of the Democratic party, and that the sixteen plank of the preamble of the Knights of Labor, and which plank, in brief, put the party in line with the people in opposition to the issuance of more government bonds and favored the issuance of the people's money, it is the duty of the medium of exchange direct to the people, without the intervention of the banks; and

Whereas, the various chambers of commerce and boards of trade and banking associations of every kind have already commenced their warfare on the currency known as greenbacks and treasury notes, with a view to having them all retired, and an interest bearing bond issued therefore, thereby leaving the circulating medium of the people entirely under the control of the national banks of the country; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the general assembly of the Knights of Labor in convention assembled denounce this attempt so soon to be made to take from the government of the people the sovereign right in the present money and to pledge ourselves to renewed efforts to defeat this nefarious scheme.

Resolved, that we call on the people everywhere to watch their representatives in congress and demand from them such legislation as will continue the use of and issuance of government money, in preference to money of private corporations, and to the preservation of the people's sovereign rights as enunciated by Hamilton, Jefferson and Jackson.

The proposition to abolish the mileage tax imposed for the delegates to the general assembly was defeated.

Copies of the new plank relating to free silver will be sent to all the local assemblies and will act separately upon it. A decision rendered to admit to the general assembly representatives from isolated local assemblies of one delegate for every 1,000 members is important as there are in the isolated assemblies about sixty thousand members. This will materially swell the number of delegates to the general assembly.

DR. CONATY SELECTED.

He Will Succeed Bishop Keane at the Catholic University.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 20.—The Sun this morning publishes the following special:

Rome, Nov. 18.—Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Conaty, rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Worcester, Mass., has been appointed by the pope rector of the Catholic university at Washington, D. C., to succeed Bishop John J. Keane, who resigned Sept. 29, 1896.

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 20.—Dr. Conaty was shown the Baltimore dispatch this morning, and announcing his appointment as rector of the Catholic university, but did not care to talk about his appointment, because, he said, he had not yet received any official notification and it would not be proper for him to discuss any plans in advance.

He was grateful to the press and public for the many kind expressions toward him and their show of confidence.

CANNOT BEAT BOYER.

Efforts of the Combles Will Be Fruitless--Bottom Has Fallen Out of the Countrymen's Campaign.

Harrisburg, Nov. 20.—The Patriot says that the bottom seems to have fallen out of the campaign against Henry K. Boyer, Philadelphia, for speaker of the next house of representatives. The efforts to form a combine of country members against him has failed and the chances are that the combine will be abandoned long before the Republican caucus is held. Benjamin K. Focht, of Union, has jumped the combine and will support Boyer. William A. Bedford, of the Dauphin, is ready to quit because of the refusal of his colleagues to promise his support. Senator Quay's friends here say John R. Farr, of Lackawanna, will not have the entire delegation from that county.

This leaves George Kunkel, of this city; Ward R. Billas, of Delaware, and Herman North, McKean, in the fight. Kunkel has been voted for by the Dauphin delegation, but there is doubt as to whether John M. Heagy, of Steelton, will vote for him if he sees he has no chances to win.

HARRISON'S ANSWER.

The Telephone Inventor Makes Serious Charges Against Many Prominent Politicians.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Edward M. Harrison, the telephone inventor who was made a defendant in the suit for a receiver for the Harrison International Telephone company, brought Oct. 5, by two stockholders in the federal court here, filed in court today a long answer, practically admitting all the charges of fraud and wrecking and alleging that he was also a victim of the schemes of President L. E. Ingalls and his associates on the board of directors. Among them he names United States Senator Stephen B. Eldkins, ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles Foster, George R. Peck, general counsel of the St. Paul railroad, Congressman William Warner, R. C. Kerens, Republican national committeeman from Missouri, and Patrick Egan, ex-minister to Chile.

Harrison alleges that the company is utterly insolvent, its assets have been squandered by officers and directors who voted in salary to themselves and money for mythical expenses. He joins in the petition to have the business wound up and the men who fraudulently secured stock be ordered to pay back the cash. He says all the assets have been absorbed in the interests of the officers and the stockholders defrauded.

The assertion is made that P. C. Hanford, who was the State's representative in Chicago, killed himself when he learned that he had invested $40,000 in worthless shares of the company. He charges Ingalls with falsifying the minutes of the annual meeting, which he controlled by holding a big majority of shares.

SAM STEWART ARRESTED.

Thought to Have Been Concerned in the Murder of Frank P. Arbuckle.

New York, Nov. 20.—Samuel Stewart, alias "Sheeny" Sam, thirty years of age, who is one of the four men believed to be concerned in the alleged robbery and possible murder of Frank P. Arbuckle, was arrested today after being arraigned before Magistrate Brann over the Harlem court. When taken to police headquarters he acknowledged that he had been in Arbuckle's company on Wednesday night at the Hotel Menger and Stevens, and that the party had several drinks together. Arbuckle was intoxicated. Some one suggested a game of cards, and Arbuckle refused to play. Stewart and he left the party and positively did not know what became of Arbuckle.

All of the prisoners will be re-arrested in court tomorrow. They are now in custody.

Acting Inspector Thompson who has charge of the case, said this afternoon that he expects the whole mystery would be solved by tomorrow, if it was known that the men now in custody had arranged a scheme to swindle Arbuckle and the others were none too good to drug and rob him.

JUGGLED THE ACCOUNTS.

Bookkeeper Kline of the Farmers' Bank Arrested for Embezzlement.

Lebanon, Pa., Nov. 20.—Harvey M. Kline, bookkeeper in the Farmers' National bank, was arrested last night by Sheriff Geary of National Bank Examiner Marshall Winchester on charges of making false entries, embezzling and appropriating to his own use $5,000 of the bank's money. The accused admitted his guilt and will be taken to Harrisburg for a hearing.

The bank will not lose a cent. Kline's bondsmen being responsible for the amount.

Death of Rev. Tuttle.
New York, Nov. 20.—The Rev. Dr. Isaac Henry Tuttle, rector emeritus of St. Luke's Episcopal church, died this morning at his residence after a lingering illness more than a year. Dr. Tuttle was one of the oldest of the Episcopal clergy in this city, having been born in New Haven on Feb. 8, 1811. For almost half a century he has been an active figure in church work.

Earthquake in Delaware.
Wilmington, Del., Nov. 20.—This afternoon this city was shaken by what was supposed to be an earthquake, but the Dupont Powder works. Later it was learned that no explosion of the works had taken place, and the shock was thought to have been an earthquake. The ground shook quite perceptibly for a second or two. No damage was done.

READY FOR THE FOOT BALL GAME

The Yale and Princeton Giants in New York City.

LARGE ATTENDANCE IS ASSURED

Admission Tickets Only Can Be Procured--The College Boys Will Paralyze the Spectators with New Songs and Yells--Line Up of the Players.

New York, Nov. 20.—With the last finishing touches which were applied this morning at New Haven and at Princeton the work of the great army of coaches and trainers is done and the result of the twenty-first annual struggle for the foot ball championship between the eleven of Yale and Princeton lies in the brown and snow of the men who will wear the blue of reform and the orange and black of historic Nassau. From 1876 to 1895 the struggle has been waged every year, and the scale of honor shows a lowering in the regular champion and only once Princeton's six, and that once, in 1881, the balance was even, neither side having a victory. The custom heretofore for the morning of the Yale-Princeton game that the crowd would be greater than that of any other game, and whatever the case in previous years, there is absolutely no doubt that, provided the weather is suitable, the attendance at this game will be a record. The betting was set at the Princeton advance sale of tickets. Seats on any of the stands are not to be had until the chances are in the favor of a big advance. The capacity of the field is about 20,000, and the only tickets available are the cheap ones. There are 8,000 admissions which confer standing room only.

The graduates and undergraduates of both colleges were spared no pains to make the contest a memorable one. New songs and cheers have been rehearsed at Princeton and Yale, and the vocal efforts of the day are likely to astonish the spectators.

BOTH TEAMS ARRIVE.
Both teams and substitutes arrived in the city this evening. The Yale contingent are at the Plaza, as usual, and the Tigers at the Murray Hill. The Princeton "scrubs" accompanied the varsity at the Plaza. The management. The men all appeared to be in fine condition and there was an air of confidence on both sides. The followers of the orange and black soon felt that the chances are in their favor, and slight odds were obtainable at the stock exchange today that Princeton would win. But the bulk of the betting was at even money for while Princeton's showing through the season entitled them to a degree of favoritism, the knowing ones kept in mind the well remembered 26 to 1 favorite luck story which have been always floated before the eventful hour, but which somehow have with just as much pertinacity failed to materially alter the odds of the old Bill's sons at the critical moment.

The gates will open at noon and play will be called at 2 o'clock. Paul Dashiell, of Lehigh, is against Princeton. The line-up will probably be as follows:

Princeton.	Position.	Yale.
Church	.....left tackle.....	Woods
Galley	.....center.....	Chamberlain
Armstrong	.....right guard.....	Armstrong
Wheeler	.....right tackle.....	Marphy
Cochran	.....right end.....	Hazen
Smith	.....quarter back.....	Smith
Ball	.....half back.....	Every
Kelley	.....right half back.....	Miller
Baird	.....full back.....	Hickey

HARVARD-PENNSYLVANIA.

Preparations for the Great Struggle to Take Place in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—Harvard and Pennsylvania meet tomorrow on Franklin field in their annual contest for the gridiron. The struggle between the two teams promises to be one to the death. For almost the first time this year Harvard will go upon the field with a complete team. They are in fairly good condition. Heretofore at all games this year Harvard has been unable for various reasons to field a complete team. They have been in the game, but tomorrow when they line up against the Quakers they will have the strongest eleven they have had this year.

Since Monday night the Pennsylvania men have been drawing in life and strength among the mountains around the Delaware Water Gap. The team came back from the mountains and were given a royal reception by their fellow students. This afternoon the students of Pennsylvania almost to a man assembled at the Hotel Statler and university and 2,500 strong, headed by a brass band they marched to Broad street station to meet the team. Nearly every man carried the colors of the Pennsylvania, and when they massed themselves upon the station platform they made the big train shed ring with their cheering and song. When the train alighted from the train arriving at 6.40 there was a wild rush of enthusiastic students to greet them and a mob of police, which had been swept away by the cheering, howling mob of men who swarmed down upon the players. It was only by main strength that "Corny" Cameron, the his men forced their way through the cheering mob, and, finally, in despair, of reaching the street, the players scattered and made an individual run of it to the street cars to take them to the training house. After the escape of the players the students reformed into ranks and marched to the Hotel Statler, where they cheered for the Harvard team and then the procession took up its way to the university.

PENN VASTLY IMPROVED.

The Pennsylvania men looked vastly improved by their couple of days' outing in the mountains and every man is fit and ready to play tomorrow for his life. The followers of Pennsylvania cannot see how their team can lose, and few of them will admit that, barring the fatal fumble and block kick, which have created such havoc with the Quakers' play this year, the team is not so good as the followers of Harvard are not so sanguine of victory as they might be, it is shown by the fact that they are demoralized almost a unit in the betting.

Immense preparations have been made for the game tomorrow, and the stands enclosing the gridiron at Franklin field will be filled tomorrow with people, for, if Philadelphia is true to its sporting instincts, in any thing it is in foot ball, and all Philadelphia are almost a unit in their loyalty and partisanship to the wearers of the red and blue. The officials for tomorrow's game will be Wyckoff, of Cornell, umpire, and Hickey, of Yale, referee. The line up of the two teams, as they will in all likelihood appear, follows:

Harvard.	Position.	Pennsylvania.
Houyok	.....left guard.....	Woods
P. Shaw	.....center.....	Gloverfield
J. N. Shaw	.....right guard.....	Wharton
Wheeler	.....right tackle.....	Farrar
Beale	.....quarter back.....	Dickson
Wrightington	.....left half back.....	Weeks
Wrightington	.....left half back.....	Geibert
Dillon	.....full back.....	Morice
Brown	.....full back.....	Minds

MR. BAYARD'S PLEASANT TALK.

He Waves the Olive Branch at Burnley Mechanics' Institute.

London, Nov. 20.—At a meeting tonight at the Burnley Mechanics' institute the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, the American ambassador, presented to the winners the prizes that had been awarded to them by the institute.

The corporation of Burnley presented an address of welcome to Mr. Bayard, in reply to which he said he represented his country as a friend of Great Britain. There was no imaginative cause, just or reasonable, for difference between the people of Great Britain and the United States. The same principles were the basis of both governments.

TO BENEFIT WIDOWS.

The Pennsylvania Woman's Suffrage Association Will Submit an Act at Next Legislature.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 20.—The Pennsylvania Woman's Suffrage association adjourned tonight. This afternoon officers were elected: President, Mrs. Lucretia L. Blankenburg, of Philadelphia; vice president, Ellen H. E. Price, Swarthmore; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary B. Locke, of Chester; recording secretary, Miss Olivia C. Penock, Lansdowne.

Mrs. Margaret B. Stone, of Bradford, Mrs. Blankenburg delivered her annual address. Among other things she said:

If the husband fails to make a will the widow is entitled to one-third of his and her point personally absolutely, and the income of one-third of the real estate for her life. If there are no children, but collateral heirs, she is entitled to the use of one-third of the real estate for life, the mansion house for her life, and one-half the personal property absolutely. If the wife owns property and the husband acquires the widow is entitled to all the personal property and the use of all the real estate during her life.

She then submitted to the convention the act which will be sent to the next legislature and urged all to work for its passage. An act relating to the share of the widow in the estate of her deceased husband dying intestate:

If a husband fails to make a will the widow is entitled to one-third of his and her point personally absolutely, and the income of one-third of the real estate for her life. If there are no children, but collateral heirs, she is entitled to the use of one-third of the real estate for life, the mansion house for her life, and one-half the personal property absolutely.

At the afternoon session memorial services were held in honor of the memory of Mrs. Mary Grove, the founder of the Pennsylvania division.

NO DECISION REACHED.

Women's Temperance Union Unable to Locate the Next Convention.
St. Louis, Nov. 20.—The general officers of the Women's Christian Temperance union were unable to reach a decision today on the city in which the next convention will be held and it was decided to defer the selection until the following month.

The cause of rejecting most of the invitations is that the officers thought it would be wise to select some place near Toronto where the world's convention will be held right after the national convention, thus giving delegates an opportunity to attend both gatherings.

BUCKET MEN ON TRIAL.

Case Against the Chicago Swindlers is Heard by the Jury.
Chicago, Nov. 20.—The federal grand jury today heard evidence against the quartette of alleged bucket shop swindlers that operated in Chicago last winter. They are charged with the sale of stock on margin and the taking of large sums of money from investors.

The alleged swindlers are William H. McClure, Dr. John M. Craig, William A. Thomas and John I. Talman. They operated both in Chicago and New York, and the officers claim they pocketed about half a million dollars during the time of their operations.

Election Officers Indicted.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 20.—The grand jury for New Castle county today found indictments against each of the three election officers of this county.

The indictments charge that they tampered with the polls and that they were guilty of bribery.

Corbett Willing to Box.

Boston, Nov. 20.—Corbett tonight accepted the offer made by Warren Lewis, president of the Greater New York Athletic club, to fight a prize fight with Fitzsimmons in New York on Jan. 14.

HANNA DISCUSSES THE SITUATION

Thinks the Republican Party Will Never Have Another Close Call.

WILL BEGIN WORK OF EDUCATION

Bryan's Power Over the Workingmen Is Gone--Silver and Gold Will Never Again Be the Issue in Politics--McKinley's Most Difficult Problem.

Cleveland, Nov. 20.—Chairman Hanna, of the Republican national committee, had a conference here today with F. W. Peck, of Chicago, in which Mr. Hanna gave an inkling of an expression by President-elect McKinley in his forthcoming message, outlined the future policy of the Republican organization and discussed the last campaign. This interview, according to Mr. Peck, is as follows:

"The Republican party," said Mr. Hanna to Mr. Peck, "will not have such a close call again as it had in the last campaign. The work of education is to be conducted strongly from now until the next presidential election. The policy of the administration will be in exploitation of the ideas that will further advance the strength of the Republican party."

"The one great power for Bryan was the workingman. Bryan posed as their friend and succeeded in getting them practically in line for him. The fight at the polls was not so much between gold and silver as it was the fight of the workingman against the man they thought was the exponent of trusts and monopolies. They were led to believe that McKinley was the candidate of trusts, and to not mince matters, was my candidate, and that I was the heavy creditor of trusts. The Populists very audaciously made me the whole thing and called me the oppressor of labor of course. I can stand this sort of thing, but with McKinley it is different. The labor leaders here who are friendly to me tell me that if we are to be successful again we must counteract this impression, and that is what we propose to do."

"We cannot do anything with the farmers. They have left us, but we can get the labor vote and we shall begin now to direct it away from Mr. Bryan and his party."

"How will Mr. Hanna do this?"
"Why he knows very well that something more than mere assertion that the Republican party is the friend of the workingman is necessary, and that national legislation will be so handled that it will be the best educator of the people."

CURRENCY FIGHT ABANDONED.

Mr. Hanna said further to Mr. Peck: "The fight of silver against gold was practically abandoned before the campaign closed. It will never again be the main issue—that is, silver as a political issue will never cut any more figure than greenbacks. The one idea must be to instill into the heads of the men of the cities that Republicanism is better than Popocracy. Only let Mr. McKinley be inaugurated president of the United States and this will be done. There must be an arrangement that will strike the people at the right time. McKinley will assume a dignified attitude if antagonized to all trusts and monopolies. His inaugural speech will breathe a spirit of abhorrence for the centralization of such power as is today possessed by the trusts and we will expect the understanding of the people to do the rest for the following three years."

"Four years hence will come the next presidential election, with the election of a congress. Then, when the public mind is attuned to the idea that McKinley is the enemy of trusts, we shall have a tariff measure introduced. This measure will be closely identified with McKinley. On that we shall make the presidential campaign of 1900. On the tariff agitation we shall rely to win the battle."

"The gold Democrats will be with us when I was in New York that there was no use of the fighting, so that they could not fight us successfully on the tariff and that there were no other points on which we and they differed. The only thing left for us to fight for was the name. That is true; that class of Democracy which is not of the farm, is with us now and will be with us four years from now."

Relative to matters concerning the cabinet, Mr. Hanna said:

"The most difficult problem McKinley has is the formation of his cabinet. He is a man who above all things dislikes to injure the feelings of any one. There are so many men eligible and it is hard to choose one who has no fears to appoint one man for fear others will feel aggrieved. That is a quality in him that attracts all men and shows the big heart that lies within him."

Early this evening Mr. Peck went to Canton to see President-elect McKinley.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Coroner's Jury Holds Charles Kaiser Responsible for His Wife's Death.
Norristown, Pa., Nov. 20.—The coroner's jury tonight charged Charles O. Kaiser with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Emma P. Kaiser. The latter was shot and killed on the night of Oct. 25. Kaiser was also wounded at the time and he claimed that he had been robbed by highwaymen who shot him and his wife. Some of the alleged stolen articles were afterwards found and Kaiser was arrested, charged with the murder of his wife. There was an insurance of $10,000 on Mrs. Kaiser's life, and she had made a will in favor of her husband.

The inquest took place this morning, and the evidence produced was decidedly against Kaiser. The latter admitted to Chief of Police Rosenbaum and Detective Frank Crier, of Philadelphia, that though he did not murder his wife, he knew who did. He refused to tell the name of the alleged guilty party.

The jury's verdict follows: "That Emma P. Kaiser came to her death by a gun shot wound inflicted on the 25th of October, 1896, in the township of Upper Merion, by Charles O. Kaiser, Jr., being the result of a conspiracy entered upon by the said Charles O. Kaiser and others."

After the verdict had been rendered Kaiser waived a hearing before a local justice of the peace and was committed for trial.

Herald's Weather Forecast.

New York, Nov. 21.—In the Middle States today, partly cloudy to cloudy and chilly weather prevailing, followed by a rise of temperature and by rain or snow by the evening or at night. On Sunday, cloudy to partly cloudy weather, with fall, with slight temperature changes, fresh and brisk, with easterly to southeasterly winds and rain or snow in the northern districts, with winds probably coming dangerous on the coast.
