IT WAS AN AGREEABLE SURPRISE

Principals Age All Finished Artists and the Chorus of Thirty-five Voices is One of the Best Heard in Scrauton for Some Time .- Entertain-Academy of Music.

An agreeable surprise was sprung on the city's music-lovers and theater-go-ers last night by the International ers last night by the International Grand Opera company, which sang "Lucy of Lammermoor" in the Frothingham theater. Scranton has been so often fooled by so-called grand opera that last night's production proved a sort of agreeable disappointment to the small, but select, and much pleased audience. It is probable that this afternoon's "The Bohemian Girl" and tonight's "The Troubadour" (Il Trova-tore) will be generously attended; certainly the merit of the company de-serves and will probably get a patron-age better than that of last night. Miss French displayed a soprano voice of such pronounced purity of tone that it may be honestly described as being senior George, now presides. It proved a degree above extraordinary. She, too, is an actress of no little preficiency.

Mr. Gaynor's baritone was of peculiar richness and fully merited the frequent applause bestowed upon it. He showed himself well schooled in technique. The other principals were Themself well schooled in technique. The first provided in the land all will on Dec. I mean an expenditure of $250,000.

Miss Wieland is a very versatile young woman, and her efforts last night were received with great favor. Zaco's studies were beautified with electrical effects. They were "Aurora, Rays of Northern Light," "Grammar of Arnament." "Metomorphosis, birth.

Other very entertaining features of the performance were the acrobatic work of the Davenport Brothers, mimicry of Pitrot, songs and acrobatic dancing of Misses Dane and Hahn and slight-of-hand performance of Horace Goldin. The performance will be re-peated this afternoon and evening.

ECHO OF PHILADELPHIA FAILURE. Executions Filed Here Yesterda Against Rosa Gerson.

Gerson's millinery store at 413 Lacka-wanna avenue, was closed by the sheriff yesterday afternoon on two execu-tions amounting to $5,995.25. There is a possibility however that there will be no sale and that the store will be opened within a few days as there is ing.

The executions are both issued against Rosa Gerson, one judgment for $2,000 being held by Myer Gerson, and the other for $3,995.25 being held by S. Abeles & Co., of Philadelphia. Rosa Gerson is the owner of the Philadel-phia store which failed Wednesday. The Scranton branch is owned by her husband, Isaac Gerson. The Scranton store it is claimed cannot be attached for the debts of the Philadelphia house, and consequently, it is asserted, the executions will not stand.

The closing of the Scranton store is entirely due to the failure of the main store in Philadelphia, the local manager stated yesterday. The local concern has been doing a big business and its affairs are in excellent shape. Julius Traugatt, the Scranton manager, went to Philadelphia at noon yesterday and it is expected that on his return today or Monday everything will be righted.

When Deputy Sheriff T. J. Price closed the store yesterday there was a great surprise among the employes. were told however not to worry over their positions as they would all be summoned to come back to their places in a few days.

The failure of the Philadelphia house is attributed to a disastrous fire last spring and the miserable fall trade. Last night the following came by United Press concerning the Philadelphia failure:

Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Rosa Gerson, who conducts a big general store at Forty-eighth street, assigned today. Mrs. Gerson confessed judgments to the amount of $89.044. The full extent of the liabilities or the value of assets is not known. It was said today that every one would be paid in full, as the assets were in excess of the liabilities. The failure was caused by the general depression in business during the last few months, and was owing directly to the action of seywas owing directly to the action of sev-eral New York firms in forcing settle-

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Rendered by Judge Edwards at Wilkes-Barre in Rockafellow Case.

Judge Edwards, presiding specially at Wilkes-Barre, yesterday handed down an important decision in the case of ex-Banker F. V. Rockafellow, who has just served two years in the eastern penitentiary for embezzlement. Upon his release several of the remaining depositors had him arrested on the same charge. When the case came to trial, John T. Lenahan, attorney for the defense, moved to quash the indictments on the ground that as he had already been tried and convicted for this offense he could, not be convicted in jeopardy the second time. Judge Edwards decided in favor of Mr. Lenahan's contention and ordered the banker to be released.

er to be released.

If this decision stands, Rockafellow cannot be prosecuted by any of the remaining depositors of whom it is alleged he received deposits after he knew he was insolvent. The case will be taken to the Superior court. Properties in New Mexico.

Three thieves went into the furniture store of Alderman Christian Storr on Cedar avenue yesterday afternoon and made away with the alderman's ment by Vaudeville Company at them but the clock under his coat and another carried the coat under his arm There happened to be no one in the store at the time.

When they got out on the street, a man who saw them going in and from their looks did not think they were up to any good purpose, followed them and succeeded in getting the coat away from the thief who had it. They ran as fast as they could toward the Orchard grounds, where they were cap-tured by Patrolmen Schmidt and Neuls, with the clock still in their posses-

City Treasurer C. G. Boland yester day sent out letters to the holders of the $100,000 worth of bonds which fall due on Dec. 1, notifying them that interest ceases on that date and advising them to forward them to his office for redemption.

The bonds bear 6 per cent, and were The bonds bear 6 per cent, and were issued in 1876 under the title of "the consolidated loan," which name was given the issue by reason of the fact that it was made to clear up an aggregation of debts, some of the debt being bonds previously issued, some of it being to take up the floating debt, and some of it to provide for expenditures that had been made for improvements. that had been made for improvements. age better than that of last night.

The cast of "Lucy of Lammermoor" included but seven principals, each a pleasing artiste vocally and historically. MEETING OF THE POOR BOARD.

Mrs. Thorpe and Children to Be Sent Back to Eugland.

A short meeting of the poor board was held yesterday at which a number of applications for relief were heard. Mrs. Ruth Bragg, who resides on South Main avenue, West Side, wanted the board to help her. She was deserted by her husband, John Bragg, four months ago and since then she has tried hard to earn a living for herself and two childen whose ages are 3 and 6. During the examination Mrs. Bragg was subjected to, it was developed that her husband deserted her at Edwards-dale where they had resided for years.

Dr. Paine called the attention of the board to the case of Mrs. Thorpe and her five children of the West Side, who applied to him for aid. Five months ago her husband deserted her at Liverpool. England, and she at once sold her household effects and came to this country with her children. The famfly is not self-supporting and the sec-recary and Dr. Paine were instructed to take steps to have the Thorpes sent back to England.

Jehn Mears, a blind boy who resides at 538 Beech street, South Side, was brought before the board and it was decided to have the secretary make arrangements to have him treated at the Wills eye hospital in Philadelphia. Mrs. Kate Grieves, whose husband is in jail serving a term of imprisonment for shooting Dr. Newton, came before the board with her two children and was granted relief.

The attention of the board was called to the case of the Montgomery chil-dren, whose parents are now in prison. They are unfit persons to have the custody of the children and the board accepted them as charges and will have them indentured where they will re-

Three tramps, who were arrested by Park Policeman McManaman for building a fire in Nay Aug Park, were given a hearing yesterday morning in police court by Mayor Bailey and were discharged upon promising to leave the city in an hour. They gave their names, ages and addresses as follows: John Mack, 28, Pitts-burg: John Y. Coyle, 22, Harrisburg: John Collins, 28, Braddock. The young-est one of them had the appearance of refinement and the other two, al-thought only 28, looked like thirtythird degree tramps.

Scranton business men are well known for their enterprise, but few of them as yet have become interested in anything so far from home as New Mexico. For two years past, development work has been going on at ... alte Oaks, New Mexico, by means of diameter deliks and outcom provings and mond drills and outcrop provings and the entire coal basin, comprising several thousand acres has been secured. The work was first begun under Charles B. Eddy, of the town of Eddy, New Mexico, who discovered the coal basin and made his investigations with the Epworth league, Lu-ther league, Baptist Young People's union, St. Andrew's brotherhood, etc.

There will be five 5-minute addresses on the following topics: "The Origin and Purpose of St. Andrew's Brotherand Purpose of St. Andrew's Brother-hood." "The Origin and Purpose of the Luther League." "The Origin and Pur-pose of the Christian Endeavor So-ciety," "The Origin and Purpose of the Epworth League." "The Origin and Purpose of the Baptist Young People's Union."

Charles E. Douglass, the famous magician and ventriloquist will, during the evening, give a mystifying entertainment in modern magic, introducing some startling feats of necromancy and expose of spiritualism, and a new cabinet trick entitled "The Scance of Kali Durga."

Following the programme there will be a social time, during which a novel introduction scheme will be set in operation which has never failed to produce merriment and informality in any gathering. In connection with the social, refreshments will be served throughout the evening by the committee.

This notice is an invitation to the members of any of the above mentioned societies who may not have heard the announcement in their society.
