SCRANTON SOCIAL NEWS AND GOSSIP

Brief Mention of What is Doing in a Pleasure Way.

HANDICAP GOLF MATCHES

For Ladies and Gentlemen on Thanksgiving Day -- Well-Known Scrantonians Traveling in the South -- To-day's Foot Ball Game to Be Witnessed by Local Enthusiasts -- West Side's Subscription Dance ... Personal Mention.

There will be two handicap golf matches Thanksgiving Day on the Country club links, a gentlemen's match beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning and one for ladies at 3 o'clock in the in the afternoon. Entries at 10 cents each will be received by John H. Brooks or A. G. Hunt. The handicaps will be announced later.

The keys to the club lockers will be assigned by lot Thanksgiving morning

The formal opening of the lodge of the Country club will probably take place on Saturday of next week, at 9.30 o'clock at the lodge.

A party of prominent Scrantonians directors and stockholders of the Lack-awanna Lumber company, are on a trip among the timber lands of Missistrip among the timber lands of Missis-slppi. In the company are T. H. Wat-kins, H. P. Simpson, Major J. W. Oak-ford, C. P. Davidson, C. H. Welles, Henry Belin, Jr., J. B. Dimmick, F. L. Peck and C. D. Jones. They left Scran-ton via the Delaware and Hudson road on Monday in a special Pennsylvania on Monday in a special Pennsylvania railroad combination car in charge of a steward. They will visit New Orleans and will return to Scranton on Wednesday of next week.

Today's Yale-Princeton foot game in New York city will be at-tended by a number of Scrantonians, among whom are: Mrs. W. W. Scranton, the Misses Archbald, Miss Belin and A. G. Hunt, E. W. Thayer, Arthur Dunn, Harold V. Wells, Mortimer Ful-Dunn, Harold V. Wells, Morthner P. di-ler, Joseph Boies, A. E. Hunt, jr., J. B. Neale, Laurie Bliss, William Hager, James Blair, jr., John H. Brooks, Charles House, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fuller, George Brooks.

The first of a series of subscription dances to be given under the patron-age of the West Side's best known social element took place Thursday night in St. David's hall. The patronesses were: Mrs. William H. Freeman, Mrs. W. Eugene Thayer, Mrs. Clarence R. Thayer, Mrs. L. Harrington Gibbs, Mrs. Charles E. Burr and Mrs. George Benore. The hall was exquisitely dec-orated. Music was furnished by the Lawrence orchestra, Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Shryer, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Will Luce, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. F. Maydan Missos Grace and Holer P. F. Moylan, Misses Grace and Helen Thayer, Edith and Augusta Blair, Florence and Margaret Gibbs, Mrs. L. H. Gibbs, Alice Evans, North End; Anna R. Williams, Belle Vipond, Adelia Pen-werden, Kate Bowman, Edith Williams, Ella Williams, Margaret Edwards, Liz-zie Herrmans, Margaret Hutton, Mrs. B. B. Antrim, Miss Margaret Lehr, Miss Mame Elsinger, Miss Kate Rought, West Pittston; Miss Mabel G. Yost, Mrs. William Wright, Frostburg, Va., and Messys. E. W. Thayer, Bert Thayer, Robert Davis, Ralph Williams, Bert H. Dickson, Nicholls, Walley, A. L. Truax, George Barrowman, Frederick Edwards, Morris Miller, Edward vue, in honor of Miss Lulu Evans, of Williams.

. WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK:

Miss Minnie Weichel, of Hickory street, and James Miller, of Petersburg, were married Thursday evening at Miss Weichel's home by Rev. Mr. Nordt.

Christian Storr, jr., and Miss Elizabeth Herdick were married Wednesday evening at the parsonage of the Hick-ory Street Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. William A. Nordt, August Storr, a brother of the groom, was groomsman, and Miss Annie Weissman, of Irving avenue, was bridesmaid.

Wednesday morning Miss Agnes Kel-ey, of South Ninth street, and Frank McHugh, of Luzerne street, were mar-ried at St. Patrick's church by Rev. J. B. Whelan, Miss Elizabeth White at-tended the bride, and James Devine was groomsman. A reception was held after the ceremony at the bride's home. Mr. McHugh is master mechanic for the Traction company.

John J. Gibbs and Miss Alice May of the South Side, were married in St. Peter's cathedral Thursday afternoon.

Miss Della McAndrew, of North Sumner avenue, and Terrance Powderly, of Ninth street, a nephew of Hon. T. V. Powderly, were married Wednesday morning at St. Patrick's church, on Jackson street, Rev. J. B. Whelan performed the ceremony. The brides-mald was Miss Mary Gaughan, and the best man Christopher Powderly, brother of the groom. A wadding breakfast was served at the home of the bride.

Miss Elizabeth Lawrence and Louis E. Hughes were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ruth Lawrence on North Hyde Park avenue, by Rev. David Jones, of the First Welsh Congrega-tional church. The bridesmaid was tional church. The bridesmald was Miss Esther Thomas, and the groom's attendant Charles W. Bertine. A re-ception followed the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will reside on Taylor

The wedding of a well-known couple of West Pittston took place Thursday evening. They were Miss Sarah Law MacMillan and Francis A. Ellithorp. The ceremony took place at the bride's home. Miss Mary Kirk, of Woodside, N. J., was bridesmaid and Earl Ellithorp groomsman, Rev. T. W. Swan of the West Side Presbyterian church, was the officiating clergyman. The wedding marches and other music was by Oppenheimer's orchestra. of ivory white satin en train, with point lace trimming. She wore a trail-ing veil, fastened with orange blossoms and a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. She carried a handsome bouquet of lillies of the valley and orbouquet of lillies of the valley and or-chids. The bridesmaid was attired in pink tulle over satin, and carried a bouquet of Morit roses. Mr. and Mrs. Ellithorp will live at the residence of Ellithorp will live at the residence of the bride. The out of town guests were: Scranton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Briggs; Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrin, J. F. Adams, John Stark; Honesdale, Mrs. Ball and daughter, Antoinette; Cohoes, N. Y., Mrs, Pool; New York, Mrs. Wardrobe and Miss Isabel Johnson; New Albany, Pa., Dr. McKown and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, of 1139 Hampton street, and James B. Lewis, of Kingston, were married Thursday night at the bride's home by Rev. W. S. Jones, of the First Welsh Baptist shurch. Miss Margaret Reynolds, the and Mrs. Casper Iffland, of 1928 Price street, and Richard Fralich, of Ninth street, were united in marriage Thurs-day evening at the bride's home by Rev. J. Schoettle, of the Chestnut street Gernan Presbyterian church. Miss Freda Udtrodt, of the South Side, was brides' maid and Adam Iffland, the bride's brother, attended the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Fralich will reside at 1930 Price

OTHER SOCIAL EVENTS:

An at home at the residence of Mrs. An at home at the residence of Mrs. S. J. Fuhrman on Wednesday evening was attended by Mr. and Mrs. James F. Best, Misses Katie Kaiser, Susie Winebrake, Mamie Loftus, Mamie Fuhrman, Mary Karcher, Nora Loftus, Anna Best, Hilda Best, Sarah Gilligan and Rebecca Gilligan, and Messrs. John Berghanser, Emil Bonn, S. J. Fuhrman, John F. Scheuer, Andy Rest, Joseph John F. Scheuer, Andy Best, Joseph Heen, David Fuhrman, C. J. Mirtz, William Softly, John J. Durkin, John J. Coyne and P. J. McGuire.

On Thursday evening a surprise party was tendered Miss Lena Kellerman at the home of her parents on Birch street the home of her parents on Birch street by the following young people: Mary Hartman, Anna Schenck, Mary Maus, Julia Mirtz, Ella Dodendorf, Minnie Zang, Katle Hildebrandt, Barbara Brill and Katle and Lottle Kellerman, and Messrs, Henry Sames, Charles Snyder, William Kirst, William Ehr-bertte Fred C. Vanle Charles Sames hardt, Fred C. Neuls, Charles Sames, Fred Herman, William Maus, William and Charles Kellerman and Charles J.

The following Scrantonians on Thursday attended the sixtieth birthday anniversary celebration at Kingston of Peter Wolcott, brother-in-law of ex-Mayor John H. and Horatio T. Fellows, of this city: Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fellows and family; Councilman and Mrs. Horatio T. Fellows and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Oram, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Carlton, Mrs. Charles Fellows and family.

A very enjoyable surprise party was held Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Francis in honor of their daughter, Miss Bertha Francis and her cousin, Miss Ruth Thompson. Various games were played and at mid-night refreshments were served. Mrs. Francis, Miss Francis, and Miss Thomp-Francis, Miss Francis, and Miss Thompson received the guests and Mrs. Bircher and Mrs. Stone assisted in serving. Those present were Misses Edna Stone, Carrie Stone, Carrie Drew, Mable Belden, Hazel Hodges, Asna McCann, Hannah White, Esther Casterline, Lillie Mertz, Lizzie Martin, Ethel Beale, Lottie Beale, Anna Gibbons, Maggie Gibbons, Tillie Bargam, Caroline McDonald Marion McDonald Marie Stock. ald, Marion McDonald, Marie Stock, Maud Gilhool, Florence Pittinger, Grace Robinson, Blanche Scrine, Irene Maud Francis, Masters Bussel Bevan, Willie Francis, Arlie Drew, Walter Bircher, John Francis, John Beale and Robert Thompson.

In honor of the twenty-first anni-versary of their wedding Mr. and Mrs. versary of their wedding Mr. and Mrs. E. Drake, of Lackawanna, entertained the following friends Wednesday night: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tiffany, Brooklyn, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Millar, Miss Fannie Snover, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Doud, Greenwood, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Ziba Knapp, Green Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sanders, Dunmore; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hitchner, Miss Ina Hitchner, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman K. Drake, West Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Drake, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Drake, George C. Safford, George K. Drake, George C. Safford, Luckawanna; Mrs. Eleanor W. Drake, Master Carl Wood, Wilkes-Barre; Mr.

The Bon-Ton Social club of the Turn-Verein will conduct a social at Turner hall next Wednesday evening. The affair will be in charge of Professor Carl Starber, chairman; Edward Eisele, Nelson G. Teets, Edward D. Vail, Theodore Huber.

A tea was recently given by Mrs. Clark, Harold Batton, Eugene Fellows, William H. Bunn, W. R. Dawes, G. A. assisted in receiving by Mrs. Brundage, and Mrs. Davies, of West Virginia.

At a recent surprise party tendered Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Evans, of Acker street. Bellevue, there were present: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hitchings, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua John, and sons. Masters David T. and Brinley R. John; Pro-fessor and Mrs. D. D. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Esau Price, Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis and son, William, jr.; Mr. and Mrs. D. Reese, Mrs. Margaret Williams. Mrs. Thomas R. James, Misses Mary Price, Anna G. Price, Mary C. Powell, Philip R. Thomas, all of Providence, and Mrs. Watkin Harris, Mrs. W. John, John Evans, Benjamin Evans, Thomas Evans, John Jenkins,

A surprise party was tendered Mr. ad Mrs. Sig. Ross, of 513 Pine street, and Mrs. Sig. Ross, con Tuesday evening.

E. E. Betts, of Peckville, entertained a party of friends at Hotel Wilson Wednesday evening. There were pres-ent: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tunstall, Mr. and Mrs. William Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stone, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Welchel, of Scranton, and Mr. and Mrs. Maple Bell. Miss Lindner, Thomas Glover, Fred Berry, Frank Benjamin.

Judge F. W. Gunster, George Okell, Druggist Charles Koempel, Druggist Carl Robinson, Philip Robinson, of the South Side, and Michael McDonald, of Moosie, returned early in the week from a week's hunt in Pike county.

A trolley ride to Pittston was enjoyed Tuesday evening by a party of young folks from the South Side and young folks from the South Side and Minooka. Their names are: Misses Lizzle Kelly, Annie Connell, Lillie Gaffney, Annie Brown, Mamie Coyne, Bernetta Kelly, Mary Ryan, Mamte Fitzhenry, Ellen Ryan, Mary Mack, Mary Joyce, Kate Connell, Messrs, Thomas Loftus, John Brogan, P. H. Coyne, John B. O'Malley, M. F. Donahoe, Michael Hand, Jr., Patrick Flaherty, James Hurley, Bert Johnston, herty, James Hurley, Bert Johnston, John Coyne, Patrick Philbin, J. Kelly, Patrick Fitzhenry, Frank Gavin, C. J. Ruddy and T. Ambrose Donahoe.

On Wednesday evening-Thanksgiv-ing eve-the Young Men's Institute of the central city will hold their annual social in Siegel's.

A birthday surprise was tendered William Morgan at his home on North Bromley avenue, Monday evening last. The home was well filled with guests and everybody spent a most enjoyable evening. Refreshments were served. evening. Refreshments were served. Mr. Morgan, who was 24 years of age bride was kowned in a costume on that day, is well known and proved an excellent entertainer.

PERSONAL MENTION:

Miss Lizzie Wert, of Dunmore, is visiting in Wilkes-Barre.
Mrs. T. J. Coughlin, of Carbondale, is the guest of Dunmore friends.
C. P. Jadwin and S. W. Edgar were in New York on business Thursday.
Miss Mabel Blickens, of Chestnut street, Dunmore, is visiting at Crystal Lake.
Mr. and Mrs. Michael Natter, of Aller street, are home from their wedding journey. tey.

The Misses Donnelly and the Misse Ma-oney, of Pittston, were in the city

Howard Perrin. J. F. Adams, John stark; Honesdale, Mrs. Ball and daughter, Antoinette; Cohoes, N. Y., Mrs. Pool; New York, Mrs. Wardrobe and Miss Isabel Johnson; New Albany, Pa., Dr. McKown and wife.

Miss Elizabeth Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, of 1139 of Kingston, were married Thursday night at the bride's home by Rev. W. S. Jones, of the First Weish Baptist church. Miss Margaret Reynolds, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid and D. M. Reynolds groomsman.

Miss Anna Iffland, daughter of Mr. Miss Anna Iffland, daughter of Mrs. Frank L. Luckinbach, of Philadel-Mrs. William Humphrs ing after a long illness.

phia, have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Senderling for a few days.
Rev. D. C. Hughes, D. D., formerly paster of the Jackson street Baptist church, has been called to the pastorate of the Pilgrim Baptist church, of Brooklyn,

N. Y.
Mrs. Rota A. Mills, of Duke Center, grand worthy matron of the Eastern Star, which recently held a convention in Pittston, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Conners, of Lackawanna avenue, Mr. and Mrs. John Loten, who were married Tuesday morning at St. John's church, South Side, by Rev. E. J. Melley, left Thursday for Pittsburg to make their home there.

both there.

Dr. George A. Blanchard's resignation as senior house surgeon at the Lackawanna hospital will take effect on Dec. I, and he will open an office on Spruce street. Dr. John T. McGrath will then become senior surgeon and Dr. J. M. McAndrew, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will succeed him as junior surgeon.

CHURCH DOINGS AND RELIGIOUS TALK

Chroniclings of Particular Interest to Church-Going People.

SERVICE ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Central City Congregations to Worship Individually -- Union Service of West Side Churches .- Thanks giving Reception at the Y. M. C. A.

J. W. Dimmick, of Carbondale, was here on business Wednesday.

Hon. L. A. Watres sailed on Wednesday for Paris to Join his family.

W. S. Mears and Al. Turner, of the West Side, are home from New York.

Ex-Mayor C. E. Rettew, of Carbondale, was a Scranton visitor Wednesday.

Captain Samuel Hines is home from a trip through Maryland and West Virginia. Endiana, is spending a furlough with his parents, in this city.

Hon. John R. Farr spent a portion of the week in Philadelphia, looking after his speakership boom.

Henry Fellows, of Halifax, Ia. is the guest of his brother, Captain E. D. Fellows, and the Captain E. D. Fellows.

Exchanged C. F. Matthews, of the week in Philadelphia, looking after his speakership boom.

Henry Fellows, of Halifax, Ia. is the guest of his brother, Captain E. D. Fellows, and the Captain E. D. Fellows, and the Captain E. D. Fellows.

Exchanged C. F. Rettew, of Carbondale, was here on business Wednesday.

The central city congregations will worship individually, but on the West Side the English speaking congregations will be conducted by the young Christian Endeavor, at 6.30 p. m. Foliation Endeavor, at 6.30 p. m. This is the first Welsh Eaptist church to morrow.

Rev. D. C. Hughes, formerly pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, has received a call from a church in Brooklyn.

Suppers were held this week at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church.

Simpson Methodist Episcopal church.

Simpson Methodist Episcopal church and at the Hampton Methodist Episcopal church.

Rev. A. L. Ramer, of St. Mark's Luskop companion; 9.15

Rev. D. C. Hughes, formerly pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, has received a call from a church in Bunyan, "This is the first of a series of the Jackson Street Baptist church, has received a call from a church in Bunyan, "This is the first of a series of the Jackson Street Baptist church, has received a call from a church in Bunyan, "This is the first of a series of the Jackson Street Baptist church, has received a call from a church in Bunyan, "This is t ws. William Kane, of Port Huron, Mich., is Episcopal church at 7 o'clock a. m. Miss The ladies' soci probability that he will continue indefinately as its paster. Mr. Jones has accepted a call to the Priory street church in Wales. He is willing to stay with the Scranton church if the church in Wales will release him from his accéptance.

Under the direction of J. M. Chanc the following programme of music will be rendered at the evening service in the Second Presbyterian church:

Solo, "Lost Thy Burden on the Lord," Batchelder Miss Garrigan. Organ postiude, MarchGuilmant

The ladies' social committee of the

This is a cut of the new residence of T. H. Watkins, on Monroe avenue, between Vine and Olive streets. It is situated on the upper and east side of the street and commands an extensive view of all parts of the city. The style is French. There are but four residences in the city which represent a proportionate cost.

Boland, Mrs. Thomas May, of Archbald, is visit-ing her sister, Mrs. John Hawks, of North

Thomas Bruce, of Jermyn, was the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. William Colter, of Denew street, Dunmore,
R. Oshima, chief engineer of the Hokaida Coal and Railway company of Japan, is in this city inspecting the machinery and methods of operating the mines in this vicialty.

The United choir singers who sang during the October state convention of Christian Endeavor societies and the committee of '95 had a reunion Mon-and methods of operating the mines in this vicinity.

Miss Inez Irey, of Dunmore, on Tues-day evening- entertained the following persons: Misses Augusta Pinkney, Del-ia Williams, Kate Henjamin, and Annie Branning, of Dunmore; Miss Mattie Hards, of Carbondale; Dr. Prestoy, of Scranton, and Messis, Ditty, Hayes and Hollander, of Dunmore.

Miss Amy Huber, of Jackson street, is wenne.

Miss Mary Webster, of Nineveh, N. Y., s visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morse, of he West Side.
Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Dolph, of Madison (venue, are visiting in Cifford, Susque-street. Hey. Hugh Davis, of the Welsh Calvin-istic Methodist church on South Main avenue, is home from an extended western tilb.

Mrs. Fred Holdry, of Washburn street, and Mrs. George W. Chuse, of North Main avenue, have returned from New York

Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D. paster of St. Mark's Lutheran church, West Side, attended the national convention of the Lether league at Chicago this week.

Ar. and Mrs. Max Morello, of New York, of New York, have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Morello's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Harris, of South Main avenue. Main avenue.

WAVERLY.

Mrs. Nellie Linderman, of Troy, Pa., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mershon.
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cowles were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Gill-more, of Scranton, at dinner, last Wednesday.

The revival meetings at the Baptist church are nightly attended by large crowds, and will be continued next week. Rev. A. S. Brown, of Warwick, Conn., will fill the pulpit tomorrow at 10.30 a. m. and 7.39 p. m. · Rev. John Cavanaugh will fill the pulpit at the Free Methodist church to-morrow at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Thomas B. Smith, son of our townsman, A. J. Smith, who had been seriously ill with typhoid fever, will be home in a few days. A letter received by his father states that he is Hamilton, York state, recuperating previous to his journey home. George Bailey, nephew of Mayor James G. Bailey, and employed in his store on Penn avenue, Scranton, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed.

OLD FORGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Hoffecker, visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Harriet Knapp.
The social and supper held at the The social and supper held at the Brick church Tuesday evening was largely attended. Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, of Avoca was visiting her sister, 12.2. Tinkle-paugh, on Tuesday, Mrs. William Humphrey is improv-mis her sister, Mrs. John Hawks, of Norman Main avenue.

Miss Emma White, of Hazleton, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Foote, of Brook street, Dunmore.

Mrs. Feters, of Dunmore, was 76 years old Wednesday, and the event was appriately celebrated.

Mrs. John B. Davies, of Mahanoy City, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Reese Reese, of Washburn street.

Rev. N. F. Stahl and family have returned from their stay in Germany and are now in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deyo, of Schoharie, N. Y., are visiting Mr., and Mrs. John George Douglas and vocal and instrumental numbers. Refreshments will of Christian Endeavor societies and the committee of '95 had a reunion Monday evening in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian church.

H. Chandler, chairman of the c tion music committee, presided and read a letter from Charles E. Daniels, chairman of the committee of '96. The programme of addresses and song was inticuteed by a general song service in which the United chair took part. Miss Amy Huber, of Jackson street, is in Danville on a visit.

Miss Gertrude Scholl, of Ashland, is the guest of West Side friends.

Miss Jessie Kiees, of Archbald, visited Providence friends this week.

Charles Weber, of Dummore, is home from a southern trip of two months.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mct'omb, of Ashley, are the guests of friends on Irving avenue.

Miss Mary Webster, of Nineveh, N. Y., with the Christian Endeavor union. An autosy visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morse, of secial concluded the evening's

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Doloh, of Madison avenue, are visiting in Clifford, Susquenanna county.

Mail Carrier Leopold Johler returned to duty this week after enjoying his amount ten-day vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ford, of Wilker-Barre, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy, of Gibbons street.

Miss Moille Highland, of Carlonelale, has returned home after a visit with Miss Mamic Coyne, of Cedar ave.

Miss Bertha Bold, of Waverly, has returned home after visiting Miss Lizzia Krause, of Blakely street, Dunmore, Misses Kate Lewis and Sarah Davies, of Edwardsdale, are visiting Misses Sarah, Lillian and Mary Davis, of Eyen street, Mark Davis of Edwardsdale, are visiting Misses Sarah, Lillian and Mary Davis, of Eyen street, Mrs. Jones has resigned as pastered.

Rev. John Griffiths, who has been filling the pulpit of the Bunner Avenue Presbyterian chrein the Eugene Avenue Presbyterian chrein the Eugen tor of the First Welsh Baptist church. He has been called by the Priory Street church in Carmorthen, Wales, and had intended accepting. He has been in-duced to remain here as partor until at least next spring. There remains a possibility that he will reconsider his restoration. resignation.

The Bantist ministers held their regular meeting Monday in the Fenn Avenue Baptist church. Rev. A. B. O'Neil, Dunmere, presided. Rev. W. J. ord read the forty-sixth Psalm, after which Rev. Williams offered prayer. The session was particularly devoted to the reading of an exegesis on Hebrew ix, 11-12, by Rev. Levicus. Rev. Brown, paster of one of the Baptist churcin Norwich, Conn., was introduced. one of the Baptist churches

There will be an attractive programme rendered in connection with men's meeting held at the Young Men's Christian association Sunday af ternoon at 3.45. The association has regumed their auditorium series of meetings which they hold every winter, the design being to present attractions which will make the meetings popular with men of all classes. The special features on Sunday afternoon will be instrumental selections, a contraito solo by Miss Vandervoort, soloist of Elm Park Church choir, and male voic selections by the new Young Men's Christian Association Clee club which for several weeks has been rehearing under the direction of Prof. Chance. Secretary F. W. Pearsall, of the Railroad department, will give the address.

"The Ninth Street Baptist church was thronged by hundreds of young men and young women on Sunday evening to hear a lecture on 'The Elements of True Success,' which was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Warren G. Partridge," says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, "There was Commercial Tribune, "There was special music, which was very inspir-ing, and the song service after the lecture was crowded with young people. Many students of the different colleges of the city were in the great audience."

Rev. W. S. Jones has decided to re-pastor will preach; theme, "A Demon's Soothing Syrup," and take no other main with the First Welsh Baptist Face or an Angel's Face,—which?" kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

City Treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Della P. Evans will be the leader. Penn Avenue Baptist church conduct-

Cavnaugh, pastor.
The Ladies' Aid society of the United Evangelical church held a clam chowder supper Thursday evening from 5 to 9 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Donlin. New York street and Capouse avenue. On Sunday evening Rev. Foster U. Gift Legins a series of series on "Euryon's Pilgrim's Pregress." "The Life and Work of John Benyan" is the theme of the first ser-Manday evening New 92 will be at avenue.

The Young People's Society of Chrisian church gave a social in honor of the large number of new members of the large number of new members of the lacelety in the church because room last night.

The birthday party to have been held

Welcome.

clation is richer by a goodly sum as the result of the turker dinner and chicken support in the rooms on Washington avenue Thursday. Between three and four hundred persons partook of the two meals. took of the two meals.

Rev. G. L. Malce, of the Green Ridge United Evangelical church is visit not churches of his denomination in Susquehanna and Wyoning counties in the interest of the cause of missions. He will be gone about eight days. Rev. C.

N. Lee will on Sunday. At the Railroad department, Young Men's Christian association, Sunday af-ternoon at 2.45 o'clock an address will be given by Forest L. Fraser, assistant at the Wyoming avenue, Young Men's Christian association, Good music, A special invitation to all railroad men and families.

TOMORROW'S SERVICES.

First Church of Christ (Scientist), No. 519 Adams avenue-Sunday service. the 10,30 a. m. Experience meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock. All welcome; sents free.

Providence Methodist Episcopal church-Rev. William Edgar, pastor. The pastor will preach morning and evening. Subject, 10.20 a. m., "Temperance from Methodist Standpoint:" athject at 7.30 p. m., "The Great Tribu-cal." Sunday school, at 2 p. m.; Epworth League, at 6.45 p. m., led by W. D. Watkins Court Street Methodist church-Geo.

T, Price, pastor. Sunday services, lovefeast, at 9.30 a. m.; at 10.30, preaching by the paster, subject, "The Cause Temperance in the Light of the Present." Reception of members at the morning service. Preaching at 7.30 p. m. by Rev. J. G. Eckman, the Lord's supper to follow,
All Souls' Universalist church, Pine street-Rev. F. W. Whippen, paster. Morning subject, "The Home," a Thanksgiving sermon. Evening subect, "Pilgrims and Puritans," First Eaptist church, Scranton street

Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor, Sabbath morning, Rev. T. Bell, of the Plymouth Congregational church, will occupy the pulpit. In the evening the Sunday school, 2 p. m., Dr. Beddoe superintendent; Young People's prayer meeting, 6 p. m., W. D. Morris leader. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Green Ridge Baptist church-Rev. W. J. Ferd, pastor. Services at 19.39 a. m. and 7.39 p. m. Subject in the morn-ing, "The Searcher of Hearts;" in the evening, "Complaining to Jesus."

Green Ridge United Evangelical church—G. L. Maice, pastor. Preach-ing at 7.30 n. m. by Rev. C. N. Lee; Sunday school, 9.39 a. m.; K. L. C. E., song and praise service, at 6.30 p. m. Strangers welcome.

Grace Lutheran church, corner Mad-Ison and Mulberry street—Rev. Foster U. Gift. pastor. Services at 10.30 a. m. and at 7.30 p. m.; Sabbath school, at 9.50 a. m; Young People's Society of ing prayer and sermon: 7.30 a. m., evening prayer and sermon.

St. Mark's, Dunmore—Rey, Edward J. Haughton, priest. Sunday next before advent. 8 a. m., holy communion; 10.30 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 3 p. m., Sunday school; 7.30 p. m., evening prayer and sermon.

Olyphant Mission-3 p. m., Sunday school; 4 p. m., evening prayer and sermon.

Elia Park church-Preaching at 10.00

a. m. and 7.39 p. m. by the pastor, C. M. Giffin, D. D. Sunday school at 2 and Ebworth league at 6.30 p. m. Sirarson Methodist Episcopal church. West Side—J. B. Sweet, paster. Morning prayer service, at 9.30; preaching service, at 10.30. Sermon by the paster; Text. Hebrews, x:22; subject, "Drawing Near to God." General class meeting Near to God." General class meeting to follow the sermon. Sunday school, at 12 o'clock; Junior League, at 3 o'clock; Epworth League, at 6 o'clock; preaching service, at 7 o'clock. Sermon by the pastor; text. St. John's Gospel, i:11-12, subject, "Power to the Receiver of Christ." Free scats. A cordial welcome to strangers and friends. On Thanksgiving day Simpson church will unite in service at the Plymonth Congregational church.

Jackson Street Baptist church-Edward Howell will preach morning and evening. Theme at 10.30, "Who Hath the Greater Sin?" topic at 7 p. m., "Some Great Things in the New Testament." All non-church-goers are cordially invited. Seats free. Sunday school, at 2 p. m.

Green Ridge Presbyterian church-Morning service at half-past ten; evening service at half-past seven. Rev. John B. Worrall, D. D., will preach. Bible school, at twelve o'clock, and meeting of the Society of Christian Endeavor at half-past six.

Trinity Lutheran church, Adams avenue, corner Mulberry street-Rev. Ed-win Lunn Miller, pastor. Services at 16 30 and 7.30. Seventh Day Adventists-Subject for Sunday evening at 7.15. In Beer's hall, corner of Lafayette street and North Main avenue, "The New Command-ment," All are invited.

The Second Presbyterian church-Rev. Charles E. Robinson, D. D., pas Delia P. Evans will be the leader.

Every young persons society is invited to attend the meeting.

Penn Avenue Baptist church conduct for. Services at 10.50 a. m. and 7.30 b. m. The paster will preach in the a. m. on "God at Hand and Afar Off;"

The Eim Park and First Presbyterian church choirs rendered the cantata in the p. m., on "How Shall Christians "Saul of Tarsus," Tuesday night in in Scranton Stand Toward the City's the Methodist Episcopal church at Carbondale.

A tea will be served Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Kaufman at 5!7 Prescott ayende for the benefit of the Grace Lutheran Cariston Epidewse, at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.; benefit of the Grace Lutheran Cariston Epidewse, at 10.30 m.; Junior Christian Epidewse, service, at 4.00 p. m.; tian Endeavor.

A Christmas sale was held in the parlors of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church Thursday and Friday evenings. Thursday evening a turkey dincharge publits in the morning with change pulpits in the morning with the Rev. George E. Guild, of the Proviin Beer's hall, Hyde Park, corner La-fayette and Main streets, Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m. All are welcome, John Caynaugh, pastor,
The Ladler 313 evening. All cordially welcome to all

Calvary Reformed church-Corner Monroe avenue and Gibson street, Scrvices at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m., by Rev. C. H. Hinman.

African Methodist Episcopal church Rev. H. A. Grant, B. D., pastor, 10.30 a. m. and 8 p. m. Subject for sermon, "The Blood of Christ," 2, 30, Sunday school; 7 p. m., Christian Endeavor.
First Presbyterian church—Rev.
James McLeod. D. D., pastor. Services, 19,50 a. m. and 7,20 p. m.; Sunday Interesting time for all members and their tamilies who attend the enter-tahment at the Bailroad Young Men's Chestian Endeavor, 6.20 p. m. 19. McLeed will preach morning and evening. Thanksgiving services will be held on Thursday at 16.30 a. m.

The Church of the Good Shepherd-Green Ridge street and Monsey avenue. Sunday next before Advent. Holy

The birthday party to have been held at 70t Jefferson avenue, under the auspices of the Cirls' Friendly society, has been postboned until Thursday, of reat week, on account of the death of one of the members of the society.

In the birthday party to have been held welcome.

Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church—Love fonst at 10 a. m.; preaching at 1920 by Rev. J. G. Eckmar, D. followed by the sacrament. Receptor of the members of the society. of one of the members of the society.

The Primary Sunday School Terch-day school at 11.30. Enworth league at The Primary Sunday School Teachers' union will meet at 3.30 this afternoon at the First Prosbyterian church. The lesson for Sunday will be taught by Miss Henrah Williams, of the North End. The normal work will be in the pastor's choir of children at 7.20. The Young Women's Christian association is richer by a goodly may be pastor's choir of children at 7.20. Thanksgiving Day, turkey dinner from 12 till all are served. Twenty-five cents will secure you one of the best of The ladies of this church ar

Grace Reformed Episcopal church. Wyoming avenue, below Mulberry street—Divine worship, 10.30 a. m. and Evangelical charch is visiting es of his denomination in Sus-na and Wyoning counties in the loth retylers. Subbath school, at 12 m.: Young People's Seclety of Christian Endeaver, at 6.35 p. m. Seats all free; strangers condially welcome. Morning theme, "Christian Beneficially, be Railroad Cepartment, Young in Condition Townseason," Protheme, "Christian Temperance," Proverbs, xxxiii:31-32. Union bible class for the study of the Sunday school lesson on Monday at 7.45 p. m. All are welcome. A ten minutes conversation on lesson topic at the close of the study.

Special service on Thanksgiving day at 19.50 a.m. All are welcome. Penn Avenue Eaptist church—Rev. Joseph K. Dickson, D. D., paster, will preach at 19,20 and 7,20 o'clock. Theme of the merning will be "Morning on the Bills," and in the evening, "What are we Looking for?" A special song pervice will procede the evening ser-mon. Come and this the old songs with us. The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the evening, service. Itible school, at 2 o'clock; Young People's meeting, at 6.30. All cordially in-

The Volunteers of America-Scrann ! Post, will meet in their armory, 8 Washington avenue, as follows: ible reading, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Christians' praise and prayer service. Sunday afternoon at 3.45, to be addressed by G. G. Mahy, secretary of the Young Men's Christian association. Revival service, 8 p. m. All are cordially invited.

If the Eaby Is Cutting Teeth.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other

124-126 Wyoming Ava.

Below we quote you a list of the greatest values that we have ever offered. We have liberal reductions in prices in all our departments: Our motto-"Small and sure profits, often repeated, are the foundation of modern wealth." We are doing an enormous business, and the reason we do it is we sell desirable merchandise at extremely low

50 pieces entirely new dress goods embracing all the latest novel-ties, Our Price Special sale of 20 pieces checked all-wool dress goods, has been 29c., Our Price 17c 29c., Our Price
15 pieces 56-inch ladies' cloth, in all the different colorings, 49c. 371/20 quality, Our Price

All of our black and colored dress patterns have been marked down 40 per cent. below regular price, as we must make room for Holiday Goods.

One lot short length, in plain bro-caded silks and satins, 75c, grade, Our Price 10 pieces black brocaded silks, 75c.

Greater reductions in the Millinery Department this week than ever before. All of our trimmed hats have been marked down to exactly half price,

75 trimmed bats for ladies and $1.98 children that were $3.98, are now $1.98 45 trimmed bats for ladies and $2.98 children that were $5.00, are now $2.98 10 dozen tams for children's, wear 20c, are now 15 dozen cloth tams in all the different colors worth 25c., Our Price 20 dozen boucle tams 50c. grade, Our Price Complete line of children's cloth and silk bennets from 25c. to $2,50 a piece. 50 ladies' beaver jackets box fronts, velvet collars worth $2.49 $1.50, Our Price 25 boucle, Kersey and Irish freize Jackets, shield fronts, worth $4.98

59 dozen men's natural wool un-derwear, most superior values ever offered, all sizes, worth Sec. Our Price black embroidery, large pearl buttons, in tan, brown, red and white, regular price, $1.00, Our Price or would make for you at a saving of

The St. Denis

Breadway and Eleventh St., New York, Opp. Grace Church. European Plan. Reoms $1.00 a Day and Upwards.

in a modest and unobtrusive way there are few better conducted hotels in the metropolis than the St. Denis.

The great papu arity it has sequired can readily be traced to its unique location, its homelike sthosphere, the peculiar excellence of its cuisino and service, and its very moder-te prices.

WILLIAM TAYLOR AND SON

MRS. ROZELLE WINS.

Jury Awards Her a Verdict of $82.80

for Her Illegally Siezed Horse. A verdict of $82.80 for the plaintiff was returned yesterday morning by the jury in the case of Mrs. Maggie Rozelle against J. M. Atherton. The Rozelles owed Atherton $43 rent. He seized upon their horse and wagon and had it sold by a constable. Mrs. Rozelle claimed the horse as her private property and brought suit to recover, alerty and brought suit to recover, al-leging that she was not responsible for the rent debt. The jury believed her and rendered a verdict for what they thought the horse thought the horse and wagon was worth. Richard Holgate was attorney for Mrs. Rezelle. In the suit of Merritt Decker against

O. Halford for debt, the plaintiff was given a verdict of $30.48. A juty composed of Thomas Rafter, J. A. Cobb, c. Flynn. Edward O'Malley, M. Shopend and Lewish Bush, appointed to pass upon the mental condition of John Parek verterlay reported that they Bourk, yesterday reported that they and Bourk has been of unsound mind for over nine years.

THAT LAW BOOK

Of course can be printed at some other office, but if you want a good tob done quickly by expert workmen, you'd better consult The Tribune tob department. Its facilities for this kind of work are maurpassed in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Let us submit estimates,