WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Funeral of Andrew Robertson was Largely Attended from His Home on North Rebecca Avenue.

The funeral of the late Andrew Robertson yesterday attracted a very large number of friends, many from out of town attending to pay their respects to the worth of the departed. The services were held at the family home on North Rebecca avenue. Rev. T. Bell, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, and Rev. Peter Roberts, of Olyphant, officiated, and preached words of comfort to the sorrowing wife and sons and daughters. Many beautiful floral testimonials were received. Among these were a star and crescent, a pillow from the family, and six beautiful floral bouquets. The Diamond Mine fund attended the funeral in a body and from these the pall-bearers were selected, as follows: Robert Morgan, John Snyder, James Gillespie, Patrick Logan, John Malloy and T. Davis. Interment was made in Washburn Street cemetery.

From out of town the persons at the funeral were Mrs. George Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. John McGee, Miss Margaret McGee, Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, Mrs. Lewis Nemaugh; Mrs. J. Monday, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carroll, Mrs. Thos. Burkhardt, Miss Grace Robertson, from Audenreid; James Robertson, Pottsville; Anna, Christiana and Carrie Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank George, Mrs. Harry Widener, Miss Widener, Mrs. Edward K. ENDORSE MR. FARR.

At a special meeting of the West Side Republican ladies held last night resolutions were adopted endorsing the candidacy of Hon. John R. Farr for speaker of the house of representatives.

SOCIAL LAST NIGHT.

The Elite Dancing class gave its first social in Mears' hall last night, and it was a most pronounced success. The room was lavishly decorated but with an artistic discrimination that made the chrysanthemums and the other features of the decoration blend in a harmonious picture. About 150 young people were present, representing the various parts of this city, and the towns and cities up and down the valley. Bauer's orchestra furnished the music. The members of the Elite class under whose auspices the dance was held, are W. H. Bunn, Frederick Weins, E. G. Peters, Daniel Trainor, Samuel Lewis, Jr., and Gwilym Williams.

NEWS NOTES.

Llewellyn Lewis and Miss Margaret Jones, both of Olyphant, were wedded Thursday evening by Rev. David Jones, at his home on Lincoln avenue. An apron social and Welsh tea was held at the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church last evening. It was well attended. Mr. and Mrs. John Fern, of North Sumner avenue, leave today for a visit in New York city. The Ancient Order of Britons will hold a smoker Dec. 9. David Owens is home from Bloomsburg State Normal school. For Monday bargains go to Mears & Hagen. Special prices in gingham, prints, outing flannels, comforts, blankets, underwear and hosiery. Dr. E. Y. Harrison, Dentist, Mears Hall, 113 S. Main avenue. The latest and best styles. Roberts, 128 North Main.

PROVIDENCE.

Miss Etta Lloyd, of Wayne avenue, in company with Samuel Jeffries, of Hyde Park, left last Thursday for Jersey City, where they were married. This is a complete surprise to their many friends. Mrs. Jeffries is the daughter of Mr. Luke Evans, and is a well known and very popular young people in this section. John W. White, of Wayne avenue, met with a painful accident yesterday while at work in the Dickson shaft. He is employed as a runner and was engaged in uncoupling cars when they suddenly came together, catching his fingers between the bumpers and badly smashing them. George Mulvey, of North Main avenue, has returned from a visit to New York. George Silkman, of Church avenue, is slightly indisposed. Miss Mary C. Powell, of Alderman Roberts' office, paid a flying visit to Wilkes-Barre last Thursday night. The Baptist church theme in the North Main Avenue Baptist church tomorrow will be "The Twentieth Century's Call to Christendom." Mrs. Charles Crossman, of Throop street, is visiting friends at Clark's Street.

For Monday bargains go to Mears & Hagen. Special prices in gingham, prints, outing flannels, comforts, blankets, underwear and hosiery. W. A. Mulvey, of Edna avenue, is visiting at White Plains, N. Y. At the Puritan church tomorrow Rev. Newmann Matthews will preach on "The Education of the Race" at 10:30 a. m. and on "Love to Christ" at 7 p. m. A rally of the Christian Endeavor societies of this place was held last evening in the North Main Avenue Baptist church. The Christian Endeavor choir was present and rendered an anthem in excellent style. The meeting was presided over by Rev. George E. Guild, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Dr. Dixon, of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, delivered an address on "Common sense in the work of the Church." The attendance was fair. Mrs. Isaac Jones, of Hill street, is seriously ill. Joseph Osterhout has returned from a business trip to New York city. The assembly dancing class will meet this evening in Brown's hall, corner of East Market street and the boulevard. There will be a game of indoor base ball in Company H armory Monday evening between Mulvey's store and Osterhout's. Dancing after the game.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Politics is Making Things Lively Already in the Nineteenth Ward.

Death of Joseph Weber.

Candidates for office in the Nineteenth ward are springing up thick and fast. No important offices are to be filled in the Twelfth or Twentieth wards. There will be a stir in the Eleventh ward for common council. In the Nineteenth an alderman and a common councilman are to be elected. The term of Christian Storr is about to expire, and he is anxious to serve the people of his ward. He has made a good alderman, and being an upright and prominent man, he will have much influence in keeping the office away from other aspirants. The other Democrats who want it besides Mr. Storr are Ambrose Herz, the Stone avenue merchant; Charles Graf, of Pitston avenue; Joseph Schneider, an artist but not least, Herman Nott. The only Republican so far in the field is Jacob F. Miller.

For common council Richard J. Sheridan, Michael J. Walsh and Peter F. Aulbach are the Democratic patriots willing to sacrifice themselves against George Smith, whose popularity was very amply attested last spring when he was chosen to fill the unexpired term of Chief of the Fire Department P. J. Hickey.

DEATH OF JOSEPH WEBER.

Hotelkeeper Joseph Weber, of 633 Prospect avenue, died at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. On Monday he went to Wilkes-Barre to visit his mother-in-law. While there he took sick and had to come home. As soon as he reached home he went to bed and never arose from it. Death was due to apoplexy. He was 32 years old and leaves a wife and three children. Before embarking in the hotel business he was a cook in the Wyoming Valley hotel, Wilkes-Barre, and in the Wyoming house and the Valley house of this city. He belonged to the Century Hose company, and a meeting of that organization was held at his home last night. Plans were made for attending the funeral, which will take place tomorrow. The remains will be brought to Wilkes-Barre on the 1 p. m. Jersey Central train and interment will be made in Hollenback cemetery.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS.

James and Anthony Hogan, of Birch street, have gone to Baltimore. A meeting of Columbus Council, Young Men's Institute, will be held tomorrow afternoon at Pharmacy hall. An entertainment under the auspices of the Sunday school of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church will be given at the church on Thanksgiving night. A meeting of the Polish Social club will be held at its rooms, 1020 Pittston avenue, tomorrow afternoon.

For Monday bargains go to Mears & Hagen. Special prices in gingham, prints, outing flannels, comforts, blankets, underwear and hosiery. The gospel meeting Sunday at 4:45 p. m. in the Young Women's Christian Association rooms, 1021 Cedar avenue will be a Thanksgiving service. Miss Mary Thompson will speak. Special music will be rendered. Every woman is invited to come. Julius Smith, of Peterburg, and Miss Minnie Welch, of Erie, were married at his home Thursday night by Rev. W. J. Randolph, of the Lutheran church. Her brother, William Weichel, was groomsmen. Miss Emma Luther was bridesmaid.

GREEN RIDGE.

James Crane, Jr., Daniel Crane, Abraham Crane and Hugh Boyle, boys of about 16, were arrested before the coroner last Thursday at the instance of Thomas Bromage. The latter testified that they stole his shoe shop on Penn avenue, his bricks and other stone blocks, breaking several panes of glass and a valuable pipe, which Mr. Bromage was smoking when the boys surrounded the store. He likewise testified that he had been in constant dread of being injured by these "naughty lads," as he called them, and that he had been in constant dread of being injured by these "naughty lads," as he called them, and that he had been in constant dread of being injured by these "naughty lads," as he called them.

GREEN RIDGE.

Constable Black was in Carbondale yesterday having heard that the watches stolen from Mrs. George Kurtz had been offered for sale to a jeweler in the Pioneer City. It proved to be a "wild goose chase." The pilfered watches are numbers 1,445 and 206,877. The members of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Sunday school were requested to meet at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, a half hour earlier than usual, to practice Christmas anthems. Dennis Grimes, of Park Place, has entered suit against the Erie and Ontario Accident Fund to recover damages in the sum of $100. Mr. Grimes was formerly employed as an "outside runner" but resigned last August to accept a better position with the Ontario and Western Railroad company. For this he was expelled from the Fund. The hearing will take place this afternoon.

GREEN RIDGE.

For Monday bargains go to Mears & Hagen. Special prices in gingham, prints, outing flannels, comforts, blankets, underwear and hosiery.

DUNMORE.

The Adams Avenue Presbyterian church was crowded last night to hear Costa Cooper, deliver a lecture with a patriotic view on Turkey as a nation. He held his first lecture accompanied with a graphic history of the Turkish nation. Even from the time of the crusade, he said they have been a crafty, mean and grasping people, filling the history of Europe, with a long list of diabolical outrages. He dwelt particularly on the present condition of Armenia, once a prosperous and fertile land, but despoiled and made to suffer all manner of insults from the Turkish government, they had finally retrograded from their once prosperous condition into an impoverished race. His lecture was well received, eliciting much applause from his hearers.

The photographic gallery at the corners, belonging to Edward Washer, has been taken down, and removed to Olyphant, at which place Mr. Washer intends to open in the photographic business.

For Monday bargains go to Mears & Hagen. Special prices in gingham, prints, outing flannels, comforts, blankets, underwear and hosiery.

Victor Beemer has returned home from a few days deer hunting in Pike county.

Mrs. J. Bronson and daughter, Roman, of Elm street, have returned from a visit with relatives in Thompson.

The case of assault and battery preferred by Angelo Copozzer against Frank Healey, of Archbold, was amicably settled in Justice of Peace B. Cooney's office last evening.

Fire broke out in the building owned by Samuel Johnson, situated on Sherwood avenue, yesterday morning at 3:30 a. m., completely destroying it. The first was caused by the explosion of a lamp. Mr. Johnson and family had a narrow escape, barely escaping with their lives. They saved nothing, whatever, excepting a small amount of clothing. The loss which will reach about $1,500, was partially covered by insurance.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.

Volunteers of America.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: When it is remembered that the Volunteers of America have not had the advantage of time in which to augment its forces and attain its present dimensions—being only inaugurated on the 6th of March last—not yet being eight months old; when we reflect that its growth has been during the heat of Summer and in the midst of political agitation and financial distress, we think we may lay claim to a rise and progress phenomenal in Christian history in this country. We have at the present time three regiments of ten battalions. We have forty-eight staff-officers in positions of responsibility.

We issue a weekly paper of sixteen pages, with a paid circulation of nearly 20,000 copies, and a monthly of over 10,000 copies. The Volunteers are established in some seventy-six cities and towns, and have already nearly 400 commanding officers. We have over 2,000 Defenders, subscribing five dollars each, and have a large number of 10,300 square feet in New York as office room at our national headquarters, where over forty persons are connected with our printing plant, type and engine.

Last month the attendance at the indoor meetings was 247,000; while at the outdoor meetings the attendance was 140,000, making a total of 387,000. When this is multiplied by twelve a fair idea can be obtained of what the attendance will be for the year.

Many cities and towns continue to cry out "Come over and help us." A week has been set aside beginning Saturday morning, Nov. 21, and ending Friday evening, Nov. 27, as a week of Thanksgiving and sacrifice. Surely Scranton will not be behind in this matter. The officers and soldiers of the Scranton post of the Volunteers will, during this week, bring to the various homes and places of business envelopes in which can be placed contributions to help reach the unchurched and unprepared.

Captains Masland and Green. Scranton, Pa., Nov. 20.

A President on Brandy for Sickness.

The President of the Baltimore Medical College, Dr. Byrd, who has thoroughly tested Speer's Pure Pot Still Brandy with marked and decidedly beneficial effects, I am prepared to bear testimony to the value of his Climax Brandy, also, as a pure and valuable article in all cases of disease in which a reliable stimulant is required. I would be happy if I was enabled to patronize these productions, to the exclusion of the harmfully adulterated wines and brandies with which our people are often injured.

HARVEY L. BYRD, M. D. President and Professor of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children, Baltimore Medical College.
