

BANK COMMISSIONER GILKESON'S REPORT

Some Interesting Remarks Concerning Loan Associations.

INSTITUTIONS IN GOOD CONDITION

It is Recommended That Building and Loan Associations be Required to Register in the Department...

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 22.—The first annual report of the commissioner of banking on the building and loan associations of the state is in the hands of the printer...

For the first time in the history of the state this information has been collected. Commissioner Gilkeson says that in his judgment the financial condition of the building and loan associations of the state is sound.

Colonel Gilkeson recommends that all building and loan associations be required to register in the department...

Washington, Nov. 22.—Consul Eugene Germain, stationed at Zurich, writes the department of state, that he is of the opinion that there is now an opening for the sale of American beef in Switzerland.

HANNA AND THE INAUGURATION

Says He Will Have Charge of the Ceremonies on March 4.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 22.—Mark Hanna said yesterday: "My correspondence is almost as large as during the heat of the campaign. I was forced to call Major Dick here to take care of it."

Mr. Hanna was told of the Washington despatch saying that leading Republicans were huffed because, as they claimed, Mr. Hanna had broken doubt will avail themselves of the opportunity and buy the cattle delivered either at an European seaport or stations in Switzerland.

GERMAN ARMY OFFICERS

They Still Regard Themselves as Very Superior Beings.

Berlin, Nov. 22.—It is now conceded that the debate which took place in the Reichstag last week on dueling in the army and the killing of Stebbmann by Lieutenant Varon von Brusewitz at Carlsruhe, instead of modifying the attitude of military officers toward civilians, or tending to alter the military code duello, has had a tendency to intensify the existing prejudice against officers and against the civilian.

THE PRINCESS ELOPES

Clara Ward Runs Away With a Hungarian Musician—Her Husband Will Bring Suit for Divorce.

Paris, Nov. 22.—The Princess of Chimay and Caraman, wife of Prince Joseph of Chimay and Caraman, Belgium, has eloped with a Hungarian gypsy musician, who was accustomed to play in the Paris restaurants.

Clara Ward is not yet 24 years old, and from the time she was 17 she has been a swash that indicates a power of mischief and a readiness to be exhausted.

RUSSIAN-FRENCH ENTENTE

M. Hanotaux Says It Exists, but Throws No Light on It.

Paris, Nov. 22.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday the foreign affairs committee reported on the nature of the understanding between France and Russia.

EARL COWLEY'S DIVORCE SUIT

His Wife is the Daughter of the Marquis of Abernethy.

London, Nov. 22.—The divorce suit instituted against Earl Cowley revives some of the most interesting incidents of the general public first heard of him, when as Viscount Dangan, he was defendant in a breach of promise action brought by the actress Miss Phyllis, under arrangement, got 10,000 from Viscount Dangan.

NAIL TRUST COLLAPSE

The Gigantic Combination Obligated to Hold Up Its Hands at a Sea of Troubles.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—A morning paper says: The great wire nail trust, which has been the subject of much of the United States and Canada since June 1, 1895, has collapsed and will endeavor to wind up its affairs Dec. 1. Sales of wire nails within the trust territory yesterday were only 100,000, which is precisely $1 per keg below the trust's price. It is assumed that the trust will undoubtedly be down to $1.25 per keg, or within 30 cents of the lowest price they have ever sold here.
