THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE -- MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 23, 1896.

Ready to Wear

Charles Lee and prayer by Mrs. S. D. Bager, Mrs. George Brandon gave a recitation, after which Mrs. Lowery sang a solo, Then followed the read-ing of the minutes, and letters of thanks for beneficiaries of the societies by Mrs. Raynor, A paper on "Giving" was read by Mrs. C. T. Meaker, in which Mrs. Meaker answered the ques-tions, "What to give?" "Wing give and how to give?" "Time, money and pray-ers should be given because of the toye for our Savior and a desire to see His work spread." "Give from the His work spread." "Give from the heart," "There is little love in a glit that clings to the ingers." Mrs. J. S. Niles then read "A Daughter of Tyre." Rev. Charles Lee, in a few appropriate words, congratulated the ladies, the usual of their work for the part very result of their work for the past year. He spoke of the destitute people near their own homes and the need of work-prs among the Italians of Carioondale, Misses Unner and Raynor then sang

"We Are Almost Home." A pleasant feature of the meeting was the giving of a thank offering by the ladies for special mercles for the past year. The sum given was $63.80. The service was closed by prayer by Mr. Lee, after which a social time was enjoyed by the two societies, and light refreshments were served.

The following communication was sent out by the water committee on Wednesday evening: To the Citizens of Jermyn:

This is the first time since the pro-posed waterworks, that we have felt justified in officially addressing you. We have not at any period had the least doubt but that success would crown our efforts, but we wished to wait developments so that we could speak with authority, without fear of contradiction. The essential object, where we shall get water, has been overcome, the earth has been pierced to considerable depth, and now puts forth the precious treasure. A large temporary pump has been running thirty strokes a minute, throwing four gallons to the stroke, or 120 gallons a minute for three days, without a sign of diminishing or decreasing whatsoever in the flow. This can be increased to almost double its amount or nearly 240 gallons a minute. With a perma-nent double discharging artesian well pump it would furnish more than suf-ficient water for the people's needs. The orangition has taken to its last record ments for the grand opening of their hundsome quarters on Wednesday evening The shooting match between John Coyne, of this place, and Frank Webb, of Avoca, announcement of which was chronicled in this department, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the flat near the Catholic cemetery. Each man will shoot at eleven birds. As both contestants have a reputation of a crack wing shot the match promises to be close and exciting and a good delegation of the sporting element of nearby towns is expected to be present.

Louisville Commercial. "Dad" Price, the secretary of the po-"Dad" Price, the secretary of the po-lice department, tells this story on him-self. It may have been an ancient one that the young man heard some where on his travels, but it sounds all right. He says he was sitting at his desk one day signing some papers, and he was in such a hurry that he was not doing his very best. In fact, he was writing a wretched hand. A railroad man with grease on his face and warts on his Herbert's hall presented a bandsome appearance on Thursday night as it was the scene of one of the most enjoyable and elaborate events of the season when the prominent young ladies of the town tendered their grease on his face and warts on his friends a leap year dance. A more enchanting view could not be wished for as the young ladies looked more hands entered. He said nothing for a while, but just stood and watched Mr. Price write. Finally he said in a husky tone: "By George! I wish I could write as good as you do." Mr. Price did not reply, but just kept on writing. In a minute or two the man remarked: "Great guns, if I could just write as The decorations were artistic and very appropriate and amidst these gorgeous surroundings, merry groups mingled in good as you do

By this time Mr. Price was annoyed, and the stranger ventured to say: "Well, if I could just write as good galety and pleasure. Light refresh-ments were served under the super-vision of Mrs. M. A. Golden. To the committee in charge there is due no as you do

Then Mr. Price turned suddenly in his chair and said, angrily: "Well, what would you do" I'd go to China and write labels on tea boxes." "This is why Mr. Price took the call-
