Entertainment of the Sons of Veterans in Mears' Hall-It Was Followed by a Social.

The Sons of Veterans always attract a large audience to their periodical entertainments and last night when Ligutenant Erza S. Griffin camp gave a treat at Mears' hall the large crowd which responded further evidenced the which responded further evidenced the popularity of the band of young men. The affair of last night was managed by an entertainment committee con-sisting of Don C. Fadden, chairman; Arthur Clancy, secretary; M. C. Bul-lock, Will Thomas, and Walter G. Ed-warde wards

In addition to the entertainment a dance social followed. William Widedance social followed. William Wide-nor was master of ceremonies, and Don. C. Fadden assistant; Jacob F. Pfeiffer, prompter, and the following floor committee: Thomas Davis, Fred Schmidt, Frank Schmidt, Harry Hoffman. At the door were: August Fad-den, J. W. Bullock, and W. W. Cole. The entertainment was very interest-ing and it was after 10.30 o'clock be-fore the last number had been given. In opening the programme Miss Nellie Curran played a difficult plano selec-tion with her usual skill. Following this there were six recitationists: Miss Jackson, Miss Gussie Schuman, Miss Mary Kelley, Miss Lena Schuman, Miss Jessie Turnbull, and Albert Bray. All were entertaining in their efforts, The Haydn banjo and guitar club,
