

WHITNEY'S WEEKLY BUDGET OF NEWS

A Good Suggestion for the Daughters of the Revolution.

AND NOW A DOUBLE ELOPEMENT

The Brides are Aged 16 and 17 Years Respectively--Mr. Grow's Numerous Correspondents--Story of the Preserved Oxen of Leach Lake.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Nov. 24--In the little cemetery at Belmont, near Pleasant Mount, Wayne county, in an almost unmarked grave, rest the remains of Samuel Meredith, the first treasurer of the United States. Samuel Meredith was born at Philadelphia in 1741, and was educated at Chester academy.

McCONEILL AGAIN. Will J. McConeill, the talented but very erratic temperance lecturer, well-known in Susquehanna and Lackawanna counties, came to Pitsburg from Idaho, where he has been lecturing successfully, to attend the trial of William J. Richter, his brother-in-law, who murdered Mr. McConeill's 15-year-old son, James, in Pitsburg, last summer. On Thursday last, while leaving the court house to procure a lunch, he suddenly sank to the floor. When taken to the hospital it was discovered that he had taken sufficient morphine to kill three men. The physician in charge thought McConeill had taken the drug for a long while. Latest advice went to the effect that he was recovering.

RAILROAD NOTES. Work in the Erie shops is booming. The working force is being perceptibly increased, and much night work is being performed. Let the coercion continue.

The pay rolls in the Erie shops this month exceed in amount any pay roll for the past three years.

Aleck R. Forbes for years a popular engineer on the Susquehanna division of the Erie, is now in the employ of the Willard asylum, at Ovid, N. Y., for treatment.

Several of the larger yards on the Erie are doing a few days business blocked with freight and coal cars.

Rumor has it that the Erie will adopt the compound style of locomotive for the Erie, erecting several new stations along the line. The "old reliable" expects to expand an immense amount of money in improvements next season.

MINOR MENTIONETTES. Joseph P. Lennon was on Friday evening elected president of the Susquehanna chapter of the G. A. R.

The new Methodist church at Stevens Point was dedicated on Thursday. The effort to extinguish the church debt was partially successful.

Window is moving for incorporation. Incidentally, it has a case of diphtheria.

If for nothing else, on Thursday he truly thanked the gods for his escape because election is over. While you are at it get down upon your marrow bones and return thanks because the advance agent of prosperity has arrived.

The Susquehanna Young Men's Christian association starts out with a new year.

Crossed in love, a vicinity young lad attempted suicide, a few days ago. By mistake he took laking powder for arsenic, and still lives to tell the tale.

The elder making season has about closed, and somebody remarks that the business that elder sometimes makes has only just commenced.

Two of Susquehanna's churches, the Episcopal and Baptist, are pastorless.

In a newspaper card, Colonel W. H. Telford, an aspirant for the postmaster ship, says he thinks it advisable to let the majority rule in the choice of postmaster. But the man with the pull gets the permission.

SUICIDE IDENTIFIED. The Girl Who Shot Herself at Trenton Was Minnie Hasselbach.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 24--The young woman who shot herself here last Sunday morning was identified late this afternoon as Minnie Hasselbach, of 229 East Fifth street, New York. Helen Hasselbach, who identified her, is a younger sister. Minnie, she said, while weeping by her sister's coffin, was 21 years old. She was a dressmaker until last spring, since which time she had been out of employment. The girls lived with their widowed mother. The latter told Helen some time ago of Minnie's sad plight. She merely suspected her daughter's condition at first. Minnie vehemently denied that she was in trouble, but at the same time she refused to have a doctor examine her, which confirmed her mother in the belief that she had been betrayed.

"Before I will submit to an examination," she said to her mother, "I will kill myself."

Helen added while telling the story that Minnie kept company with Harry Gay, of 109 East Eighty-third street. Gay is a few years older than Minnie was. He is a collector for a furniture installment house. They were seen together for the last time one day last week. Minnie left home on Friday night last ostensibly to visit a friend in the lower part of the city. This was the last the family saw of her. She had $5 in her pocket and wore a pair of cheap diamond earrings, costing about $12. Newspaper notices of the suicide were called to the family's attention, which led Helen to come on. The police believe the girl spent the $5 and then traded or pawned the earrings for enough money to buy a revolver with which she ended her life.

STRAIGHT NEWS. The International Fraternal alliance, of which Susquehanna once had a branch, has just made the modest assessment on each member of $3.50. Each member has already paid in $200. It's a blessing that these skin-you-quick concerns are fast dying out.

Up to date there are three candidates for postmaster at Susquehanna, with one ward still to be heard from.

Frank Resch, candidate for Susquehanna baker, has excoited or levanted, leaving behind sundry incoherent creditors, who mourn the loss of their "dough." Incidentally, Frank also left behind a wife and several children. Family troubles are said to have been the cause of his sudden flight.

The theatrical season will open in Susquehanna Nov. 28. Let us prepare for tank dramas, limb monstrosities and burnt cork abominations.

The Erie shop will be closed on Thursday. There's more "coercion" for you!

THAT CASE OF HYPNOTISM. Concerning the case of young Westcott, of Forest City, said to be the victim of Professor Lowe, a perigrinating professor of hypnotism, the professor tells a press reporter in Pitsburg that Westcott had been a victim of epilepsy and the cigarette habit. At the father's request he restored the young man, who had been operated upon by inexperienced hypnotists. Owing to the boy's very weak condition, he was unable to treat him for epilepsy, as he had been urged to do. Lowe says he is in no wise responsible for Westcott's present deplorable condition. A good many people, who are more or less interested in hypnotism, would be glad to learn the real facts in this case.

THEY RIDICULE IT.

Many People Ridicule the Idea of an Absolute Cure for Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles.

Ridicule, However, is Not Argument, and Facts Are Stubborn Things.

Stomach troubles are so common and in many cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such prize themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially on medicines.

This fear of being humbugged may be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many persons suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims of a preparation, reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly superior in one respect to all other preparations for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients.

They show them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Soot, bismuth, hydrochloric acid, and they are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely upon the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Tablets, taken after meals, digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, indigestion, the heart, loss of flesh and appetite and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on stomach diseases, sent free.
