APPLICATION FOR CABINET HONORS

Major McKinley Requested to Recognize the Agricultural Interests. THE GRANGE BOOMS J. H. BINGHAM

Suggestion to Be Considered--Distinguished Visitors to Canton--Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hanna and Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid Among the Guests--William Alden Smith Has a Conference With the President-elect.

Canton, O., Nov. 25.--Major McKinley postponed this evening to a formal request for recognition by appointment to the cabinet. A committee of the National Grange, an organization of farmers with a membership of 2,000,000, has elected Major McKinley to appoint J. H. Bingham, of Ohio, secretary of agriculture. The committee consisted of G. H. Dale, of New York; George B. Horton, of Michigan; W. W. Miller, secretary of the Ohio state board of agriculture; and Aaron Jones, of Indiana, who was elected chairman. Mr. Jones said in part:

We feel that the vast agricultural interests of the country ought to be recognized by the appointment of a practical farmer to the position of secretary of agriculture. Colonel Bingham, whom we recommend, is a successful and able man of affairs, a good writer and a good Republican. He has been for some years chairman of the national grange and he is favorably and widely known. We are not satisfied with the course of the present administration toward the farmer. We hope the Republican party will give us a fair and equitable treatment in its tariff bill.

Major McKinley promised to carefully consider the suggestions of the committee and its members departed in excellent spirits. The most interesting feature of the day was the arrival of a party of distinguished visitors from Cleveland at 1:30 this evening. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hanna and Miss Isabel Hanna, General and Mrs. Samuel Thomas, of New York, and their son, and others.

VISIT FROM WHITELAW REID. Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, of New York, who are journeying to Arizona, arrived at the residence of Major McKinley and his brother, Abner, were at the station to receive the guests.

Major McKinley escorted Mrs. Whitelaw Reid and Mrs. Hanna to his carriage, and drove them himself to his house. Mark Hanna sat on the seat beside him. Luncheon was served at 2 o'clock, after which Major McKinley withdrew for a private talk with Mr. Reid, and remained closeted with him until the visitors left for the station at 4 o'clock.

Major McKinley and Mrs. Reid drove to the cars together. Mr. Hanna did not have a private conference with Major McKinley owing to the brevity of his visit.

Congressman William Alden Smith, of Grand Rapids, Mich., came by appointment to see Major McKinley late this afternoon.

"Michigan would feel honored," said Mr. Smith to a representative of the United Associated Presses, "if General Alger was given a cabinet position. We feel that we deserve excellent treatment from the Republican party."

Continuing, Mr. Smith said: "I am opposed to the Dingley bill and I do not think it will pass. The indications are that there will be an extra session of congress."

Among the callers today were Murat Halstead, Colonel W. R. Holloway, of Indianapolis; Major Butler James, of New York; E. F. Andrews, director of the Corcoran school of art, Washington, D. C.

This morning several of the county officials of Monmouth, N. J., called on Major McKinley. They were J. W. Wynneop, Frank Hever, George Snyder, John White, Richard E. C. Cass, William Parker, L. F. Compton, J. B. Hance and E. J. Saunders.

COMPLIMENTED BY M'KINLEY. Isaac Thompson, of Stewart, receives a Personal Letter.

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 25.--The following letter has been received from President-elect McKinley by Isaac Thompson, of Stewart, who recently celebrated his centenary birthday and drove four miles through a storm to vote the Republican ticket.

PLEASURES OF THE FOOT BALL SEASON

Princeton is Victorious in the Game With Yale Freshmen. VANQUISHED BY A SCORE OF 14 TO 4

Two Thousand Spectators Witness the Contest--The Tigers Have Things About Their Own Ways--Details of the Game--Closing Contest of the Season.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 25.--The foot ball season closed here today by the Princeton's victory over the Yale freshmen by the score of 14 to 4. About 2,000 spectators turned out to see the contest but there were few representatives from New Haven. The Princeton team played very well during the first half, but in the second the Yale team showed their advantage. They had gained by steady practice for some time past, while Princeton 1900 was to a great extent a picked-up eleven and had had little opportunity of learning to play together.

Princeton had better men in every position with the exception of the center trio where Suthain and Marshall made things hot for their opponents. The only thing that kept Yale from scoring once or twice was their tumbling at critical times. Their best gains were made by mass plays on the center and by using the quarter back trick around Ogeby's end.

Princeton made the most ground by working Yale's ends which were quite weak, and by using Wheeler's punting. Wheeler punted well but both evens depended mainly on line kicks.

Yale won the toss and chose to defend. After Miller kicked the ball into Princeton's goal and rushed it to the line. Yale held for four downs, and on attempting to punt Brinley was tackled behind his line by Lathrop for a safety after three minutes of play. Score: Princeton, 2; Yale, 0.

On the second half, Princeton blocked a punt and started for the goal with the ball, but was tackled ten yards from the line. A few rushes brought the leather to the line and Princeton carried over. Wheeler failed of goal, score: Princeton, 6; Yale, 0.

Princeton got the ball again and took it to the line and Princeton carried it around right guard for a touch-down. Wheeler again failed to kick goal. Score: Princeton, 9; Yale, 0.

Yale worked the ball to Princeton's 35-yard line but lost it on a fumble. Time for the first half was called with the ball in Princeton's possession on Yale's 35-yard line.

Halfbrand caught the ball on the kick off and ran 45 yards in about two minutes. Wheeler crossed the line with the ball for another touch-down, but a foul was called. Score: Princeton, 14; Yale, 0. A run of 25 yards by Corwin brought the ball to the 15 yard mark in Princeton's goal.

A series of passes followed. Corwin, Cadwallader for a touch-down, but Schewepe failed to kick goal. Score: Princeton, 14; Yale, 0. Yale again carried the ball to the 15 yard mark in Princeton's territory, but fumbled. Booth got the ball and Poe brought it back 25 yards. Princeton lost the ball for a punt. Princeton's netting twenty yards it again became Princeton's on downs. Time was called with the ball in Princeton's possession on Yale's 15-yard line. The final score was: Princeton, 14; Yale, 4.

PENNSYLVANIA-CORNELL GAME.

Preparations for an Exciting Contest at Philadelphia. Philadelphia, Nov. 25.--The last foot ball game of the season of 1896 between Pennsylvania and Cornell will be played tomorrow at Franklin field. The Cornell substitutes, coaches and rubbers, in all about 100, arrived at Philadelphia this evening from Ithaca, and are quartered at the Hotel Stanton. That Pennsylvania will win tomorrow is almost a foregone conclusion, but Cornell always plays a hard and plucky game, and as the Ithacans are in much better condition than when they met Cornell last year, they may have the full strength of their team out for nearly the first time this season, a good game is looked for. While the Cornell substitutes expect to win, they do expect to score. They are counting on Pennsylvania's two fatal faults of this season--a fumble or a blocked kick--to do them in. The goal line of the red and blue. Aside from either one of these two causes it is improbable that Cornell will score, and Pennsylvania's defense this year has been absolutely impregnable to every time they have been scored upon since a blocked kick near their goal line.

With the Cornell Foot Ball team today came the Ithacans Cross Country team. The Cornell cross country team will have their annual five-mile cross country run and the finish will be before the grand stand on Franklin field. The Cornell cross country team will have their annual five-mile cross country run and the finish will be before the grand stand on Franklin field. THE ILL-FATED TEXAS. The Whole Bulkhead System Found to Be Utterly Useless. Washington, Nov. 25.--While the findings of the naval court which investigated the recent foundering of the Texas, have been made public, the department, it is learned that without extensive alterations, it is very doubtful whether the Texas can again be ordered to sea.

The evidence was adduced to show that six of her compartments leaked when her engine room was flooded, and that a leak started in any one of them at sea would have surely caused the total loss of the ship. Not only were all the allowed water-tight doors found to be abortive, but in the opinion of at least one member of the court "her whole bulkhead system is utterly useless."

MEXICAN PEONS MURDER AMERICANS

Members of the Colony at Matlatoyuca Killed in Cold Blood. Series of Robberies Are Followed by Cold-blooded Slaughter--All Efforts to Capture the Robbers Have Thus Far Been Unavailing.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.--Private advices from the American colony at Matlatoyuca, state of Puebla, Mexico, received in this city today, tell of four atrocious murders by Peons, the victims in each case being a member of the colony. A colony was formed four years ago and comprised 200 people, most of them having formerly been prosperous farmers in the United States. A tract of 10,000 acres of land was secured from the Mexican government and a number of Peons have been employed as laborers. Early in the present year a series of robberies took place, but all efforts to capture the robbers were unavailing. Then on August 15, Thomas Gomez, while seated on the veranda of his house was shot and instantly killed by one of a number of Peons, who rode up to the house and fired upon Gomez without warning. The assassin was captured but has not been punished yet.

The second victim was a New York-er named Denny, 24 years old. He, with a friend named Gelsler, were riding towards a village when they were fired upon by three Peons. Denny was shot in the shoulder and fell from his horse, Gelsler being unharmed, was forced to fly and the Peons hacked Denny to pieces with machetes. The murderers have not been captured. Charles Plesca was seated in his barn-hood last Nov. 8, reading when a rifle was thrust through a crevice and a bullet crashed through his head.

A posse started in pursuit of the assassins and that night while in camp were attacked by Peons armed with machetes and Pancho Boris was so seriously wounded that he soon died. The Mexican government has ordered a troop of cavalry to the colony and endeavoring to capture the assassins.
