FOOTBALL CONTESTS.

Mayfield Against Carbondale --- St. Thomas Eleven Defeats Alumni.

A great crowd witnessed the foot ball A great crowd witnessed the foot ball contests at Alumni park on Thursday. In the morning the Crescents, of Scrauton, played the South Side Athletic team, Although an interesting game, it ended by neither side scoring. In the afternoon contest between Mayfield and the High school team brought dear to Carlendale. Then a second defeat to Carbendale. Then a second game resulted disastrously to the Alumnis, who were defeated by Scrauton's St. Thomas eleven.

The home team attempted too much as some of their men were engaged in four games. Then Yarrington in the first game was injured and was forced to withdraw. The crowd on the field gave but little room for the players. The last game lined up as follows, with the score 4 to 6 in Scranton's favor:
