A party from the hill will probably go to Wilkes-Barre this evening and witness the kirmess there.

Last night an assembly was given in Exectsion hall under the direction of Misses Welles, Hunt, Archbald and Belin, the four young halles who arranged last winter's assemblies. A series has not been planned, but one will probably be given during the holiday period.

The lady friends of the members of Scranton Bicycle club are looking forward to giving a lean year hop to celebrate the opening of the new addi-tion if the house can be completed before the year closes. It will be re-membered that the ladies gave one of these dances last spring, which was one of the most successful social functions in the club's history. The exten-sive additions which had been made to the dancing floor facilities of the house will tend to develop the distinctively social life of the club to a greater de bree than ever.

The Scranton ladies who attended the joint reception given early in the week at Carbondale by Mrs. R. P. Patterson, Mrs. A. L. Patterson and Mrs. C. E. Spencer at the latter's home on Lin-coln avenue, were: Mrs. John Simpson, Mrs. N. E. Rice, Mrs. John Simpson, Mrs. N. E. The luca evidently manated from the "university extension" plan of study now so university successful.

It has always, wherever faithfully tried, proven a most efficient and useful auxiliary to the Eible school and a strong and helpful arm of the charch. The direct results are an increased attendance on the main school as well as an increased church ment' in connection with your Bible school.

I shall be happy to aid you in every way that comes within my power to bring about the desired end. Would it not be well to appoint a committee of investigation to report as soon as possible? The days before us just now afford a glorious opportunity and privilege.

This branch of Christian work has already been extended over nearly the earlier Christian work, and shall our beloved county and state lag behind in this grand work. For the Master's sake, and in Jiss name, who bids us "let your light shine." I commend this matter to your direction, and that He may direct you in this work as may be best to the advancement of His Kingdom, in your circle, to the glory of His name.

views 10,30 a. m. and 7,30 p. m. by Rev. A. Houtz, from Orangeville, Pa. LITTLE AR SID.

Little Ah Sid Was a Christian kid -A cute little cus you'd declare-With eyes fell of fun And a nose that begun Right up at the roots of his half.

Jolly and fat Was a frelissome brat, he played through the long summet day,
And braided his one
As his father used to,
In China land, far, far away.

Once o'er a lawn
That Ah Sid played upon.
A bumblebee flew in the Spring.
"Mell-an butterfly"
Said he with winking eye.
"Me enchee and pull off um wing."

Then with his cap This innocent bumblebee —
And put its remains
In the seat of his Jeans,
For a packet there has the Chince,

Down on the green Sat the little sardine, a a style that was strangely demure, And said with a grin, That was brimful of sin, "Me mashes our butterfly, sure."

Little Ab Sid Was only a kid,

Nor could you expect him to guess What kind of a bug He was holding so snag In the folis of his beas-shring dress,

"Ki-ya: Ki-yip-ye!"
Ah Sid cried, as he burriedly up from that spot.
"Ka-ya: Yuk-a-kan!
Dam em Mellean man!
butterfly belly much hot!"
