

News of the Suburbs.

WEST SIDE EVENTS.

"Jimmy" Dean, Recently Converted, Becomes a Backslider—Death of Thomas Quinnan.

"Jimmy" Dean, well known here, is before us again. Monday night he struck Mrs. Henry J. Davis, of Garfield avenue, a blow with his fist and for the assault he will be arrested if Constable John Davis succeeds in capturing him. Dean is the fellow who over a year ago brutally assaulted young Eddie Davis, of N. 14 Lincoln avenue, and for the crime he spent six months in the county jail. Of late Dean has behaved himself and has successfully been a member of the Salvation Army and the Volunteers. He recently belonged to the latter organization. Mrs. Davis says that Dean's assault was unprovoked. He seemed in a fit of insanity when it was done. His home is on Lafayette street. He is considered dangerous and may at any time do ill to some one.

ed upon on Tuesday night, Dec. 14. There will be no drill next week owing to an entertainment in the hall. Constable Timothy Jones reports much success at his hunting trip just ended. Nothing has been heard lately of the West Side hospital.

West Side Business Directory.

HARRIET J. DAVIS, FLORIST.—Cut flowers and funeral designs a specialty; 159 South Main avenue; two doors from Jackson street.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE.—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of C. C. King, 701 to 709 West Lackawanna avenue.

MORGAN'S PHARMACY.—101 NORTH avenue. Warranted pure drugs and chemicals. Prescriptions carefully prepared. Fine stationery and blank books. A large stock suitable for Christmas presents. Test your bottles cheaper than ever. Call and examine them. Wood stains, paints, window glass, etc. Clerk at store all hours of night.

GREEN RIDGE.

Alfred Van Gorden, of Marston street, has returned home from a rabbit in the mountains. He shot several rabbits, some of which were uncommonly large.

Killsworth Price, who is now a brakeman on the Delaware and Hudson railroad between Carbondale and Nineveh, spent Sunday with Green Ridge friends.

Miss Nellie Benson, of Marston street, has recovered from her recent severe illness.

Engineer John Bailey, who became a Wilkes-Barre citizen through a recent innovation in railroad circles, is negotiating with Builder Brown for the erection of a fine residence in Lackawanna's capital. Mr. Bailey and William McDaniels are the best paid engineers in the Delaware and Hudson service.

Monday evening Camp 105, Patriotic Order of True Americans, gave a basket social in Oca hall, on Casson avenue. During the evening recitations were given by Miss Mary Hall and Eva Dorsey, after which the male quartette, consisting of H. Lanyon, O. L. Colvin, A. H. Atkins and W. H. Trevino, rendered some very excellent musical selections. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. James Vought, of Elysburg, and Ada Scholer, of Harvey's Lake, are visiting Mrs. Isaac Vought, of Monsey avenue.

Leaking gas mains have ruined several fruit and shade trees in Green Ridge during the past summer. No trace has yet been disclosed of the man who stole gold watches from the residence of George Kertz in Green Ridge during the past summer.

Mr. Kertz has given the timepieces up as lost.

PROVIDENCE.

George Wildor, of Weston Place, continues to be very ill.

Mrs. Isaac Jones, of Hill street, is somewhat improved.

The Dickson shafts are idle yesterday owing to a break in the breaker machinery.

Daniel Williams, of Mary street, is ill.

A game of indoor base ball will be played this evening in Company H armory by Clarke's Store company and Osterhout's stores. The game will be for $10 a side. Several weeks ago the teams played an exhibition game and Clarke's Store company was victorious. Since that time considerable talk has been done by the members of both clubs and intense rivalry among them is the result. Those who will attend can rest assured that they will witness the best game of the season. There will be dancing after the game.

The members of the Puritan Congregational church choir still continue to rehearse for their grand recital to be held on Thursday evening, Dec. 10.

The members of the F. G. W. Social club are making arrangements for a grand concert to take place on February 22, 1899.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

The funeral of John Gausch, who was killed at the West furnace Saturday, took place yesterday afternoon from his late home on Meadow avenue. The services were conducted at the Zion Lutheran church, Millin avenue, by Rev. P. F. Zitzeman, Washington camp, No. 430, Patriotic Order of Sons of America, attended in a body and had charge of the funeral. The interment was made in Washington Avenue cemetery.

Mrs. Barbara Getz, wife of Fred Getz, of 715 Willow street, died Sunday at 2 o'clock. She was born on June 22, 1852. She is survived by her husband and nine small children. Burial in Minooka cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Katie Needham, 16 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Needham, of Cedar avenue, died yesterday afternoon, having been sick only a few days from a cold, developing into erysipelas. She was a graduate of the Scranton Business college and was employed as stenographer in the office of the Lackawanna Knitting mills. Funeral announcements will be made later.

The following officers of Electric City council, No. 141, Royal Arcanum, were elected last evening for the ensuing year: Regent, Ambrose Herz; vice-regent, John H. Brooks; treasurer, H. J. Spruks; secretary, Emil Bonn; collector, Oscar Grambo; auditor, Peter F. Yoon; guide, Frank Weniger; chaplain, A. G. Hewitt; warden, Patrick Best; sentry, Anthony Woyshner; trustee, Frank Ehrig; representative to grand council, Frank J. Dickert.

Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Young Women's Christian association rooms, 1023 Cedar avenue, Miss Carolyn E. Dorsey, assisted by her pupils, will give a literary and musical entertainment. Miss Dorsey is an eloquent and interesting speaker and will afford to miss this delightful entertainment. You can buy a ticket for the small sum of 15 cents.

Chosen cut flowers and flower designs at Palmer & McDonalds, 544 Spruce.

DUNMORE.

Mrs. J. Luton-Bruce, who formerly kept a confectionery and milk depot at the Corners, is retiring from business.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2.30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. John McHugh, of Butler street, have returned from a short visit with friends in Carbondale.

Miss Etta O'Hara is indisposed at her home on Smith street.

A celebration of the holy communion will take place next Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church. A preparatory lecture will be held in the church on Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The Young Ladies' Missionary circle of the Presbyterian church will hold a fancy needlework sale on Friday afternoon at the residence of Miss Farrer, of Cherry street.

Christopher Quinn, of Norwich, N. Y., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Coleman at their home.

John Burko, of Potter street, is visiting friends in Wayne county.

Charles Frink is very ill at his home on Apple street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Duffy, of Chestnut street, have returned from Carbondale.

George Vanness, of Blakely street, is improving from the effects of a dislocated collar bone.

A PECULIAR COINCIDENCE.

Dunmore was in Darkness and Worniment Was the Result.

Dunmore at present is being supplied with its electric illumination by the Suburban Electric Light company. On Nov. 12 the borough council turned down the Suburban people and awarded the lighting contract to a new company, known as the Dunmore Electric Light and Heat company.

Last night was the time set for the execution of the new contract. Dunmore was in darkness when the borough emerged from its Stygian state, worriment gave place to abashment and inquiries were begun to find the reason for the darkness. It was discovered that it was only a peculiar coincidence that the lights were off when the contract was being signed, a break having occurred at the company's plant.

The new company will not be prepared to supply light for about two months yet. In the meantime the borough must rely upon the Suburban people's good will for their light, as there is no contract to bind them.

INCREASED TRACTION POWER.

Additions Are to Be Made to the Providence Plant.

The machinery for supplying increased power in the Providence plant of the Scranton Traction company will be put in place within a few weeks. A new 700-horse power engine and a generator of equal power will be installed. The generator will be put in place within a week and the engine in about two weeks. The former has been built by Seaman & Hallik, of Chicago, and the engine by Cooper, of St. Vernon. The addition will give about 2,000 horse power to the plant.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured in 3 Days.

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed for six weeks and had eight physicians but received no benefit until she tried the Myotic Cure for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by Carl Lorenz, druggist, Scranton, 418 Lackawanna avenue.

AMUSEMENTS.

One of the largest audiences that has ever been inside the Frothingham will possibly greet De Wolf Hopper and his famous opera company tonight in the most successful comic opera of recent years, "El Capitan." Great interest is being manifested in the engagement not only from the fact that the performance of the now famous opera will be its initial one in this city, but also owing to the great popularity enjoyed by both star and composer. John Philip Sousa's name in the brief space of five years has become a household word, which is not surprising for his admirable compositions are today played in every city and town in this country, and by all of the leading military bands and large orchestras in Europe. At the head of his superb band, he has toured the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, as well as from Canada to Mexico. He has recently held in Atlanta, Charles Klein, the author of the book, is a rising young dramatist, who has already written several popular plays and is now preparing for the play entitled "Dr. Belgrave," for the well known actor, Wilton Lackaye, and another for the New York Empire Theater Stock company. The presentation of "El Capitan" here is promised the same gorgeous scenic environment by Mr. Hopper and his managers, as all of the entirely new and appropriate scenery prepared by Ernest M. Gros, a famed scenic artist, formerly of Paris, as well as all of the magnificent costumes, draperies and dresses provided by Dazian, the New York costumier, together with all the unique properties and mechanical effects; in fact, every detail that made the opera's remarkable success at the Broadway theater, New York city, during its brilliant run of sixteen weeks at that house, will be utilized here.

Hermann, the magician, is booked for the Frothingham next Monday night. He was asked not long ago what he considered his best feat of magic. He replied: "Pulling a laugh from the mouth of a tired man."

The Sages will be at the Academy of Music all of this week.

Today's Two performances of "A Baby's Red Stocking" will be the last of the entirely new and appropriate scenery prepared by Ernest M. Gros, a famed scenic artist, formerly of Paris, as well as all of the magnificent costumes, draperies and dresses provided by Dazian, the New York costumier, together with all the unique properties and mechanical effects; in fact, every detail that made the opera's remarkable success at the Broadway theater, New York city, during its brilliant run of sixteen weeks at that house, will be utilized here.

Rich and Maeder will present for three days at the Davis theater, commencing tomorrow, the powerful comedy drama, "Kidnapped," illustrating scenes which are drawn from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen on the streets of every great city. In the fifth act a realistic representation of the Haymarket riots at Chicago is introduced, amidst the howling of a murderous mob, the police patrol dashes on the stage, drawn by two spirited horses. A murder is being committed, the police leap from the vehicle, arrest the assassin, place him in the patrol wagon and then dash manfully off the stage. The comedy element is woven through the five acts; bright new specialties are introduced, which are funny enough to keep the audience which will draw from every day life. Each and every character is seen