"Mr. Hanna, has it been settled whether you are to be the next secretary of the treasury or the next senator from Ohio to succeed Senator Sherman?"

"Will you hold any important conferences.""
"I will have several consultations with leading Republicans. Will likely meet Senators Sherman, Quay, Proctor and others. Cannot say who the others will probably be."

"Has Mr. McKinley determined to call a special session of congress?"
"Not yet. It is a little early to decide definitely on that point. There are too many other matters to be decided before reaching any definite consided before reaching any definite concided before reaching any definite con-clusion on that score. I do not know whether a special session of congress will be called or not."

Bishop Keane's Removal. Washington, Dec. 3.—The flood of gossip, following the deposition of Hishop Keane from the rectorship of the Catholic University of America, appearing in the American newspapers has reached Rome and has caused grave concern. This is shown by the unusual step taken by the cardinal secretary of state in sending the following cablegram received this afternoon at the apostolic legation here: soon at the apostolic legation here: Rome, Dec. 3. Monsignor Martinelli, Apostolic Delegate Monsignor Martinelli, Apostolic Delegate, Washington.

The Holy Father has learned with great sorrow of the agitation created in the United States by pretended correspondence and telegrams from Rome announcing measures soon to be taken against ominant American prelates and distinguished professors of the Catholic university. Your excellency will authoritatively deny all such falsehoods, which are the product of reprehensible machinations.

A Catholic churchman well verse with all the steps leading up to Bishop Keane's removal said tonight, that the action of the holy father in sending the cablegram above quoted, should put a stop to all further gossip on the sub-ject. It was well understood, he said, in church circles, that Bishop Keane's removal was brought about by German ecclesiastic influence and it was hoped by the same influence that fur-ther charges in the same direction and following the same lines would follow. While he deprecated sensational news-paper talk, in this instance, it seemed to him to have had an excellent effect, as it had reached the ears of Rome, which had called a halt on the assault being made by the German ecclesiastics on the American party of the Catholic church in America. The American party, he said, had not lifted a finger to repel such assaults, nor had it sent tales to Rome, but simply abided its time, with the result that the holy father had now taken the matter in his

THE EXECUTION OF LOPEZ COLOMA

More of the Shocking Details Come to Light .- General Woyler's Part in the Affair -- Spanish Scouts Unable to Locate the Enemy at Pinar Del

Key West, Fla., Dec. 3.-Passengers who arrived from Havana last night report that Weyler's campaign in Pin-ar Del Rio so far is a complete failure, despite the fact that he has sixty thousand men in the province. When Wey-ler left Artemisa be formed a conlumn of 10,000 infantry, 1,500 cavalry and ten pieces of artillery and marched skirting the base of the hills on the southern the base of the hills on the southern side, and seeking an opening to attack Maceo, who is strongly fortified on top of the hills. It appears that Maceo has gathered all his forces and is now entrenched in the hills waiting Weyler's attack. There is, it is asserted, no truth in the report that Maceo has divided his forces into small bands to elude combats, and it its further declared that it is known on authority clared that it is known on authority that Wevier has no view of meeting Macco. Gomez with a large force is reported steadily advancing west, mov-ing slowly on account of great impediments in the way of cannons, infantry, etc. He is now reported in Santa Clara province and it is said is coming with 20,000 men.

There are more shocking details of Lopez's Coloma's execution. General Martinez Campos, it is said, is indignant at the injustice committed in excuting Coloma. Campos obtained the telegram so advisinb. The message ar rived at noon, but Weyler pocketed it so report says, and ordered the exe cution to proceed and Coloma was sho

THE QUEEN PRESIDES. THE QUEEN PRESIDES.

Madrid, Dec. 3.—The queen regent presided at a meeting of the cabinet council today at which Premier Canovas announced the arrival of General Polaviejo, the new governor of the Philippines, at Manila. The premier also announced that the insurgent leader, Maceo, had disappeared from his position in the Cuban province of 1 nar Del Rio and that the Spanish troops under General Weyler were pursuing him.

In fact, the Span-ish scouts have not been able to locate the enemy, and the position is not the enemy, and the known of a single one of the rebel par-ties. The last report received here s at-ed that General Weyler and his forces were encamped near Los Palacios.

LIKE RATS IN A TRAP.

Three Hundred Spaniards Shot Down by Cubaus---Attack on Guanabacea More Serious Than Reported.

Havana, Dec. 2.—The facts which are just leaking out in regard to the insur-gent attack on Guanabacca, on the out-skirts of this city, on Tuesday last, show the affair to have been much more serious than at first stated. The insurgents claim that Guanabacca was attacked by several bodies of insur-gents, while another insurgent force fired upon the Spanish outpost at Bu-caranas, on the coast. The garrison of the fort, it is added, left that place to resist the attack on the town, but was cut off between stone walls and farm fences by about 300 insurgents, and, in spite of the gallant defense made, all the Spaniards were killed.

The exact number of soldiers slain is not known. It is admitted that a number of insurgents were also killed; but, here again, the number is not stated. On the other hand, the insurgents are said to have burned seventy-four houses in Guenabacoa, instead of one hou as the official report of the affair stated. Further details show that the fighting began at 10.30 on Tuesday night. The insurgents first fired upon the Spanish outposts of the city and suburbs, and, in spite of the prompt precautions taken by the military com risons were almost immediately placed under arms to repel the invaders, the latter, after an hour's skirmish, broke through the Spanish picket lines, en tered the city and set fire to a large number of houses in Aguacate and Palo Blanco streets.

These thoroughfares, as a rule, contained private residences or cheap buildings occupied by refugees. Only one store of importance was burned, it is said, although the insurgents made many efforts to set fire to other stores The local authorities are doing ev-erything possible to conceal the real facts in the case, but there is no doubt have received a bad scare, and the insurgents have demonstrated that it would not be a very difficult matter, in spite of the reports of the military commanders, to create just such another "scare" to say the least, in the city of Havana itself.

WATERS OF CHIPPEWA.

They Are Still Creeping Toward the City -- Trouble Ahend.

That portion of the town which it was expected would be the first to suffer—the block on the bank of the creek between Spring and Central streets—has escaped so far, and most of the business houses there continue to transact business, although it now appears that they will be forced to vacate in a short time. Congressman-Elect William Connell Pleads the Cause of the Governor. Quay and Hastings Did Not Meet Looks Like a Square Contest Between Penrose and Wanamaker.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 3.-The first

Other state officials soon found their way to the hotel, and with these came other politicians from different parts of the state. All wanted to learn the name of Senator Quay's choice for United States senator and they did not go away in the dark on this subject. It is now clear that Senator Penrose is to be the Quay standard bearer in the contest against ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker, and it is intimated in Quay circles that Governor Hastings will not make it unpleasant for those who refuse to endorse his candidacy. It is said that he will retire from the race with the prospect of being urged for a cabinet position in the McKinley administration, Many of those who have called on the governor have told him that they are for the person who is the choice of Senator Quay. It looks now like a square contest between Penrose and Wanamaker, and an interesting political battle is on. Senator Quay and Governor Hastits object the occupation by Russia of the northwestern corner of Turkey, formed by the Bosphorus and the Black sea, to about half way down the Bosphorus, which together with the Hellespont, will become entirely free to the vessels of all nations.

Senator Quay and Governor Hastings did not meet tonight, but will have a talk over the situation tomorrow. Congressman-elect Connell, of Scranton, called on Senator Quay tonight and pleaded the cause of the governor. Senator Quay returns to Washington tomorrow night.
